Miss Mary Ryan of the 4th has gone to Toronto. She is a light-hearted maiden.

Mary Marklow is visiting friends in King, and Adam thinks the days drag on very slowly since her departure.

Tom Timmons was taken suddenly ill on Sunday and medical aid had to be called in.

It is reported that our local cartoonist, Pat Ryan, has gone to St. Louis, Pat has rare gifts if he develops them. Alf Staples has been there some time and reports times good.

Annie Jardine's solo in the Epworth League on Sunday evening was one of the sweetest and most impressive ever heard with in Zion walls.

Dr. Maitland Cook has sold his practice at Rose Lawn, Indiana, and is soon to set up his shingle elsewhere.

If her mother continues to improve in health, Mrs. Ed. Embury will return to her home in Toronto on Saturday. Mr. Tom Glencross will accompany her and remain a week. He is somewhat under the weather at present.

Corbett and son, of Mt. Forest erected a fine, dark-blue, Aberdeen monument for Miss Annie Jardine, last week, over the graves of her father and mother and little sister. It is a credit to the firm who are men of more than ordinary ability. It was just a year ago to day that her brother John so mysteriously disappeared. Presume he is making his pile out West.

One of those happy events that cause a more than ordinary ripple of excitement took place in our neighborhood, last Thursday. It was the union of Miss Nellie McNally, fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McNally of the 6th, to Mr. Wm. Harrington of Detroit. Her cousin Albert drove the glad hearts to the Rectory, where the Rev. Rural Dean Ryan genially, but surely tied the mystic knot. The groom is a clever fine-looking fellow, and has an excellent position as book keeper in a large meat establishment. Nellie was one of our most popular girls, possessing a charm of manner and a grace of person rare to find. They took the train for the "City of the Straits" where they will reside. Best wishes.

Glenmont.

Since spring has opened out the farmers in this part have hardly time to eat or sleep, they are so eager to get all their seeding done, but now that some of them are through we will look for a few cool days which with that beautiful refreshing shower on Friday and Saturday, will certainly set the farmer at his steady pace again.

The farmers' interests are well looked after these times. Hardly a day passes without an agent calling round. No less than six Cream Separator Factories have representatives calling in this part.

We have a very inefficient mail service between Durham and Aberdeen. We are aware that the mail in Durham is sorted in time, but it fails to reach Aberdeen sometimes until after seven o'clock in the evening. Now some one is at fault and we intend to look into the matter. The gov't. can bonus all kinds of railways and guarantee all sorts of sums to defunct manufacturing concerns, such as the Soo Industries, but they can't give us an efficient mail service, notwithstanding the fact that they claim a handsome surplus in the postoffice department. Something must be done, and done shortly.

We would like the Board of Health from Bentinck to take a walk up this way and take a look at those, putrifying carcasses, that are creating a nuisance in the neighborhood.

Miss Christena McLean, of whom we spoke in last issue as having undergone an operation for Appendicitis is doing nicely and will be home before long.
