stock on hand $271,988.02. Showing a loss of nearly $10,000. The figures given in the Financial Statement of the Auditor are $9,430.22, net loss.

This is not all, but is sufficient to discourage widows and orphans and servant girls who have scraped together a couple of hundred dollars to be more cautious about where they put their hard earned money, and from the way things are at present there are plenty of cement mills to meet all demands.

How it Spreads

The first package of Hem-Roid (the infallible Pile cure) that was put out went to a small town in the state of Nebraska.

It made the cure of a case of Piles that was considered hopeless.

The news spread and although this was only two years ago the demand prompted Dr. J. S. Leonhardt of Lincoln, Neb., the discoverer, to prepare it for general use. Now it is being sent to all parts of the world.

It will cure any case of Piles. There is a month's treatment in each box.

Sold for $1.00, with absolute guarantee. For sale at Darling's drug store.

SUICIDE AT PALMERSTON.

Mr. J. Waller, Excise Officer, Shoots Himself While Despondent.

Mr. J. Waller, Excise Officer, of Palmerston, committed suicide on Friday evening last shortly before six o'clock. He has been in very frail health for some time, and that, together with some family trouble at his home in Ottawa is supposed to be the reason for the deed. He returned to Palmerston from Ottawa on Tuesday, and it was at once noticed that he was troubled about something. On Wednesday night he left his home and went down to the Queen's hotel and woke the proprietor, Mr. S. J. Kearns, who saw that he should be watched as he threatened to take his life. Mr. Kearns hired Mr. Reid Lewis to watch him. Mrs. Lewis also going to clean up the house to be ready for the homecoming of his wife, and had him taken home. From that time until shortly before his death Lewis never left him. On Friday afternoon he sent Lewis up town for some oysters and his little girl for some eggs. Mrs. Lewis was working in the kitchen and he went to his room and loaded a military rifle he had in the house and pointed it to his heart pulled the trigger with a poker. The doctor said that he died instantly.

Mr. J. Waller was a son of the Mr. Waller, who was for two years Mayor of Ottawa, and was descended from an old Irish family. The deceased came to Palmerston about five years ago, succeeding Mr. N. J. Dingman, who is now in Kingston. He was thirty-eight years of age and leaves a wife and five children. He was a member of the Roman Catholic church. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon to Palmerston cemetery.

Mr. Waller was well known in town being here often in the fulfilment of his duties as Excise Officer. He lived in Listowel for a year about five years ago.—Listowel Standard.
