

BARGAINS IN FANCY GOODS

The following letter from a member of the firm, "The Fancy Goods Co. of Canada" speaks for itself.

TORONTO, Nov. 28th, 1904.

R. Macfarlane jr.,
Durham,

Dear Bob,

We are moving into our new premises after Jan. 1st. If you want some bargains come down. Will give you my personal attention.

Yours truly,

J. H. WOOD.

Fortunately for you and ourselves as well, we had not bought the bulk of our Xmas stock of:

- Dolls
- Toys
- China
- Albums
- Dressing Cases
- Perfumes
- Leather Goods
- Etc., Etc.

We readily availed ourselves of this good chance. We were not disappointed, nor will you be when you see what we have to offer.

We can sell these Goods at regular Wholesale prices and still have a fair profit

A line of china cups and saucers are exceptionally good value.

- 25c Lines for 10c and 15c
- 50c " " " " 25c
- 75c " " " " 35c
- $1. " " " " 50c

Come and let us show you them.

Take a look through our Stock, no matter whether you want to buy or not, as we always consider it a pleasure to show our goods.

COME EARLY.

DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor.

Durham, Dec. 8th, 1904.

SANCTUM SIPTINGS.

The Liberal Convention held here on Thursday last was well attended, and Mr. John McKechnie was the man chosen to contest the constituency against Dr. Jamieson in the Local Legislature. Mr. McKechnie is a good honest man and we feel the campaign will be honorably conducted on both sides. It is too soon yet to predict the success of either candidate but there is very little doubt of Dr. Jamieson's return with a good majority.

H. H. Miller M. P. elect and Hon. A. G. MacKay were the speakers at the Convention here last Thursday. Both spoke highly of Mr. Ross and his Government. This was nothing more than the people expected them to do. Mr. MacKay in particular is naturally anxious for the return of the Ross government in order that he may enjoy the benefits of his portfolio as Minister of Crown Lands. It was not the first time Mr. MacKay had to argue on the wrong side of the case, and there were persons listening to him who heard him go off into as high a state of religious fervor in the court of law as he did on the night of the convention. Professions of purity and religious can't is much in vogue now in the grit ranks, but with all their fervor and enthusiasm they fail to move the general public to believe in their sincerity. The fact of Mr. MacKay's reference three times to R. R. Gamey shows conclusively the magnitude of the party hatred to Gamey's exposures, and Gameyism is a big factor to be reckoned with at the present time.

The Commercial travellers are as a rule a pretty good authority in the political feeling in the county and for months past they seem to express only one opinion and that opinion is decidedly unfavorable to the return of the present Ontario government. The Temperance people have at last begun to sour in the unfulfilled professions of the Premier, and the tricks by which he worked them for a third of a century are now ineffectual in holding them together. Elsewhere we give the opinion of Rev. Mr. Kettlewell, a gentleman who, with two exceptions, has always been a supporter of the Liberal party.
