Waudby.

As I have not noticed any Waudby or Watersville news in the columns of your paper for some time, I thought I would dot down a few of the happenings as the roads are getting so as we can get around in the usual way again.

Mark Baker is very sick at present. Hope to hear of his speedy recovery.

Mrs. K. McKechnie has returned home again after enjoying a three months' visit with her daughter in Manitoba. She looks as if that country agreed with her.

Mr. Luther and Mrs. Torry, of Markdale, were visitors of the Ellison family one day last week.

Archie Young has returned to Buffalo after a two months' visit with his brother, Joseph, and his sister, Mrs. G. Boyd, of Glenroaden.

Miss Sarah Young has returned to the Queen City after enjoying home comforts for the last half year.

The little folks are well pleased with the choice of the trustees in selecting Miss Morton as teacher for S. S. No. 4.

We notice quite a number of new cutters around this winter. James Bartley and John McKechnie brought home one each the other day.

Mrs. A. Robertson, of Manitoba, is visiting at the parental home for the winter months.

Donald McKechnie has just finished taking out the timber for his barn which is to be erected next summer. The building will be 50x65 feet.

The party at J. McKechnie's last Friday night was well attended and everybody enjoyed themselves until the wee sma' hours.

James Bartley had the misfortune to have his team of spirited horses run away and in trying to prevent them he got one of his legs badly crushed. Hope to see him around in a few days.

Aberdeen.

It is sometime since you have heard from our burg.

The snow is still falling here yet. Miss Addie Collinson left for Hamilton lately.

Mr. Dougald Clark left to work at Glenroaden accompanied by Mr. Tom Vessie of the Gravel.

Wonder who the two men were who made a mistake and were on their way to Durham with grain on Sunday, and were told of their mistake before reaching their journey's end. Wonder who it was Bill?

We are pleased to see Mr. Wm. Collinson home from Hamilton again.

Glenmont.

On Tuesday evening Jan. 12th the three choirs of which Mr. Wm. Ramage is leader viz. Dromore, Ebenezer and Greenside assembled at his home at Thistle, to spend a pleasant evening together.

The forepart of the evening was spent in Music, games chit-chat etc. when about midnight supper was announced, and soon the spacious parlour was deserted and one and all sat down to a sumptuous repast, consisting of oysters, sandwiches, cakes, pies, etc. After partaking of all that is good for man the jolly company again filed into the parlor, when the remaining part of the evening was spent in music and song. Miss Jean Renwick delighted the guests with a number of her grand old Scotch songs. Excellent violin and organ instrumental were rendered by several others. Old Father Time didn't wait for the choirs, so the hours kept rolling on till they were beginning to grow big again. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Ramage for their kind hospitality. After the singing of Auld Lang Syne, all departed to their homes feeling that a most pleasant time had been spent together.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hargrave visited with the former's mother, Mrs. F. Hargrave one day last week.

You May Have Kidney Trouble

If your back aches and you suffer from dragging pains it is an evidence of diseased kidneys. Get Ferrozone at once and take it regularly. Ferrozone makes kidney sufferers feel better at once. "I was bothered a great deal with my kidneys last year" writes S. G. Denton of Everett "but got quick relief from Ferrozone. My trouble manifested itself by pain in the back dull heavy feeling and constant headache. I quite recovered after using a few boxes of Ferrozone which has given me more strength and after health than I ever had before. I can recommend Ferrozone as a positive cure." Price 50c. at all druggists.

Arab Lying.

The following characterization of the Arab penchant for not telling the truth is from a paper by Dr. G. Saint-Paul on the Tunisians: "Arab lying is exasperating. It is absurd and victorious. It triumphs easily over the critical sense and the habit of scientific reasoning. It is sometimes childish. Your native servants will never be taken unawares. You forbid one of them to smoke in your dining room and you surprise him there with a cigarette in his mouth. 'You were smoking.' 'No.' 'I saw you.' 'Impossible.' 'You had a cigarette in your mouth; you are hiding it in your hand; there it is!' 'Then God put it in my hand.' The native denies always. Taken red handed he denies. Beneath blows he denies. Pain is sometimes powerless to make him confess, even at the point of death. This obstinacy is due in part to the high idea he has of his dignity. His pride forbids him a confession, because the avowal of his lying is infinitely humiliating in his eyes. The fear of losing 'face' is all powerful in him. To recognize a fault is more shameful than to have committed it. Hence the peculiar obstinacy of the native in denying, even when it would be to his interest to confess, an abstinence not manifested in other ways."—Journal of American Folk Lore.

Canine Intelligence.

A native of Peru has vouched for the following: A native pointed out one day a huge white dog that lay before his walled house. He declared that his dog had intelligence of an almost human order. He said that once, when it had broken a bone in its foot, he had taken it to a surgeon and the surgeon had set the fracture and relieved it of its pain. Some months afterward, in the middle of the night, the surgeon was awakened by a great scratching at his door and by a thumping as of some heavy body. He slipped on a dressing gown and went down, to find the white dog in his garden with a brown dog beside it that held one leg off the ground. The surgeon's deduction was that the white dog had brought its companion there for treatment. Accordingly he dressed the leg of the injured animal, and thereupon the two dogs licked his hands with an air of gratitude and departed slowly into the night side by side.

The Way to Float.

This is the advice of an old swimmer to those who cannot swim: "Any human being who will have the presence of mind to clasp the hands behind his back and turn the face toward the zenith may float at ease and in perfect safety in tolerably still water. When you first find yourself in deep water you have only to consider yourself an empty pitcher. Let your mouth and nose, and not the top of your heavy head, be the highest part of you and you are safe. But thrust up one of your bony hands and down you go—turning up the handle tips over the pitcher." There are reason and logic in this.

Tolerance.

Tolerance is a calm, generous respect for the opinions of others, even of one's enemies. Tolerance is silent justice blended with sympathy. Tolerance always implies wisdom and kindness. It seeks to convert others from error by gently raising them to higher ordeals, by leading them to broader lines of thinking, by patiently helping them to help themselves. Tolerance does not use the battering ram of argument or the club of sarcasm or the rapier of ridicule.—Selected.

Painful.

Johnson—Does your wife speak French?
Thompson—She thinks she does.
"You don't speak it, do you?"
"No."
"Then how do you know she doesn't?"
"I watched a French waiter's face the other day when she was talking to him, and I'll be blamed if he didn't look as if he had the toothache!"

Unreasonable.

Magistrate (severely)—Prisoner, how did you have the audacity to break into this man's house at midnight and rob him?
Prisoner (piteously)—But, your honor, last time I was before you you wanted to know how I could have the audacity to rob a man in broad daylight. When do you expect me to get in my work?

The Baby Humorists.

"Of course," said Mrs. Extrygood, "you are fond of bright, precocious babies?"
"Oh, yes; certainly," replied Old Batch, "but I draw the line on the supposed smart sayings made up by the parents and loaded off on the poor infants."

Asking His Advice.

A little girl, aged nine, called her father to her bedside the other evening.
"Papa," said the little diplomat, "I want to ask your advice."
"Well, my dear, what is it about?"
"What do you think it would be best to give me on my birthday?"

Rapid.

Noozey—I've heard a rumor that she is to be married.
Oldbache—Yes.
Noozey—Who's the lucky one?
Oldbache—Neither of them, if they only knew it.—Philadelphia Press.

Wanted.

I am looking for dishonest borrowers—yes, indeed—fellows who will borrow my troubles and never pay them back.

Milton's Opinion.

Milton was once asked if he intended to instruct his daughter in the different languages. He replied: "No, sir. One tongue is sufficient for a woman."
