GATHERED DURING THE PAST WEEK FOR CHRONICLE READERS.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

FOR SALE.—Young pigs five weeks old. Apply to Adam Watson, Lambton, St., East.—2 pd.

A SERVICE of Thanksgiving will be held in the Presbyterian church to-day (Thursday) at 11 a. m. All are cordially invited.

SUBSCRIBERS to the CHRONICLE should get their renewals in early so that we may book them for the Christmas number with the first lot we send out.

A CONVENTION in the interest of the Conservative party is called by J. P. Whitney, the Conservative Leader, to meet in Toronto on Thursday, Nov. 24th.

A PIE and Box social will be held in S. S. No. 9, Glenelg, on Friday, Nov. 25th. A good programme is being prepared and a good time is expected. Admission 15c. Ladies bringing boxes free. Everybody invited.

In a bar room in an adjoining village is a sign which reads: "If you can't pay don't load up." The card was printed for a coal yard, but some one swiped it and left it in a bar room. The proprietor says it is the best thing he ever had in his place.

THE directors of the Durham Furniture Co., held a meeting a few days ago, at which they decided to purchase logs to supply lumber for the factory, also to do custom work. This will necessitate the erecting of a mill which will be much appreciated by the community.

A YEAR ago to-day, Nov. 17th, snow fell to a sufficient depth to make sleighing, which was of the very best quality up to the first or second week in December. The rest of the winter needs no description, and will not soon be forgotten. It was enough to chill the sickly pantings of those who pine for a glimpse at the "Beautiful Snow."

THE Scotchmen are getting ready an AI Concert for December 8th. Harold Jarvis of world-wide fame as a Scottish Vocalist has been engaged for the occasion and will appear in Durham for the first time on that evening. If you want to hear him get your ticket at once as there will not be a seat left in a very short time after this announcement is out. Miss LaDell who is well known here will also appear on the program with Miss Agnes Dunlop who is a favorite with Harold Jarvis. All seats 50 cents. Plan at MacFarlane's.

REV. MR. VANSICKLE, of Toronto, will commence a series of Revival meetings in the Baptist Chapel here next Sunday. Mr. Vansickle comes very highly recommended as an Evangelist by the Home Mission Board of the Baptist denomination and his visit here is looked forward to with pleasure. Meetings will be held every night next week except Saturday at 8 o'clock, with a Service of Song at 7.45. The public is cordially invited to attend these meetings. The special Sunday evening discourses that have been started by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Newton, will be cancelled till after the special meetings are over.

THE marriage of Miss Bessie Park and Mr. Wm. McIntosh was solemnized Monday evening, October 17th, at eight o'clock, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Thos. Nichol, 435 West Unith St., Colorado Springs, Colorado. Rev. I. J. Hiezes performed the ceremony in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives. The bride wore a gown of white spun silk and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. The drawing room and dining room were prettily decorated with sweet peas, marguerites and white carnations. The bride received many handsome and useful presents. The bride, who is the youngest daughter of Mr. James Park, "Newton House," Bentinck, came to Colorado Springs a few years ago, and has made many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh left Tuesday morning for their home in Aspen, where Mr. McIntosh is engaged in HIGHEST cash prices paid for Raw Furs at Peel's shoe store, Durham.—t.f.

A CARD of thanks from Mr. H. H. Miller appears in this issue. It was our fault it wasn't in last week.

THE Deer Hunters have not returned yet but a few fine deer have reached town in good shape.

THE Hanover Post had a big crowd last week over the success of Mr. H. H. Miller in the recent election.

THE Methodists have replaced, by a good substantial new one, the old shed that fell last winter from the excessive weight of snow.

WANTED.—At this office, a good smart boy, with good head, good muscle, and not too much cheek, to learn printing.

THE Young People's society of the Presbyterian church intend holding a social on Monday evening, the 28th inst. Further particulars next week.

REV. N. WELWOOD, of Dundalk, has been invited by the Quarterly Board of the Methodist church to remain a fourth year. He has accepted the invitation.

TELL that neighbor of yours who borrows the CHRONICLE every week that he can get one of his own to the end of next year for the small sum of one dollar. New yearly subscribers will be entitled to our handsome Christmas number.

At the Methodist Church Board meeting held on Monday evening, for the transaction of general business the question of reletting the pews was considered when it was unanimously carried that the pews be free. The ushers will hereafter both morning and evening seat the congregation.

WHAT can a fellow get at Flarity's the Tailors, besides suits and overcoats? There are Hats, Caps, Ties, Gloves, White shirts, Colored shirts, Collars, Suspenders, Different kinds of muffers, Neckwear Underwear, Fine socks, Umbrellas; in fact anything but shoes that a fellow requires to make him feel and look well.

J. & J. HUNTER have their new store lighted with Acetylene gas and there isn't another place in town so well provided with light. Drs. Gun and Pickering, up stairs in same building are also provided from the same plant and their cozy parlor have a very attractive appearance. It would be a great light for a print-shop.

