THE annual Sunday School entertainment of Knox Church, Normanby, will be held on Tuesday evening, Oct. 25th. An excellent program is being prepared. Refreshments served during the evening. Admission 10c and 15c. All are welcome.—2.

THE Sunday School Entertainment at Ebenezer Tuesday night was quite a success. Some of our youth and beauty took in the affair and all went merry as a marriage Bell, till the collision occurred on the hill-side, and the wrecked craft had to be towed in to port behind Billy Caldwell's sully.

It's hard to please those Grit Candidates. Mr. Miller is a Methodist, and kicks because somebody says he is. Mr. Aylesworth is a Methodist and kicks because somebody called him atheist. Now how is a fellow going to make a good clean mixture of religion and politics anyway?

PUBLIC MEETINGS in the interest of Mr. Chas. McKinnon are being held this week as follows:—Robinson's School House, Normanby, last night, Wednesday; Dromore to-night, and Holstein to-morrow night. The speakers are, the Candidate, Mr. Richardson Ex-M. P., I. B. Lucas M. P. P., Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P., W. Laidlaw and others. Next week the meetings will be at Aytun, Monday, Neustadt, Tuesday, and Hanover, Wednesday, commencing each evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Miller or his representative is cordially invited to attend.

THE editor of an exchange who evidently met with a particularly vicious type of critic, expostulates as follows: Newspaper men frequently have attention called to the typographical errors which sometimes get into their publications. If newspaper men knew their business these errors would never happen. The people who discover these errors tell you that much. Now if in the first place the editor gets correct information and if he writes it properly, and the compositor sets it up as he should, and if the galley boy knows enough to take a decent proof, and the proof reader marks the corrections and if the printer corrects them, and the make-up gets the type in the right place, and the pressman prints them as he should, and if the press doesn't smash a few letters; why it can easily be seen how unnecessary are these typographical errors. It certainly is a very easy matter to run a newspaper, and get it absolutely correct. But these apt scholars, these all-wise and all accurate men who are so ready to point out the errors and oversights of the news-paper can't tell a piece of type metal from a threshing machine or a car wheel.

HOUSE to rent, Hugh MacKay, Agent, Ed. Walsh, proprietor.

A WOMAN in town says she'll not be friendly towards us till after the election. That's how, but we can't sacrifice principle even for woman's love.

JUST as we go to press we learn that the marriage of Mr. Peter A. Mathewson, and Miss Fanny Louisa Davidson has just been solemnized at the home of Mr. Thos. Lauder, the Rev. Mr. Farbuhrson tying the nuptial knot.

THE members of L. O. L. No. 689 will give a grand musical and literary concert in their hall on Friday evening Oct. 28th, when Miss King, assisted by a number of musical artists, will render the program. For fuller particulars see small bills, and for genuine enjoyment attend the concert.—2.

A LETTER from Mr. R. B. Miller, of Owen Sound, father of the Liberal Candidate appears in this issue. We stated last week our disapproval of indulgence in personalities but that wasn't enough to satisfy Mr. Miller, and he feels disposed to charge us with the authorship of the article he refers to. We say now we are neither, the father, step-father nor god-father of it, and if the personal history of the candidate has been in any way misrepresented by the contributor, it was simply because he was wrongly informed and not in any way disposed to be untruthful. The reference to Ananias is in very bad taste, but is common enough in meetings of the party to which Mr. Miller belongs. The name is indeed used with such familiarity that one might readily believe there was a blood relationship. Only a few days ago Ananias and Jadas Iscariot were resurrected by one speaker in the interests of A. B. Aylesworth the Candidate for Durham County. These petty guibelings, any way do no good, and when it comes to a party vote there isn't one man in a hundred cares a fig whether the candidate's grandmother was real scotch or not, nor yet will they be moved by sympathy on account of his misfortune in not being the happy possessor of a step-grandmother.

