stomach, then dyspepsia, biliousness, loss of appetite. Your doctor knows the remedy, used for 60 years.

"Returning from the Cuban war, I was a perfect wreck. My blood was bad, and my health was gone. But a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla completely cured me."
E. C. DORRIS, Scranton, Pa.

Artemesia council have now on their hands an unexpected and costly job of bridge building. The new cement tile bridge over the Saugeen at Stinson's with considerable of the roadway, have been washed away by the recent freshet. The bridge was built last summer at a cost of $320 and was pronounced a substantial job.

C. N. Richardson, who is now a full fledged pharmacist and optician, has become a partner with his father, W. E. Richardson, in the long established Richardson drug business here. We join Charlie's numerous friends in congratulations and wish him a large measure of success in the old business with which he now stands identified. Mr. Richardson who has for many years supervised the mortar and pestle will doubtless hereafter be able to enjoy a little well earned respite from his close attention to business.

The Medical Hall drug store, now owned by W. J. Douglas and managed by H. A. Willet, has recently undergone such transformation that one would hardly know the place. Mr. Willet has engaged his hand in more ways than dispensing and the improvements made and taste displayed have given the place quite a citified air.

W. E. Richardson met with a loss a few days ago which he very much regrets. His fine mastiff took ill and after being sick for a week or more with no hopes of recovery he had her humanly shot to end her sufferings. Stella's massive form was for years a familiar figure at the drug store where during her nocturnal watch she would have made it very unfortunate for any stranger who might have intruded. Off duty she was gentle and playful with any one and was a great pet in the home of her master.

T. J. Sheppard has purchased a property at Toronto Junction and has announced that he will retire from business here in about three months. Mr. Sheppard was formerly in business at the Junction and is therefore not a stranger in that town. He will there handle dry goods only. Mr. John Sheppard who will also move to the Junction has sold his residence opposite the Presbyterian church to Thos. Snell who is retiring from the farm on the west back line.

Mrs. S. Thompson, son, whom we reported last week very ill at Bond Head died on Friday, aged 69 years. Her remains were interred in the Orange Valley cemetery on Monday, her former pastor, Rev. L. W. Thom of this place, and Rev. J. Hunter, Markdale, officiating. The deceased was bereft of her husband about 35 years ago and from then till about 5 years ago resided on the west back line very highly respected for her upright and exemplary Christian life. Her name was enrolled with the members who organized the Presbyterian church here. Three sons, Samuel A., Midhurst; John J., Orillia, and Rev. A. E., missionary to the Jews, Jerusalem, and one daughter, Miss Elizabeth, teacher at Orillia, survive her. David W., theological student, died five years ago.

At the annual Thanksgiving meeting of the Women's Missionary Society in the Methodist church on Thursday afternoon last an address befitting the occasion was given by the pastor. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the members and an enjoyable social season was spent together.

At a meeting of the choir of the Methodist church on Thursday evening last Rev. Mr. Wilson was the unanimous choice for leader to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Mr. Barnhouse.

Wm. Parker, west back line, has been for some days critically ill with an obstruction of the bowels which it was feared would necessitate an operation. Dr. McWilliams of Dundalk, was in consultation with Dr. Carter on Saturday. On Sunday a change for the better took place and the Dr. is now hopeful of his patient.

Miss Janet Gibson, of Toronto, youngest daughter of Mr. A. M. Gibson, formerly of this place, is we learn now in a lucrative position in Nova Scotia, head milliner in a large millinery establishment. We trust Miss Gibson will meet with much success in catering to the wives and daughters of the blue noses down by the sea.

Mrs. W. T. McKee of the 4th line, has moved to town and settled on Cullinwood street.

Ex councillor McKenzie, of Artemesia, has been on the sick list for several weeks, but is now on the mend. His sister Mrs. Taylor, of Owen Sound, has been visiting him and her brother Roderick, Toronto line.

W. W. Trimble was in Toronto on Saturday.

Dr. Murray spent Tuesday in the city on business.

Mrs. Wm. Neil is spending a few days with friends in Markdale.

Miss Alice Holman, 4th line, has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Peter Holman, for some days.

Mrs. Robt. Best has our thanks for a very much appreciated treat on Saturday.

Rev. Iverson Wilson is going to the city this week to attend the temperance meeting called by the executive of the Dominion Alliance.

Drugging Won't Cure Catarrh.

All the medicine in the world taken into the stomach won't cure catarrh, and it's useless to squander money on tablets, bitters and liquid remedies. Catarrh is a disease of nasal passages, throat and bronchial tubes. Stomach remedies can't reach these parts. It's only fragrant healing Catarrh zone which is breathed all through the air passages that is sure to reach the seat of Catarrh. No failure ever known if Catarrh zone was used. It heals and doesn't irritate; it soothes, kills the germs and therefore cures. Use only Catarrh zone the one certain cure. Two months treatment $1.00; trial size 25c.

Spring Bank.

Very little ploughing has been done in this burg yet, but a few fine days will see the farmers into it full sail. Geo. Meyers sold a horse to Mr. Henderson, of Dromore for $120.

D. McLean, of the Mill, accompanied by his sister, Daisy, left on Friday last for a few days' visit with friends in London.

T. J. Watson, of town, spent Sunday at home.

Mr. Eckhardt had a wood bee one day lately while the evening was socially spent in music, games and chat.

W. T. Brown has engaged with Geo. Meyers for the summer.

Sawing will commence at the Mill this week with the former proprietor G. W. Wilson handling the lever while J. McPhee of Woodbridge has taken charge of the engine.

Johnnie Tucker is engaged with A. Picken for the summer.

Ben Waters, of Michigan, is visiting in visiting his cousins Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lawrence.

Mr. Henry Eckhardt had the misfortune to lose a coat for which he had previously been offered $130.

One of those prevalent jigs was held at Andy Picken's one night recently.

Sackett's Corners.

The weather continues cold and the snow falls just as natural as it did in December and our farmers still stick to their fur overcoats and wonder if they will ever have the pleasure of laying them away.

Aaron Ernest had the misfortune to lose his cow, inflammation being the cause. It means a $40 loss for Mr. Ernest, which is too much if it could be prevented.

John McDougall is home again after spending the winter in other parts.

Miss Carrie Paris has returned home after spending the winter with her aunt in Buffalo. We are pleased to have Miss Paris with us again.

Malcolm McFadden had the misfortune to break his arm at the wrist. Mack will have to nurse his arm instead of the baby for at least three weeks to come.

Neil McFadden has the contract of Joe Campbell's barn to be erected this summer. It will, no doubt, be a success.

George Witter had a lively chase after his horses one day this week. It seems Mr. Witter had them harnessed ready to draw wood and before he got them hitched they took a notion to start on their own hook. They passed the Corners with lines trailing and halter shanks flying. George caught them half a mile from the Corners.

Death of Mrs. Mary Ann Acheson.

Last Thursday at 2:30 p. m., Mrs. Mary Ann Acheson, who had been ill for the past two months, passed to the great beyond at the farm home, south of town, at the age of 48. She was born in Varney, Grey Co., Ontario, moving to Minnesota after her marriage and remained there till 1898, when the family came to Bottineau County. Deceased was a devout Christian and was beloved by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She leaves her husband Samuel Acheson, and three sons, William, Robert and Samuel, to mourn her death. The funeral took place at Bottineau, the remains being interred beside the grave of her son Alex. The bereaved family have the sympathy of a host of friends. Deceased was the eldest daughter of Mrs. Jos. Carwardine, of Durham.
