At the meeting of the Town Council Monday night a resolution was passed to procure a snow plow and keep the sidewalks clear during the winter at least seems to be all right.

Don't forget the Public Library concert at Holstein, Thursday evening, Dec. 15th. Bert Harvey, the famous comedian and other talented entertainers. Admission 25c, reserved seats 50c.

The weather so far this winter seems to be much like that of last year. There's a lot of wood coming in now, and sold at about $2.50 per cord. Many of the citizens have provided themselves with coal.

JOHN GORDON, son of our townsman Gordon, jeweler, who is running a jewelry shop in Weyburn, Assa., sustained a loss of over $200, last week fire. His complete stock was not destroyed, but the above loss was due carelessness in removing the stock from the store.

The Central Business College of Bradford is a live, progressive school where excellent work is being done. These days of keen competition a man in any walk of life should have a business training if he wishes to attain the greatest success. We cannot direct the attention of our readers to a better school in the Province if they wish to secure a Business Education or shorthand training. Write to the College for a catalogue and see for yourself what good work the school is doing.

Mr. Smith's forty-seven years ago since market Smith said Good-bye to John Curran in Yorkshire, England. Chart and John were play mates and companions up to that time, and though separated in the flesh by the emigration of the former, they were always united in spirit. About six months ago Mr. Curran came to this country and settled in Hamilton. Mr. Smith heard of him and at once sent an invitation to his old friend to visit him. Last week two old playmates of nearly half a century ago were together again, and immensely enjoyed their reminiscence of their over by-gone days. Mr. Curran, a rugged old gentleman and as Yorkers as they make them.

On Wednesday afternoon of this week another of those happy events which cause a ripple of interest in the community, took place at the parsonage in Arcola, when two lives were joined forever. The participants were Wellington Dormer, of Coteau, and Miss Zetta Kerney, daughter of W. Kerney of Wandby, Ontario. H. G. Cairns officiated. The ceremony was attended by his brother, Joseph Dormer. The ceremony over the happy young couple received the congratulations of many friends in town before driving to their home at Coteau, where a large number of friends and a most appetizing dinner awaited them. The evening was spent in social amusement and good cheer. The bride received valuable and useful presents.—Mountain Star.

SAM LAWRENCE is home from Port Arthur.

MR. J. L. BROWNE and family have moved to Hawkesbury.

THE Rink was opened to the public Tuesday night and was well patronized.

MR. W. M. GRANT of Knox College will preach in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning and evening.

THE Farmers' Manufacturing and Supply Company are opening up Show Rooms in the new Hunter Block.

MR. FARQUHARSON goes to Chatsworth on Sunday to preach the Anniversary services and to give an address on Monday evening.

In the Presbyterian pulpit last Sabbath reference was made to the death of Principal Caven and the mission he filled both for church and state.

WE regret to learn that Mr. Aljoe senior is very ill at present. We understand he had a severe fall which rendered him speechless. He is over eighty years of age.

A BRIEF contribution from Winnipeg on the death of the late Mr. Jansen has been withheld as a lengthy notice had been already inserted and the article referred to had no additional matter.

AN up-to-date concert will be given in Allen's School No. 2, Egremont, Tuesday evening, Dec. 13th. Admission 15 cents single ticket. Splendid talent is expected. Everybody welcome. Proceeds for the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto.

TAX NOTICE.—I will be at the Knapp House, Saturday, Dec. 10th, to meet all parties of Ward No. 1, Glenelg, to receive taxes from all who have not previously paid. After that date the roll will be placed in other hands for collection. THOS. MCGIRR, Collector.

PROF. Texter phrenologist is still at the Middaugh House, and will be there till Saturday next. He invites all those interested, to come and hear his short free lectures on Phrenology, beginning every evening at 7 o'clock. Get your head read. Examination daily. Plain reading 15c., Synoptical chart 30c., Full descriptive chart 50c. Saturday is positively my last night here.

