Address and Presentation

On Wednesday evening March 23rd a few of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hinks from the neighborhood assembled at their residence South Line for the purpose of presenting them with a small token, to show the esteem in which they were held in the neighborhood during their stay amongst them. They intend to move in a short time to the village of Priceville. The following address was read by Miss Mary McEachern, after which a lengthy programme was handed to John McDonald who acted as chairman. The programme consisted of vocal and instrumental music by the Misses Hooper and others. Mr. and Mrs. Ramage being present on the occasion, they added greatly to the evenings entertainment as Mr. Ramage is noted for his excellent talent as a singer and was liberal in response whenever called upon. The ladies provided good eatables.

To MR. AND MRS. ALBERT HINKS

Dear Friends—A few months ago we were informed that you sold your farm, and that it was your intention to move away from our neighborhood in the near future. It is with pleasant remembrances we recall the good feelings that existed between you and us as neighbors during the past twenty years which we were privileged to have you and family as neighbors. We always found you upright in your dealings with us, obliging when in need of your assistance. And now that you have decided to move away from our locality, we are desirous of showing our appreciation of the respect you and family were held by us during the time you were with us. We ask you to accept this Hall Rack, not for its value, but as a small reminder of us and happy days gone by in the hope that you may both be long spared to enjoy it in your future residence and while we regret your removal from us we are pleased to know that your future residence is not far away from us. There we may be privileged to meet you occasionally. And finally when we are done with earthly scenes we hope to meet in that glorious Home, where there will be no removals nor partings.

Signed in behalf of the neighborhood.

ROGER MCEACHERN
HUGH McDONALD
NORMAN MCINTYRE
