FOR SALE.—A good milch cow, apply to T. C. McGIRK, Lambton St., East.—pd

HALLOWEEN passed off without very much excitement, but there are still a few who incline to indulge in the ancient barbarism.

T. J. JORDAN has been selling off the bankrupt stock of groceries recently purchased here, and the citizens who have been lucky enough to buy got some good bargains.

SACRAMENTAL Services will be held in the Methodist Church on Sabbath next. The preparatory sermon will be preached on Friday evening at 8 p. m. by Rev. Mr. Farquharson.

ON Monday morning six happy sportsmen left for Muskoka to spend the deer hunting season. They were Pete Patterson, N. P. McIntyre, T. G. Holt, W. Calder, Alex. McLachlan and Ted. McClocklin.

REV. MR. NEWTON, the popular pastor of the Baptist Chapel, commenced a series of Sunday evening discourses on "The Prodigal Son" from his pulpit last Sunday. The subject for next Sunday will be "Green Fields Far Away."

THREE of our townsmen, Dr. Jamieson, Geo. Sparling and Mayor Hunter, have just completed the purchase of 2,900 acres of woodland in Haliburton away north of Lindsay. They purchased the timber only, and as they have to get it off inside of five years there will be some hustling.

ONE of the workmen in the Durham Cream Separator factory gave the phone bell another ring and this time a young lady answered. "Are you 32?" The answer he got was: "No, I'm not 32, nor I'm not 25 yet either!" Then he heard her hanging up the receiver with a bang like a boulder hitting a tin can.

WE are nearing the end of this year with its "Leap Year," and the girls opportunity of asking the hand of their young man in marriage will soon expire. It is eight years since they had this opportunity. Now girls, get busy! Up in Owen Sound the young men are yielding to the fair maidens and the "Times" man has become alarmed over the situation and says that if the ministers don't take a holiday there won't be an unmarried woman left in the town.

THIS is the third of November, the day to vote for a representative in the House of Commons. It's every voters duty to go to the poll and exercise his franchise, and in so doing become a factor in the government of the country. The casting of one's ballot is a very sacred privilege, yet we are sorry to believe that the sanctity of the bal- lot is often prostituted for the service of unworthy office seekers. Let every man who has a right to vote do so to- day, and do so in the highest interests of the country according to his best judgement.

DIED AT OWEN SOUND.—Mrs. Neil McGillivray, Rocky Saugeen, who a few weeks ago went to Owen Sound, was suddenly taken down with ty- phoid fever the day after her arrival. She was removed to the hospital where she was apparently doing nice- ly, but alas it was not to be and the sad news of her death on Sunday, 23rd October was wired to the family. Her remains were brought home the following Monday and on Tuesday were laid to rest in the family plot at the Rocky cemetery. Mrs. McGil- livray was a kind, large hearted and obliging neighbor. The sorrowing husband and children have the sincere sympathy of the community in this sudden and sore loss of a kind and loving wife and mother.

To The Electors of South Grey:

GENTLEMEN:—I respectfully request your vote and influence at the coming Dominion Election on Nov. 3, and if elected will do my best to further the interests of my constituents.

C. MCKINNON,
Conservative Candidate for S. Grey.

RING FOUND.—Apply at this office.

HYACINTH, Tulip and Lily bulbs at MacFarlane's.

HOUSE to rent, Hugh MacKay Agent, Ed. Walsh, proprietor.

12 Dozen new gramophone records just received at MacFarlane's.

LOST.—A bicycle lamp, on the Gara- fraxa road, north of Durham. Finder will please leave at this office.

BOTH parliamentary candidates are now being weighed in the balance of public opinion, and we will tell next week who is the most thought of.

WANTED.—At this office, a good smart boy, with good head, good muscle, and not too much cheek, to learn printing.

THE members of the Methodist Ep- worth League had a debate on Mon- day night, the subject discussed being "Prove that capital punishment does not reduce crime."

STOLEN.—On Friday, Oct. 21st, a pair of beaded, 2-strap slippers, size five, were taken from Peel's shoe store. Now as the person is known we would ask that the slippers be re- turned as quickly as they were taken so as to save further trouble.

THE Rev. W. Hinde, Rector of Shel- burne, will preach missionary sermons advocating particularly church of Eng- land missions to the North West, China and Japan, on Sunday next in Trinity Church, morning and evening, and at Allan's School House in the afternoon. No special offertory will be taken at the services, but collec- tions will be made later on from house to house.

HYMENEAL

On Wednesday the 19th inst., a pleasing event took place at the resi- dence of Mr. Thos. G. Lauder, of Upper Town, when his niece, Miss Lou Da- vidson, was united in marriage to Mr. Peter Matheson, of this town. The Rev. Mr. Farquharson performed the ceremony, and the bride was given away by her uncle, T. G. Lauder.

The bride looked charming in a gown of pearl gray Crepe-de-chine trimmed with Chiffon and wore a wreath of Orange Blossoms in her hair. The bride's sister, Maud, was bridesmaid and the groom was ably assisted by Mr. Wesley Theobald, of Mt. Forest. After the ceremony the guests re- paired to the dining room where a dainty wedding dinner was served. The tables were tastefully decorated with myrtle and carnations.

After partaking of the refreshments several short and suitable speeches were indulged in and the happy couple were the recipients of many nicely phrased compliments. The newly wed couple took the afternoon train and started on their honey-moon trip amid showers of rice heaped upon them by their many friends who assembled at the station to see them off.

