THE BIG STORE.

Flesherton.

An event in which much interest centered took place here on Wednesday afternoon of last week when at a very pretty wedding at the residence of Mr. M. K. Richardson, M. P., and Mrs. Richardson their fourth daughter, Miss Anne Amelia, who recently resigned the position of teacher of elocution and physical culture in the Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, N. B., became the bride of Dr. A. E. Webster, Demonstrator in the Royal College of Dental Surgeons and editor of the Dental Journal, Toronto. Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, B. A., B. D., pastor of the Methodist church, here, was the officiating clergyman, and he was assisted by Rev. L. W. Thom, pastor of Chalmers church this place. As the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, entered the drawing room which was tastefully decorated with palms and ferns, Mrs. J. Blackburn, of this place, played the Bridal March from Lohengrin, and at the conclusion of the ceremony played Mendelssohn's Wedding March while the happy couple received the congratulations of their friends. The bride looked beautiful in a lovely gown of white crepe de chene over taffeta with a shirred yoke of chiffon onset with seed pearls, berthe of Duchess pointe lace and tulle veil. She carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. Miss Christine Richardson, the bride's sister, was bridesmaid and looked very pretty in a gown of champagne colored voile with an embroidered net yoke and lace berthe. The little flower girl Miss Aleda Mitchell, of this place, looked sweet in a dainty dress of white organdie, trimmed with valenciennes lace and insertion over pink silk. She wore a quaint poke bonnet of white silk and carried a basket of pink roses. Dr. E. C. Abbot, of Toronto, acted as best man. The bride's mother wore a stylish gown of black striped voile over mauve with a vest of rich ecru lace. The bride's going away gown was of navy blue broadcloth and white silk blouse with cluny lace. She wore a stylish hat of ecru straw, trimmed with strappings of blue velvet and white silk and wings. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful diamond and pearl ring; to the bridesmaid a pearl bar pin and to the flower girl a pearl ring. The dejeuner was served in the spacious dining-room where the tables were prettily decorated with pink and white carnations. The bridal table looked very artistic overhung with a canopy of orange blossoms and smilax. From the centre of the canopy were suspended several streamers of white ribbons entwined with smilax which were fastened to the cover with white roses. Rev. Mr. Wilson in fitting terms, proposed a toast to the health of the bride and groom after which felicitous speeches were given by the bride's father, the groomsman, the bridegroom, the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. I. B. Lucas, M. P. P., of Markdale, and Mr. A. S. Tassie, M. A., of Listowel, an intimate friend of the family. Mr. Tassie spoke at length and his address beautiful in diction and laden with eulogium of the talented young bride was very heartily applauded by all. Guests were present from Brooklyn, N. Y., Kingston, Toronto, Orangeville, Listowel and Markdale, beside a number from town. Dr. and Mrs. Webster left on the evening train for Toronto and other points east. During their honeymoon they will visit the St. Louis Exhibition. They will settle at No. 3 College street, Toronto. The bride received many beautiful and costly presents. Dr. Webster is to be congratulated on winning the hand of Miss Richardson. She was one of Flesherton's most cultured and winsome young ladies whose host of friends wish her a long and happy life.

The marriage of Mr. Geo. Bellamy, son of Mr. John Bellamy, Flesherton, to Miss Eva Rutledge, eldest daughter of Mrs. Robert Rutledge, near the village, took place in Toronto on Wednesday of last week. Rev. M. L. Pearson, of the city, performed the ceremony. The bride's brother, Mr. Fred Rutledge, and the groom's sister, Miss Minnie Bellamy, discharged the duties of groomsman and bridesmaid. The happy couple are on their honeymoon here to spend two or three weeks with their relatives after which they will reside at Lindsay. May happiness and prosperity attend them.

Mr. Thomas Granger, of this place, is laid up with painful injuries by an accident which befell him on Friday last while painting on his residence. The ladder on which he was standing gave way and he fell about ten feet lighting on the edge of a box which severely injured his side and probably fractured some ribs.

At the regular weekly meeting of the C. E. Society in the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening last election of officers took place as follows: President, Rev. L. W. Thom; 1st Vice President, Mrs. Herb Smith; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. J. Radley; Secretary, Miss Ethel Crossley; Treas., Mrs. J. Blackburn.

The Methodist pulpit was supplied on Sabbath last by Rev. Mr. Roach, of Priceville, in the morning and Mr. Crone, of Markdale, in the evening. Some from here attended the English church service at Ceylon in the evening when Rev. Mr. Franklin preached the annual sermon to the Orangemen.

The young people of the English church at Ceylon gave a garden party on Wednesday evening of last week. A number from here attended and a successful fete is reported. A musical program was rendered in which Miss Frankland, of Owen Sound, the Misses Joy and Mr. George Wilson, of this place, took part.

The football clubs of Eugenia and Flesherton played a return match here on Thursday evening last. The visitors won by 2 to 0. The former match was a tie.

Mrs. Albert Stewart and Mrs. Alex. H. Alexander here have the sympathy of many friends in the bereavement which came to them last week by the sudden death of their brother, Willis, at Collingwood. The funeral of the deceased, who was 19 years of age, took place from his home at Faversham on Wednesday and was attended by a number from here.

Miss Hannah Stafford of the 4th line, who has taught the Rockvale school for the past two and a half years, and has resigned the same, was before closing given a tangible token of the section's appreciation of her services. Miss Stafford was presented with a beautiful silver tea set accompanied by an appropriate address. Both are highly appreciated by her.

Mr. Alex. Stewart, of this place, has been suffering for a week with blood poison, but is now on the mend.

Rev. J. S. I. and Mrs. Wilson had plans completed to leave on Saturday last for five weeks holidays in Minnesota going by way of the lakes, but Mr. Wilson was taken ill with a severe cold and has been confined to the house for a few days. They expect, however, to get off this week.

Miss Hickling, of London England, who visited the past year with her brother here, left on Saturday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hickling to Toronto, for her home across the sea. She will sail this week from New York.

Mr. Chas. N. Richardson leaves this week on a holiday trip to England. He will sail from Montreal. Mrs. Wm. Wilcox and daughters, Miss Annie, of this place, and Mrs. Alton, of Markdale, leave this week to visit relatives at Coney Island.

Miss Alice Tucker, B. A., Dean of Adelphi College, Brooklyn, N. Y., attended Miss Richardson's wedding here last week. Miss Gertrude Irvin of Orangeville also attended the wedding and was the guest of her cousin Dr. Carter, a day or two after.

Mrs. (Rev) G. F. Huriburt is visiting her old home at Tilsonburg.

Mrs. H. V. Gaudin, of Kimberley, returning from Orangeville visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Breen here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Sheppard visited at Mr. Forest on Sunday and Monday.

Mr. Hugh Pedlar, formerly of the Advance staff here, but recently of Lindsay, is home for a couple of months' exercise on the farm his health not being good.

The People's Store!

"You Certainly Have The Crowds."

This was a remark made by a young lady Saturday night on entering our store. The only reason we can see for our ever increasing list of shoppers is that we have the goods the people want—and at the lowest prices too. We're not offering Saturday Bargains as bait to "catch" for that particular day, but we are giving genuine bargains every day in the week—hence the crowds. "Meet me at The People's Store Saturday night" is a common expression now-a-days. Follow the crowds to our store and you'll be a millionaire some day.
