The Junior Leaving Examinations are now in progress all over Ontario. There are twelve writing here thought thirteen made application, and paid the required fees. Thirteen is said to be an unlucky number, and it may be out of consideration for the others, that impulsive Peter made a self-denying sacrifice and dropped out of the contest.

We have just received a letter from Rev. Mr. Smith, in which he tells us that on his arrival at Arthur on Wednesday last he and Mrs. Smith were met at the station by a deputation of officials and driven up to the Parsonage which was filled with a party to give them a kindly reception. He had large congregations on Sunday and seems to be quickly adapting himself to his changed relations.

The edition published by the Globe last Saturday is worthy of a special notice. It's the 60th anniversary number of that paper and contains a history of its growth and development of the journal from the time it was run off on a Washington press in 1844 with a capacity of sixty, eight-page papers an hour to the present time when they can turn out 96,000 papers of the same size in the incredibly short space of sixty-minutes. The illustrations are profuse and excellent, and the vast amount of useful information given is a worthy of a careful perusal if not a close study.

We regret very much to report the death of Mr. Thomas Jackson, of Glenelg. He took cold a couple of weeks ago while engaged in washing sheep, and was subsequently attacked with quinsy. In doctoring the latter trouble a hemorrhage occurred from which he bled to death on Sunday last. The deceased was off-handed and genial always ready with a joke, kind-hearted in his disposition, and honest in his dealings. He leaves a widow and two young children besides his father, Mr. Wm. Jackson, four brothers, Samuel, of Aberdeen, John, of Midway, B. C., Frank and Archie of Quilchena, B. C., and one sister, Mary, of Greenwood, B. C., all of whom deeply mourn the loss of a kind and much loved husband, son and brother. Interment took place Tuesday to Trinity church cemetery, Rev. Mr. Newton officiating at the home and grave. He was in the prime of life being only 37 years of age.

In All Saints' church at 11:30 this morning Miss Hana Irene Alexander, daughter of the late William Alexander, of Durham, Ont., was united in marriage to Mr. John Baldwin Rogers, of Toronto, Rev. Arthur H. Baldwin officiating. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Will Alexander, of Durham. She wore a dainty gown of white India silk, trimmed with Valenciennes lace and insertion and big girle of white silk. The sleeves were prettily shirred and finished with a fall of silk lace, and a smart bebe hat of white silk lace and chiffon was worn. The bride's only ornament was a necklace of pearls with diamond fastener, the gift of the groom. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Donald McKay, Yonge street, where a dainty dejeuner awaited them. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers left for Owen Sound on the four o'clock train, where they take the boat for the Upper Lakes, the bride going away in a tailor-made suit of blue broadcloth with a hat of bisque straw trimmed with a wreath of blue roses.—Toronto Telegram.

We regret very much to report the serious illness of Miss Islay Campbell, daughter of Inspector Campbell, who was taken down suddenly Saturday last by an attack of pneumonia. On Saturday afternoon Mr. Campbell started for Meaford to attend the examinations. He intended to remain over Sunday in Owen Sound, and continue the journey to Meaford Monday. On Sunday he was reached by telephone and was obliged to come home at once, and engage in looking after the comforts of his sick daughter who, we hope, will soon be restored to her usual health.

On Thursday night last the newly appointed Methodist minister, Rev. Mr. Colling, with his wife and five children arrived by train. The Highlanders' Band came by the same train, and the double attraction caused a great jam around the station platform. Mr. and Mrs. Colling were at once escorted to the Parsonage where many of the congregation were already in waiting to welcome them to their new home. On Sunday the Rev. gentleman preached two very well thought out sermons, the morning discourse dealing chiefly with the duties of the minister to his congregation.

We give our readers this week the official minutes of a special meeting of the County Council at Markdale together with photo-engravings of the House of Refuge and members of the Council and others who took an active part in connection with the institution. We claim no credit whatever for the write-up as this was furnished by the Editor of the Owen Sound Times who has a special pull with the Council and gets pay for the minutes which he is supposed to furnish to the other papers in the County so that they may run concurrently in the same week's issue. The minutes, however, have always reached us late and in consequence are a week behind.