Mr. Abraham Gold, of Baker, Kansas, who used to reside here many years ago spent a day or so in town last week seeing old acquaintances, viewing old sights and admiring new ones. It is about fifty years since Mr. Gold came to this part. For about twelve or thirteen years he was engaged in the Roswell Ashery, which he assisted in building. About 28 years ago he left here for Kansas, where he lived ever since, in the evident enjoyment of health and prosperity. This is his first visit to Durham since he left, over a quarter of a century ago, though he has been twice to the old country and once to California. For some time he was the only member of the Masonic Order in this town, and may well be looked upon as the father of Masonry in Durham. On the organization of Durham Lodge, No. 308, Mr. Gold was a charter member and went to Mt. Forest with the candidates for initiation prior to the formation of the lodge, which was organized about the year 1874. The charter members were J. H. Hunter, W. M., A. Gold, S. W., A. Davidson, J. W., C. L. Grant, Jas. Laidlaw, R. McFarlane and John Smith, all of whom still live except Mr. Hunter and Mr. Smith, and all the survivors in town except Mr. Gold. He expressed a wish to meet the brethren in lodge here on his visit, but came at the wrong time of the moon. He has been engaged in farming and stock raising in the Sunflower State which he regards as one of the finest countries in the world. He lives only eight miles from Hiawatha, where he met Rev. Chas. Ryan, who is stationed there, and highly esteemed by his congregation. He remembers the Standard which developed into the CHRONICLE and was managed by White and Johnston at the time he left. He also remembers the drowning of Messrs McKinnon and Knowles about thirty or forty years ago. The two or three days Mr. Gold spent in town were very busy ones, and while in our office he was delighted to meet his old friend Jim Burt and engaged in a long chat over old reminiscences. Though he is now seventy-three years of age he might easily pass for fifty.

BORN.

GRAHAM—On Wednesday Oct. 12th to Mr. and Mrs. John A. Graham, a son.

People We Know

THE GOING AND COMING OF VISITORS IN THE MONTH OF OCTOBER.

Editor Thurston, of Flehrston, spent Sunday with Ye Editor.

Mrs. Kelly returned Monday from a visit in Toronto.

Mr. Mervyn Vanzant, of Toronto, was in town Wednesday.

Miss McFadden returned Monday from a three weeks' visit with Egremont friends.

Mr. E. W. Broomall is in town this week enjoying the company of some of his former acquaintances here.

Rev. Mr. Farquharson goes to Brussels on Sunday in exchange with the Rev. Mr. Ross.

Mr. H. Burrows has gone into the Drug Business on his own hook in Black Falls, Alberta.

Rev. Mr. Kestle, of Mt. Forest, took the services in the Methodist church here and at Zion on Sunday last.

Miss Minnie McChesney returned to Owen Sound Tuesday after visiting a couple of months with her grandparents here.

Mr. and Mrs. John McFadden and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McFadden of Glenelg went to Owen Sound Tuesday to visit Mrs. John McChesney, daughter of the former couple.

Mr. James Ddge was in town Wednesday and looks much better than the last time we saw him. He is over eighty years of age, and that he may see many more years is our earnest wish.

Rev's. Newton and Pineo, are attending the Ontario and Quebec Baptist Convention in Toronto. They'll be all right as Thomas McComb and C. McDougall are down there, too, and will keep a fatherly eye on them.

Mr. Wm. McCulloch and his mother Mrs. McCulloch are again settled in their old home at Vickers, after spending a couple of years at Hillman, Michigan. They have been back several weeks, but some how or other we omitted to mention the fact. Glad to see them so well.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carson, after spending a very pleasant time in the Northwest, arrived home Saturday night. The boys, no doubt, are glad to see our Chief Constable on duty again, and no doubt the Chief feels an equal pleasure in meeting with the boys. Mr. Carson has taken up land in the West but we are not authorized to say that he will return to the deserted land of the Bison and the Buffalo. He thinks the West is a great country, and were he a few years younger it is hardly likely the town would be able to keep him here. One thing certain his present salary as Chief Constable would have to be augmented or he would act on Horace Greeley's advice and go west. We are pleased to learn of the success the members of his family are meeting with out there, and that Tom is doing so well that he is now sole owner of a lucrative business and has no intention of giving it up to join the Durham Lacrosse Team.

