DIED.

Morton—In Bentinck, near Rocky Sauguen, on Tuesday, Dec. 6th 1904 Rachel Lunney, beloved wife of Alexander Morton. Aged 43 years 22 days.

Flesherton.

The pall of mourning fell on the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Gillespie, near this village, on Saturday last the 47th birthday of Mr. Gillespie who that evening passed away after three weeks illness with bronchial affection. The funeral took place to Maxwell on Tuesday the burial services being conducted by Rev. L. W. Thom. of this place. The deceased was married twenty-five years ago to Mrs. Elizabeth Croft, of Osprey, who survives him along with the following sons and daughters; John, at Brandon, Man Charles and Annie, in Toronto, and May and Albert at home. The sorrowing family have the sympathy of many friends in their sudden bereavement. Mr. Gillespie was a Presbyterian in religion and a Conservative in politics.

At the monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society held at Mrs. VanDozen's on Thursday last the present officers—Mrs. (Rev.) L. W. Thom, President; Mrs. J. Radley, Vice-Pres.; Mrs. J. Blackburn, Secretary-Treasurer—were re-elected for 1905. The Treasurer's annual report showed the Society to be in a prosperous condition.

On Tuesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Love, near Mt. Zion, Artemesia, were bereft of their son Sam, who all his life was their close companion and the object of their special affection. The funeral took place on Thursday to Mt. Zion Cemetery. J. B. Wass of this place officiated at the house and grave and conducted an appropriate service in the church after interment.

Rev. Mr. Cocking, of Chatsworth, spent a couple of days with Rev. Mr. Wass last week and exhibited his stereopticon views of Japan at successful entertainments in Mr. Wass's field. Mr. Cocking returned this week and exhibited for Mr. Wilson at Meaford Road on Monday evening and again for Mr. Wass, at Mt. Zion on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mullin, a very highly respected young couple of Mt. Zion neighborhood, who have sold their farm and are removing to Osprey, were given a pleasant surprise on Monday evening. A large number of their neighbors and friends assembled at their home and presented them with a valuable robe as a token of their esteem. Mr. Mullin graciously acknowledged the much appreciated gift, after which refreshments were served and an enjoyable evening was spent.

A brightly illuminated sky to the east of us on Wednesday night of last week led some to fear the destruction of some one's buildings. It was, however, only a large bed of saw dust on fire at Rockvale mill, but made a pretty sight.

The public school in Stone's Settlement, presided over by Miss Eva Small, held their annual entertainment on Friday night last, and was as usual a big success. A very lengthy programme was rendered by the scholars many of whom displayed much taste and ability in the parts taken by them. Mr. M. K. Richardson of this place occupied the chair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bellamy entertained a few of their friends at their home here on Friday evening last.

Born, on Friday last, to Mr. and Charles Stewart, of the Suburbs, a son, still born.

Rev. L. W. Thom, moderator of the Presbyterian Sessions at Maxwell Feversham and McIntyre preached in that field on Sabbath last. His work here and at Eugeneia and Proton was taken by Rev. J. Laing, recently from British Columbia.

Mr. T. W. Wilson, returned from Toronto Hospital on Saturday last. He stood the journey well and continues to improve.

Fred Chard returned from the city on Saturday somewhat improved by the rawhide jacket in which his body is encased.

Mr. J. A. Boyd was on the sick list a day or two last week and by a misstep in the night fell headlong down the stairway in his residence. Fortunately no bones were broken but considerable soreness was experienced for a while after.

Mr. Chas. Hales, of this place, who has been for some time in Manitoba, is at present in Winnipeg, attending Business College and we learn making very satisfactory progress.

Mr. Robt. Blackburn who went West a year ago, has turned his hand to telegraphy. We are pleased to learn of these young men so fitting themselves for positions in the business world.

Mr. Bachus, of Shelburne, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Miss Annie Wilson accompanied her father from Toronto on Saturday and is visiting at home.

Mrs. W. A. Armstrong is spending a few days with her sister Mrs. A. Neilson, of Proton Station, whose daughter is ill.

Messrs. J. A. and W. J. Boyd and their families were at Mt. Forest, on Sunday and Monday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, sr.