On Monday evening next the Methodist Anniversary and Junior Epworth League Rally will be conducted in the church. A choice programme of songs recitations and instrumental selections has been prepared for the occasion, and a good time is assured. The committee has secured the services of Miss Elda Flett, graduate of Toronto Conservatory of Music, who comes highly recommended. Miss Flett will render a number of solos, and is also expected to sing at the special services in the church Sunday evening.

THE South Grey Conservative Convention to be held here on Monday afternoon next should be largely attended by members of the party from all over the riding. The selection of a candidate for political honors is an important duty, and every delegate should endeavor to settle on a good man. Dr. Jamieson will doubtless be the people's choice, and his parliamentary experience places him beyond the experimental stage. The electors know him just as well as we do and it is not necessary on our part to give an opinion regarding his qualifications. He is a man of large ideas, good executive ability, keen of discernment, shrewd in his judgment, and a good forcible public speaker. He's a man the party may well trust, and will no doubt be the unanimous choice of the Convention on Monday next. The election of officers, too, is a feature of the Convention that should not be lost sight of. Every officer should be of such ability, integrity and character as to enforce respect. The best are none too good, and only the best should be chosen. After the selection of a candidate addresses are to be delivered by Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P., Andrew Miscampbell, Ex-M. P. P., J. P. Downey, M. P. P., I. B. Lucas, M. P. P., and other speakers. Come out everybody, and hear the addresses of able political speakers. Remember the date, Monday, Nov. 21st, at 2 p. m.

ALLAN's school, Egremont, is again advertising for a teacher.

SEE McIntyre's House to Rent ad. on page 5.

Mr. Moore McFadden is home from the West where he spent the past couple of years. He likes the country well but will likely remain here till spring.

SCHOOL Concert at S. S. No. 12, Egremont, on Friday night, Dec. 2nd. Good program of recitations, songs and dialogues. Runciman's string band in attendance. Admission 15 cents.—3pd.

SPECIAL sermon in the Methodist Church Sunday evening by Rev. T. Colling. Subject, "The value of young men." Solos by Miss Elda Flett, graduate of Toronto Conservatory of Music. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

MRS. MARSHALL is erecting a fine two-story brick dwelling, which adds much to the lower end of the town. The plasterers are now at work and it will not be long before completion. Hugh Macdonald is doing the brick work and plastering.

CREDIT Auction Sale of Farm Stock Implements and Household furniture, at Lot 15, Con. 1, N. D. R. near Robroy Hotel, Glenelg. Charles McArthur, Prop. Hugh MacKay Auctioneer. Sale will be held Friday, Nov. 18th.

THE Pond was completely frozen over on Thursday and Friday last and some of the boys were out on it to try its strength. It will not be long till skating time and rather than take any serious risks it would be safer for lovers of the sport to wait a few days before making the venture.

J. C. NICHOL is building a cement stable to replace the frame one that was burned down last spring. George MacKay has the contract and appears to be making a good job of it. Cement is the coming material for all kinds of building and the near future will see a lot of it used for that purpose.

AN item appeared in one of our exchanges a few days ago referring to an elector who "supported the Liberal Government for thirty-five years and wouldn't vote for any other kind." Any man who is so tied down to party that he'll support them through thick and thin, through evil as well as good, isn't properly located if he's outside of a lunatic asylum. We don't believe in being moved by every wind of doctrine, nor do we believe in the genuineness of a man's conversion if he changes his politics or religion for the sake of financial gain, but we do think it is a radically wrong position for an intelligent and honorable elector to stay with any one party regardless of consequences. This is not intended as a justification of the actions of the "loose fish" who can be bought for a cheap cigar, or a glass of poor whiskey. Any man who sells his vote should be disfranchised for ninety-nine years for the first offence, and after that for life if he does it again.

TO-DAY, Wednesday, at High Noon, a very interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald, of this town, when their youngest daughter, Clara, became the bride of Mr. Sam McAllister, formerly of Palmerston but now an employee in the Separator Factory here. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Farquharson, Presbyterian minister, in the presence of only the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Miss McAllister, of Palmerston, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid while Mr. Mack McDonald, of the same place, assisted the groom in the trying ordeal with extreme nonchalance like an old hand. Congratulations over, a dainty wedding dinner was served. The bride was the recipient of a large number of useful and costly presents, showing the esteem in which she is held by her host of friends. The newly-wedded couple left on the 3 o'clock train for a trip to Seaforth, Hamilton and other places. After the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. McAllister will take up housekeeping in town. "Sam" will now have an opportunity of enjoying the pleasures of putting up stoves-pipes, carrying water, splitting wood, lighting the fires and making the toast in the mornings, but it's all the rage now-a-day. THE CHRONICLE extends hearty congratulations.