WE regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Alex Morton at Rocky Saugeen which occurred Tuesday last after about five weeks illness from catarrh of the stomach. The deceased was forty-three years of age and leaves a husband and three daughters to mourn the loss of an affectionate wife and mother. She was a daughter of the late James Lunney, of Bentinck. Her mother, six sisters and three brothers are also mourners over the sad event. The brothers are Wm. and Fred on the homestead, and James in Galt. The sisters are Mrs. W. J. Kerney, of Glenelg, Mrs. Morrison, of Galt, Mrs. Whitham, of Mt. Forest, Mrs. Britton, of Bunessan, Mrs. Astleford, of British Columbia and Mrs. Brunt of Bentinck. Interment takes place to the Durham Cemetery to-morrow, Thursday, at 1 p. m.

A QUIET but very pretty wedding was solemnized at high noon on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. James Burnett of this town when her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, was united in wedlock to Mr. D. McCoskery, of Tottenham, in the presence of only the intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The ceremony, which was solemn, beautiful and imposing, was performed by Rev. Mr. Farquharson, Presbyterian minister. The bride who was given away by her cousin, Mr. R. Curran, was unattended and was gowned in cream crepe-de-chene, trimmed with cream silk and chiffon, and carried bridal roses, the wedding march being played by Miss Sophia Burnett, sister of the bride. At the conclusion of the ceremony the company partook of a dainty luncheon. The home was beautifully decorated with flowers, ferns, chrysanthemums. The going-away suit was of brown broadcloth with white silk waist and hat to match. After receiving the congratulations of their friends the bridal couple left on the 3 o'clock train on a honeymoon trip to visit Toronto, Hamilton and other places. Mr. and Mrs. McCoskery will reside in Winnipeg. THE CHRONICLE joins the host of friends in wishing them many years of unalloyed happiness.

Moore McFadden Honored.

We clip the following from the Russell (Man.) Banner which has reference to a Durham boy who has been out there for some time and has recently returned to town to take a position in MacFarlane & Co.'s Drug store:

"A farewell party was given Mr. Moore McFadden, who has been employed with Mr. W. Ledingham, in the Foresters' Hall, last Friday evening by the young men of the town. Quite a large crowd gathered for the occasion, and a very pleasant time was spent by all, tripping of the light fantastic. Mr. McFadden leaves this week for his home in Durham, Ont."

The young people of Russell, not being satisfied with the above send-off, had "Moore" to appear before them the following Friday when they presented him with a locket which bears the words: "To Mac from the Boys of Russell."

"Last Friday evening a number of the boys of the village gathered in Mr. D. B. Higgin's rooms and presented Mr. M. McFadden with a handsome gold locket, before his departure for his home in Durham, Ont. The presentation was made by Mr. Edmison and Mr. McFadden made a suitable reply, thanking the boys for the gift, and regretting his departure from Russell. After the presentation supper was served and a short musical programme closed the evening's entertainment."

Zionites are making special efforts to make their Christmas Tree Concert on Christmas Eve, a rousing success.

Mr. J. H. Smith B. A. of the Durham school staff filled Zion's pulpit on Sunday. His address was scholarly, most logical and impressive. Mr. Watson assisted in the service. Watson is a most handsome fellow, so we overheard the fair ones remark

On Wednesday, Nov. 23rd, in the cosy parlor of the Methodist parsonage, in Arcola, Assa., Miss Zeddie Kerney, eldest daughter of councillor W. Kerney, was most happily wedded to Mr. Wellington Dormer by the Rev. I. Cairns. Mr. Dormer is a splendid specimen of manhood and is well known throughout the North part of this township, having lived on the late F. Twamley's farm for some years. He moved to Arcola four years ago and has prospered and forged ahead most rapidly. The fair bride was handsomely gowned in brown, with hat to match and looked very pretty. They were liberally beset with rice as they drove through the thriving town, ere leaving for their home some miles out. Miss Zeddie left here in August, but the wooing was begun a year or more ago. The best wishes of the neighborhood goes out to the happy couple.