Death of Hugh H. McLean.

We referred last week to the death of Mr. Hugh H. McLean in Winnipeg hospital from typhoid. He died on Monday the 10th inst. and the remains left Thursday, arriving here on the Saturday night train. He was thirty-one years of age, industrious in his habits, a good Christian character and highly respected by all who knew him intimately. He was son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McLean, of the Rocky, where interment took place on Sunday afternoon last, the pall bearers being six cousins as follows: Alex. Fletcher, Donald McLean, Neil McKinnon, Donald McDonald, Kenneth Cowan, of Owen Sound, and Wm. Irvine, Jr.

Before leaving Winnipeg the remains were taken to the Baptist Church in which the deceased was an active member, both in church and Sunday School work. The pall bearers there were six young men originally from Durham, as follows: Dug Munro, Joseph Burnett, Wm. Swallow, George Young, Charles Scott, and James Bell.

Beautiful wreaths were presented by Logan Avenue Baptist Sunday School, of which he was superintendent, Logan Avenue Baptist Church, where he worshipped as a member, the employers and shopmates of the Great Western Saddler Co. in which the deceased was manager, C. Hagan and James Barton, two intimate friends, his Toronto cousins on arrival in the city, and by the Misses McCracken of Aberdeen.

In the procession in Winnipeg from the undertaker's to the Logan Avenue Baptist Church the remains were followed by employers and shopmates.

While in the hospital he got every possible attention from the nurses as well as being carefully looked after by two of his cousins, Mrs. James Rutherford, of Winnipeg, and Miss Maggie Pritchard, of Swan River, Manitoba. Another cousin, Mrs. Hanna, of Somerset attended the funeral obsequies in Winnipeg.

On Sunday next there will be a memorial service in the Baptist Church at Muloch, by the Rev. Mr. Pineo.

Deceased who was unmarried, leaves to mourn his death, his bereaved parents, three brothers, Duncan, Donald and Archie, and two cousins, Marion and Archie S. who were brought up with the family.

Mr. Duncan McLean arrived in Winnipeg the Saturday before his brother died, and accompanied the body home. It was Mr. McLean's first trip west, and the sad circumstances connected with the visit will always bear unpleasant memories.

The family feel a deep sense of gratitude to friends for kindness and sympathy in the hour of trial.

Presbyterian Anniversary.

Anniversary services will be held in the Presbyterian Church on Sabbath next when the Rev. Mr. Ross, of Brussels, will preach, morning and evening. On Monday evening there will be a service of song by the choir, assisted by Mr. Drysdale and others, and an address by the Rev. Mr. Ross, on "John Bunyan, The Immortal Dreamer". There will be no admittance fee at Monday evening meeting, but a free-will offering will be made at the services on Sunday as well as at the meeting on Monday.

We regret to learn that Mr. Hugh Rose is quite ill at present.

A LOT of important matter is crowded out this week, but we don't want our correspondents to slack up on that account. We'll catch up soon.

WANTED—At this office, a good smart boy, with good head, good muscle, and not too much cheek, to learn printing.

MR. EMERSON KINNEE wishes to announce to the public that he is prepared to furnish all kinds of pumps and to carry on a general repair shop at John Kinnee's old stand, Garafraza St., near the Cement Works.

We regret to learn that Mrs. W. T. Petrie, who was recently in the West had the misfortune to lose her child and thus add another sorrow to the one caused by the decease of her husband only a few months ago. We are informed that she returned last week to Holstein with the remains of the little one.