People We Know

THE GOING AND COMING OF VISITORS IN THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER.

Mrs. Geo. Niron, of Toronto, is visit- ing Mrs. W. Black.

Mr. John Mitchell, of the Hanover Post, gave us a call nomination day. Mrs. McNulty and daughter Louisa arrived home on Monday, very much pleased with the country in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boulden, of Elm- wood, spent from Saturday till Mon- day with Mrs. A. MacKenzie and family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Moore, of Flesh- erton, drove through town Saturday on their way to visit Mr. Moore's parents in Normanby.

Mr. Graff, merchant of Hanover, and a number of others from Mr. Miller's town attended the nomina- tions.

Mr. Arthur Allan went over to Flesherston, Saturday, taking with him Miss Myrtle Thurston and Miss Rita Irwin. They attended church in Flesherston Sunday night and got home a little after midnight.

Mr. F. W. Jackson, of Quilchena, B. C., is visiting friends in this vicinity. He is engaged in the ranching busi- ness and has evidently made a suc- cess of it, during the eighteen years since he first went out there. It is twelve years since he was home last, and he naturally sees a change in things around here. Like most of these westerners, he looks well and seems to have good digestive ma- chinery. We were pleased to have a call from him on Saturday last.

JERRY FROM KERRY.

Town Hall, Durham, Sat. Evening, November 5th.

A roaring musical Farce Comedy, with one of the finest Concert Band and Orchestra on the road. Read what the Owen Sound Times of Oct. 21st has to say of this attraction.

"One of the brightest and cleanest Farce Comedy and Vaudeville shows that has struck town for many moons, is Patten & Perry's combination which played to a jammed hall last night. Their street parade and excellent band under the direction of Mr. Perry cre- ated a most favorable impression and the crowd responded. "Jerry from Kerry" is a bright sketch in which Mr. Patten shines particularly as one of the best comedians in the business. The show is even better than on its previous appearance. The orchestra particularly showing the result of high class training. Watch for the street Parade at noon and the band concert at 7:30 in front of Town Hall. Prices 25c, 35c and 50c. Plan at Dar- ling's Drug Store.

SABBATH SCHOOL SOCIAL.

A very pleasing event in the shape of a Sabbath School Social took place in lower Ritchie School S. S. No. 9, Glenelg, on the evening of Friday, October 28. During the last two sum- mers a largely attended Sabbath School has been held in the above mentioned school. Mr. Wm. J. Young has been Superintendent, and has had the able assistance of an efficient band of workers. A social is held at the close of the season when parents, teachers, scholars and invited friends from surrounding country and town, meet to spend a pleasant social even- ing.

On this occasion the school was filled to its utmost seating capacity. The ladies brought with them an abun- dance of good things, which were served out by attentive waiters till all were in that happy state of mind experi- enced on festive occasions of this kind.

Then followed a literary programme. Mr. John A. Graham was chosen chair- man. The first was a chorus by the school followed by a report of the Sab- bath School by Secretary Robt. Mc- Fadden who referred to the large at- tendance and general prosperous con- dition of the school.

Rev. Mr. Colling spoke of how en- vironment so often decides the future of the young. Mr. John H. Brown referred to the wrong standard of manliness of the boys who follow many of the vices they see practiced by their elders. Mr. Alex. Firth, spoke of the teacher's place in a "human race." Rev. Mr. Newton humorously objected to some of the features of the "race" and also gave the young some wholesome advice regarding correct habits. Mr. Thos. Allan followed in the same strain and addressed himself to the boys and girls on the subject "Habit." Rev. Mr. Farquharson took up the subject "Pay as you go" and dealt with economy of time as well as of means. The following gave recita- tions:—Misses Maggie Weir, Clara Ritchie, Eva Atkinson and Blanche Mathews; and one by Master Willie Atkinson telling about boys and their good times.

The meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the Doxology fol- lowed by benediction by Rev. Mr. Newton. Just before the close Mr. Wm. J. Young was called to the front and pleasantly surprised by the presentation of a large Morocco-bound teacher's Bible and a large Hymnal. Mr. Young re- plied feelingly to following addresses which in behalf of school was read by Mr. Wm. Weir while Miss Jennie Meenagh made the presentation.

ADDRESS.

To Mr. Wm. Young,

Supt. Union Sab. Sch. No. 9, Glenelg.

Dear friend,—At the close of another season of Sunday School effort your fellow-teachers and members of the Bible Class desire to place on record the pleasure and profit they have de- rived from association with you in this work, and from your teaching during the year. Your enthusiasm and self- sacrificing efforts have warmed our hearts and quickened our spiritual life, and we wish for you many years of usefulness in a sphere you fill so well.

We ask you to accept of this Bible and Hymn Book as a token of deepest regard, and trust you and we may al- ways be guided by the teaching of the former, and at last sing the songs of Zion around the throne above.

With best wishes for yourself and family. Signed in behalf of the donors,
ROBT. MCFADDEN,
Secretary.

Over 700 Years Old.

A curiosity in the shape of a wooden box may be seen in the home of Mrs. Chas. Wilkinson, of this town. The old lady who owns it says it is seven hundred years old and has been hand- ed down from one generation to an- other during all those centuries. The present owner brought it from the old country about fifty years ago. It is still in use and the rope handles in the ends have been there for over a hun- dred years. It is an old heir-loom, used to hold clothing, and however valuable it may be as a curiosity, it doesn't possess any attractive charms in appearance.
