HIS TREASURE.

I like to sit and look at all my stocks and bonds and shares, And think of how I almost joined the multimillionaires.
Here are six million dollars' worth of stock certificates In Jiggsby's Giant Company for Propagating Dates,
The stock is lithographed so fine;
the dividends are due;
And I'd be clipping coupons, but The floor
fell through!

Way up there in the attic is a heap of ancient bonds—
The Guarantee Subscription for the Suckers' Own Fishponds; And tumbled round about them is about a million's worth Of shares in Some One's Scheme to Make Pure Diamonds from Earth.
They cost me almost nothing, and it makes me rather blue To think I would be wealthy, but
The floor
through!

O yes, and here's my special lot of Superheated Air; My line of Salted Copper, too, is stacked up over there; Why, underneath the carpets and all about the place Is Kansas Coffee—common—just ten million on its face.
They give me first chance at it—'twas a splendid thing to do, And I'd be wearing sparklers, but
The floor
through!

I've got a lot of other stock—there's Sagebrush Tea, preferred; And Mountain Air Condenser (now that agent was a bird!)
And Summer Snow Supplier, also Ocean Water Gold—I had some Endless Motion, but that stock, by jinks, I sold!
I get my good twelve weekly, but I want to say to you I'd have them all going, but
The floor
through!

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

On Tuesday night last, the teachers, officers and members of the Bible Class of the Varney S. S. along with a few others numbering about 35 in all, drove as a surprise to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Aldred to express their gratitude to Mr. Aldred for his services as superintendent. Shortly after their arrival an address was read by Mr. James Gray and Mr.
Aldred was presented with a handsome fur coat by Mr. Arthur McCrie.
The address was as follows:

MR. ALDRED.—It is with much pleasure and delight that we, the members of Varney Sunday School and Bible Class, assemble with you here this evening. For upwards of fifteen years our school has been under your able superintendence, and during that time your prompt and genial manner in the faithful discharge of every duty associated with your office, has won from us the highest respect and esteem. You have left nothing undone, and spared no effort to advance the best interests of our school and of each individual member, as is sufficiently evidenced by the standing of our school in the annual report of our association, a fact which must be deeply gratifying to you, as it is to each one of us.
May this fur coat as well as the deep feeling of appreciation and gratitude which accompany it, add much to the comfort and happiness which we hope the future has in store for you. May an even greater blessing follow you and your efforts henceforth.

Signed on behalf of the school.

HARRY WILKINSON.
ARTHUR MCCRIE.
RICHARD ALLEN,
JAMES GRAY.

Although completely taken by surprise, Mr. Aldred replied in a straitforward manner which conveyed his heartfelt thankfulness, not alone for the gift but for the appreciation of his labors which it indicated, at the same time pointing out how futile he felt his efforts would have been had it not been for the hearty support and co-operation of the school.

As everyone knows, a Varney crowd can enjoy themselves, and the remainder of the evening was happily spent in games and different amusements. Before returning home, the entire assembly joined heartily in the singing of the old familiar hymn "God be with you till we meet again."

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY AND PRESENTATION

A most enjoyable evening was spent at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W.
Morrison, 12th con., Egremont, near Holstein, last Friday evening when a large number of their friends and relatives met to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of their wedding day. Mr. Morrison having sold his farm is about to take up his residence in Holstein, and his many friends and neighbors took the opportunity of the anniversary of his wedding day to meet together and show their appreciation of the many kind services which he and Mrs. Morrison have shown among them. After all the guests had arrived an excellent programme consisting of songs, instrumental music, recitations and addresses was rendered. Just previous to the singing of the last number on the programme the chairman, Mr. Spence, requested Mr. and Mrs.
Morrison to come forward and be seated together. Mr. Wm. Groat then read an address at the close of which Mr. John Hamilton, Sr. presented Mr. Morrison with a handsome gold headed cane, and Mrs. Spence presented Mrs. Morrison with a beautiful gold lined silver cake basket both articles having the names of Mr. and Mrs. Morrison engraved upon them. Mr. Morrison although completely taken by surprise by a few appropriate remarks, thanked the company heartily on behalf of himself and Mrs. Morrison for their very handsome gifts, not so much for their intrinsic value as for the kindly feelings which had prompted the gifts, both Mrs. Morrison and himself would ever fondly cherish the memory of the many years they had lived among them as friends and neighbors. At the close of Mr. Morrison's remarks refreshments were provided and after full justice had been done to the many excellent dishes the company joined in singing that grand old song, "Auld Lang Syne," after which the company broke up in "the wee sma' oo's ayont the twal."

THE ADDRESS.

Egremont, February 5, 1904.
TO MR. AND MRS. W. MORRISON:

DEAR FRIENDS.—We wish to take the opportunity afforded us to-night to express the sincere regret with which we view your departure from our midst to take up your residence in Holstein, and while we feel that in your removal we will sustain a loss which will not be easily repaired we also take great pleasure in expressing the regard and esteem in which you have been held by us all. We recognize your many good qualities of mind and heart and we have a grateful remembrance of the many acts of neighborly love and kindness we have received at your hands and we trust that in your new home your years may be long and abundantly blessed.
We desire to show in some manner our appreciation of your many acts of love and kindness and therefore ask your acceptance of this walking cane and cake basket not for the value which they may contain, but as a reminder of the respect and esteem in which you have always been held by those who through long years of acquaintance are best able to judge of your sterling qualities.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors.

MRS. GROAT.
JAS. A. KENNEDY.
W. H. ROGERS.
