Pomona. Although we are a little later expressing it, than some of the other correspondents yet we wish the Chronicle Editor and staff a happy and prosperous New Year.

The remains of Mrs. Fred Ryder, who some years ago with her husband resided here, were interred in the Public Cemetery on Sunday the funeral taking place from her late home at Proton Station. Rev. C. L. Mill of this place conducted the burial services. The deceased, who was 37 years of age, had been ill for some time and died at the home of her parents in Kincardine. We sympathize with Mr. Ryder and his children in their bereavement.

Mr. W. Trimble has added a new cover to his bus sleigh for the comfort of his patrons. Mr. Will Thompson, second son of Mrs. Jane Thompson this place, had the pleasing experience of initiation into the bandist state on December 23rd last. Baptism was also administered to the infant children of Mr. and Mrs. D. McTavish and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Smith. At the close of the evening service in the Methodist church the prescribed conversation and veneration service for the first Sabbath of the year was held and a large number took part in the beautiful and solemn service.

The Misses Beatties entertained a number of their friends here at their home, Toronto line, on New Years eve. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mitchell, of Buffalo, paid Mr. and Mrs. F. Cairns and Mr. and Mrs. D. McLeod, back line, a visit last week. Mrs. W. Blackburn and daughter,

Some time ago in a shipment of eggs from Mr. Runstadler's eggery here an egg went forth with a message written on it by Miss Myrtle Blakely, who asked the receiver, if a marriageable gentleman to correspond. A few days ago Miss Myrtle received from London, England, a card containing the following pathetic reply. "The last man on earth." Even if he be we are not sure that the little lady will place on him her affections.
