Flesherton.

At high noon on Wednesday of last week a pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. Loucks when their eldest daughter Stella became the bride of Mr. Aaron Wyville, of Markdale. Rev. L. W. Thom, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, performed the ceremony in the presence of about fifty guests. The bride who was given away by her father looked charming in a dainty gown of white silk, trimmed with applique and chiffon, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and fern. She was assisted by Miss E. Matheson, niece of the groom, who wore a pretty gown of white organdie trimmed with insertion, and carried pink carnations and fern. Mr. W. Loucks, brother of the bride, acted as best man and the brides sister Miss Eva Loucks played the Wedding March. The house was artistically decorated with evergreens and flowers. After the ceremony and usual congratulations a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served on the lawn under an arbour of evergreens a bower of beauty. At this juncture Mr. W. H. Thurston turned his camera on the company and doubtless secured a desirable picture. Preparatory to travelling the bride donned her going away gown which was a military blue lady's cloth with touches of white and a white silk blouse. She wore a stylish hat to match. A number of friends accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Wyville to the depot and they left on the evening train to visit Toronto, Kingston, Ottawa and other points after which they will settle in their new home in Markdale and be at home to their friends after October 15th. The bride was one of our most estimable young women the array of beautiful wedding presents showing the esteem in which she is held by her friends. We join the friends of the happy couple in best wishes for a prosperous and continued happy life.

Mr. James Stafford, of the 4th line has been laid up for a week with a broken collar bone. While on horseback driving cattle from the field the animal ridden stumbled and threw Mr. Stafford with the above result, an unfortunate mishap for a farmer in the midst of harvest.

Mr. Archie Boyd, of the back line, met with a close call on Saturday by a severe blow on the side of the head from the lever of a mower he was handling. The blow upset Mr. Boyd and was so dangerously near his temple that he is grateful for his escape from more serious results.

On Thursday evening last a number of the members of the Baptist church with a few other friends took possession of the residence of Mr. W. E. Richardson, of this place, and gave his elder daughter, Miss Florie Richardson, a very pleasant surprise. Miss Richardson has been for a number of years organist in the Baptist church and the congregation in a tangible manner expressed their appreciation of her faithful and valuable services by presenting her with a silver service accompanied by an appropriate address which was read by Miss Stafford, teacher of Rockvale Little Miss Gladys Cornfield made the presentation. Miss Richardson was genuinely surprised and found it difficult to express to the donors all that was in her heart to say though her reply was neat and to the point. Refreshments were served and with music and social intercourse the evening was very pleasantly spent.

Mr. R. J. Sproule was in Toronto on Thursday last attending a meeting of the directors of the Huron and Ontario Electric Railway. A new board was elected consisting of fifteen members who elected P. Y. Ellis Esq. of Toronto, President. Messrs. M. K. Cameron, of Meaford, R. J. Sproule, Flesherton, Mr. McNamara, Mr. Robertson and Judge Cline Walker, members of the old board, were elected. The new members are leading business men of Toronto and all assume office with determination to push the project to a successful issue.

Boyd Bros. had a raising one evening last week adding a carriage house to their village barn.

A large congregation greeted Rev. A. H. Ranton at the opening service of the evangelistic campaign in the Presbyterian church on Sabbath morning last. The storm interfered somewhat with the attendance in the Methodist church in the evening. Mr. Ranton preached powerful sermons and made a deep and favorable impression on his audiences. He is a fluent pleasing and convincing speaker and will doubtless be heard by large congregations this week.

Whips were stolen from carriages in the Methodist church sheds on Sunday evening and a reward of $5. is offered for the conviction of the guilty parties.

Two boys in the family of Mr. John Chard east of the village are ill with Malaria fever. Rumor has it that typhoid is the trouble, but we are pleased to learn from the attending physician that the report is not correct.

Miss Maud Richardson who has risen to a point of distinction among Canadian artists, has accepted the position of art teacher in Alma Ladies College, St. Thomas and enters upon her studies there this week. Miss Richardson's friends here will be pleased to learn of her call to this important position in this leading college.

Ref. John Stafford, M. A. of Harvard University, Boston, is visiting his brother-in-law, Dr. J. P. Otterwell here. Mr. Stafford has just returned from a tour through England and Scotland.

Nerviline has a direct action on fever chills and removes the conditions causing them. In stomach and bowel troubles Nerviline never fails. ### Sackett's Corners.

The weather at present is not very favorable for the farmers. There is considerable grain out yet although some are through harvesting.

George Haw lost a valuable spring colt from getting an over feed of grain by accident.

Death has again entered our midst and claimed for its victim Mr. Neil McFadden, Sr. Although he has been ailing for some time his death was unlooked for. Mr. McFadden was a kind and obliging neighbor and had the respect of all who knew him. The funeral was largely attended. Interment took place at Swinton Park the Rev. Mr. Campbell of Dromore officiating at house and grave, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Matheson. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family.
