A POLITICAL campaign without cartoons is like a book without pictures. The humorous side of the situation is what appeals to the man with the pencil. The cartoonist of THE NEWS (Toronto) pictures the events of the political world in a graphic manner from day to day. His cartoons deliver their stories instantly and convincingly. One dollar will bring you THE NEWS daily for one year.

An operation for appendicitis was performed Tuesday afternoon last on John Lang, son of C. W. Lang of this town. Some time ago the patient injured himself by a fall at the Cement Works, and recently the pain endured gave alarm, and a complete diagnosis pronounced it appendicitis. The case is serious, but the doctors think his chances of recovery are good. Whether or not the trouble resulted from the fall we have not learned.

ON Sunday last Mr. Joseph Sharpe died rather unexpectedly, and the announcement was quite a surprise. The old gentleman was ailing for some time of a complication of troubles, but the end was not at all expected. He was sixty-eight years of age, and leaves a large family of sons and daughters, all grown up and most of them married and doing for themselves. By industry and thrift the deceased leaves considerable property. Interment takes place this Thursday afternoon to Trinity Church Cemetery.

THE Hanover Fair was held on Wednesday of last week, about the most disagreeable weather we had this Fall so far. The exhibits, we are informed were far superior to any of the neighboring local fairs. The chief rivalry was between the townships of Bentinck and Brant. In the prize results Bentinck stood first in sheep while Brant got the greatest number of prizes in cattle and horses. Candidate Miller's five dollar prize for home made bread brought a number of women out and were it possible to give $5.00 each to all who exhibited the good wives would have controlled enough votes to secure the election. T. G. Holt of this town was judge of the poultry and William Scarf judged the cattle.

WE referred last week to the illness of James Storrey through an operation for appendicitis. At the time there were grave hopes for his recovery, but the suffering boy lingered on till Saturday afternoon when death relieved him of his pain. Quiet, unobtrusive, industrious, and attentive to his work the boy had many friends, and the news of his death was sad intelligence to all who knew him. Interment took place Tuesday afternoon to Durham Cemetery, a service being first conducted in the Methodist church, of which the deceased was an honored member. He was also a member of the Epworth League, and a boy against whom no evil could be justly charged. There was a large turn out at the funeral and the floral decorations on the casket contributed by friends of himself and the family. General sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Storrey and family in their sad bereavement.

To the Electors of South Grey.

GENTLEMEN:—I respectfully request your vote and influence at the coming Dominion Election, and, if elected, will earnestly do my best to promote the interests of South Grey, and without being a slave to party, to support good measures and oppose bad ones.

Yours truly,
H. H. MILLER,

Liberal Candidate for South Grey.

"LET me see," said a young lady in a stationer's shop; "I want one hundred sheets of note paper, and—well—how many envelopes should I get?" "Is it for love letters, miss?" asked the shopman. A charming blush was the reply, and he continued, "Oh, well, I think half a dozen envelopes will be enough."

THERE is a difference between the political reports and utterances of a party organ and those of a thoroughly independent newspaper. THE NEWS (Toronto) is reporting the speeches of the Dominion campaign very fully, and is portraying the situation from day to day with truthfulness and fidelity. One dollar will bring you THE NEWS every day for one year.

THE Owen Sound papers have at last woken up to the fact that the Lacrosse players in their town are a tough gang on the visiting teams. The match between the Wellingtons and the boys from Woodbridge was so dirty that even the papers felt it their duty to call them down. For years visiting teams had to be under police protection and yet the papers were silent. We now congratulate them on striking somewhere near the truth, and hope to see them hammer away till rowdiness is our National game which we know in Owen Sound.

C. MCKINNON.

Conservative Candidate for the House of Commons for South Grey.

We present our readers with a portrait of the Conservative Candidate.

Owing to an extended trip to the North West he has not been able to meet with as many of the electors as he would have liked, but he hopes to have an opportunity of seeing as many as will be possible for him before the election. We give some particulars of his past record and life.

Mr. McKinnon was born in 1860, in the Tp. of Bentinck, about 6 miles north of Durham, and attended the Public School known as Latona. Twenty-two years of his life were spent on the farm. In 1882 he came to Durham and engaged in the sale of agricultural implements, doing a very successful business. In connection with this he has dealt largely in the buying and shipping of apples and potatoes. In the last few years he has engaged extensively in buying and shipping horses for the West, as well as cattle. His business brings him in contact with all classes of people.

Mr. McKinnon has many of the qualities of a popular candidate for parliamentary honors. In 1887 he was elected to the Town Council of Durham by acclamation, and for 9 years was a member of the Council. In 1897 when the new Co. Council Act came into force he was nominated, being one of five candidates who aspired for Co. Council honors. He was elected by a large majority. Since, he has been retained at each election with an increased majority, an evidence of the respect in which he is held by the electors, as well as their confidence in his ability to discharge the duties devolving upon him in the capacity of a representative at the Co. Council. No better school than the Municipal Council can be found for members of parliament. He has had a great deal of experience in municipal parliament, holding many important positions as chairman of different committees, entailing a great deal of responsibility. In 1902 he was elected Warden of the County, a further evidence of the esteem in which he was held by his colleagues. For nearly a quarter of a century he has done business with the electors of South Grey, and in this time has taken a keen interest in the prosperity and development of the affairs of the County. That Mr. McKinnon will be elected in South Grey, we have no doubt, with a large majority. His past record in public life indicates that South Grey will serve its own interests best by electing Mr. McKinnon on Nov. 3rd, 1904.

ON Tuesday evening Mr. Donald McLean received the sad news by telegram from Winnipeg announcing the death of his brother Hugh of typhoid. The message was sent by Duncan McLean who left last Thursday and arrived Saturday in Winnipeg. He saw his sick brother who recognized him and was apparently no worse. Particulars of his subsequent condition are not known here. Mr. McLean will start for home with body Thursday.
