Ayer's Sarsaparilla

If your blood is thin and impure, you are miserable all the time. It is pure, rich blood that invigorates, strengthens, refreshes. You certainly know the medicine that brings good health to the home, the only medicine tested and tried for 60 years. A doctor's medicine.

"I owe my life, without doubt, to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most wonderful medicine in the world for nervousness. My cure is permanent, and I cannot thank you enough." Miss Dilla, Newark, N. J.

Laxative doses of Ayer's Pills each night greatly aid the Sarsaparilla.

Crawford.

Mr. Editor, it is now some time since we sent in any news to your valuable paper but as spring has come at last and the snow banks have disappeared we will try to do better in the future.

One of the saddest deaths that has occurred for some time took place on Sunday April 3rd when Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boyce lost their little son, a child only about a year and a half old. Some weeks ago the bright little fellow contracted a cold but nothing serious was thought of, but the cold settled on his lungs. Medical aid was called in but death had claimed little Wilfred for his own and human skill was of no avail. Their infant child was also seriously ill but we are pleased to hear that it has recovered. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the community.

Mr. Cannon, of Barrie, is visiting his daughter Mrs. Archie McDougall. Business humming round the 12th, now, Messrs Fischer and Dice, have their saw-mill in operation and are busy from early morn till late at night. We wish them success in their new enterprise.

Miss McKenzie resumed her duties on Tuesday morning.

Miss Longhouse is visiting her sister Mrs. John Smith.

Mr. William Honess is a very proud and happy man these days. He has another little boy to help him on the farm.

Some of the farmers have started to plough but it is rather slow work yet.

Mr. Henry Boyce has all his timber out for his barn. Henry is a hustler and no mistake.

Mr. William Jenks has been engaged with Mr. Cristie of Cristie's Mills to run his engine for the season.

Miss Jessie Honess is home for a few days vacation.

William Hamilton visited Walkerton and Midway friends for a few days.

Corner Concerns.

We feel confident if young men who attend night meetings in the school and spit tobacco on the floor would only realize that it was their acts that caused our young ladies on Saturday to have to soil their hands in filth before they could think of holding sacred meetings, such as Sunday school, in a place where such strong evidence of evil existed they would gather up all their God given powers to abstain from evil temptations and summons their strongest determination and all their moral courage in an effort to once more and forever throw away their foul smelling plugs of black tobacco.

The mill is running at present. A steam whistle has been added and blows regularly giving the place a business wring. In fact business has been carried on rather briskly since Mr. McLean took possession; he should put an ad in the Chronicle and let folks know what kind of stock he has in store.

For some time past we have been very, very sensitive in regard to our school house and if anybody dared to stand up and say it was not in the very pink of condition we would strike them down on the spot, but our blows so far fell on great, broad shoulders so that no harm was done. But the latest action in the matter is that of the young ladies of the section turning out on Saturday free gratis and making the interior the very picture of neatness and cleanliness. It has completely disarmed us and we are forced to admit that their action has not only won the hearts and everlasting gratitude of the trustees, but also caused some young men who are in deep search for neat, tidy house-keepers to decide on something desperate in the way of capturing some of those who had a hand in the job, and best of all they have set an example to the board to fix up the fences and grounds in such shape as will encourage our efficient teacher and her willing staff of workers on Arbor day to show what they can do in the way of beautifying the place. Now that they have set the ball a-rolling if they would only go again and pump the water out of the well which has accumulated since the spring freshets to the depth of thirty-five feet and is unfit for use. It would not only give people to know that they are adepts at first class house keeping but that they would also in emergency water the stock.

Glenelg's genial councilman, Thos. Davis, was in this part last Wednesday to get farmers to grow beets for the Berlin Sugar factory. We expect he would have fairly good success although the industry is a new one here. He always has good influence in anything he undertakes, beside there was a head Beet-ler with him.

Our township council have acquitted themselves very nicely so far this year, as we expected they would. They did away with some unnecessary meetings and tried to curtail expenses in other ways. We expect to see them yet, like many other townships in the province, try to work a reform in the statute labor system that will abolish the loafers' mid-summer picnic, as it has long been termed. The pathmaster system has no doubt in its time served a very good purpose and many of them know how to fix up roads and wish to have the work faithfully performed, but the boys have all get into the habit of wanting to idle somewhat and the pathmaster has to grin and bear it, although he may be in no mood for smiling. Of course he has the alternative of returning their work undone if not faithfully fulfilled, but any farmer who would adopt such a plan against his neighbors might make up his mind to get his threshing done in the fall the best way he knew how. If good, competent road makers who were not depending on farmers' votes or other obligations, were put in the position to oversee the work of a section at a certain salary, then, for the safety of their own positions, they would want to see the time put in honestly and possibly the number of days' work lessened for each farmer, time saved and nobody hurt. There is another growing evil in the present system that some cute old chaps openly admit that if excuse affords at all they like to put in a part of their time in the winter and get it off their hands before the busy summer comes on. As farmers do not value their time very highly in the winter, the valuation placed on it should be such as would not induce them to spend any more of it than is actually necessary.

It never rains but it pours is sometimes a true saying. Robert Barbour's smile was probably a pronounced one when the Chronicle saw it, but it has increased since then by the presence of a little daughter in the family since Sunday.

The S. S. re-opens next Sunday with a full staff of officers, Mr. Allan superintendent.

Quite a number of our young folks drove over to Watson's school on Friday night to the social and report it all right.

Young lambs seem to be a very plentiful crop this spring. Wm. Allan's flock of eleven ewes have 21 lambs with them; Jas. Ferguson has 6 with 14, but Henry Lawrence caps them all as he has three fine Leicesters strutting around with nine lambs at their feet, four, three and two being their numbers.

Jim Eden in the far west will be able to put up something handsome whether it rains or shines. Through the kindness of the boys the night before he left was pleasantly spent.

The Rev. D. L. Campbell, of Dro-more, as the Chronicle stated last week, has had a few more letters added to his name, but he carries them very modestly. For instance, a week ago Sunday night when the blocked condition of the roads caused him to call at the school, Mr. Allan had just given out his text when he arrived at the door and for fear of trespassing in any way modestly sat down on a seat in the porch until after the address when he stepped in and spoke favorably of the way the subject had been dealt with. Illness in his family prevented him from preaching in the school Sunday night as was expected. He intends to be present next Sunday night and the house will, no doubt, be again well filled.

Rev. Rural Dean Ryan is at his post again every Sunday. He always uses his best efforts to never disappoint his audience and always tries to let no obstacle prevent him from filling appointments, but this last winter was too much for any man.

For a Stiff Neck.

Or any soreness in the muscles of the back or sides you can't get anything half so good as Nerviline, the most powerful liniment made. "My neck was so stiff I couldn't turn it a quarter of an inch," writes Fred T. Baldwin Portsmouth. "I had it rubbed with Nerviline a few times and all the soreness and stiffness disappeared. I don't know another liniment you can depend on like Nerviline; it's splendid for colds, lameness and can't be beaten for cramps and internal pain." Try Nerviline yourself. Price 25c.

A Powerful Preacher.

There has been a change of curates in the parish, and Larry Doolin was asked how he liked the new man. "Middlin'," replied Larry; "but he can't come up to Father James. 'Twas he could tell you all about hell. Shure, to hear him describin' it you'd think he was bred, born and reared there."—Sporting Times.
