The ninth annual convention of the Epworth Leagues of the Owen Sound but the sessions did not lack in in terest and profit because of the very interesting addresses and papers that were given. At 11. a. m. the chair was taken by the President Rev. J. S. 1. Wilson, of this place, who conducted the devotional exercises after which the secretary-treasurer, Miss Holland, of Owen Sound was called upon for her report. Then followed the election of the nominating committee after which the President addressed the Convention in his usual thoughtful and interesting manner. Rev. G. R. Turk, of Owen Sound, then preached the convention sermon a very able and edifying discourse on Acts 19: 2.
