Please Follow Directions
The Best Bread and Pastry making is Impossible Otherwise.

Are you following the recipes?
 Are you making bread, cakes, pies, pastry, according to "Royal Household" recipes?
 If not, you cannot be sure of good results.
 "Why not?" you may reasonably ask.
 "Are not my own recipes, which do good baking, good enough?"
 "Why should I adopt new recipes?" Simply because "Royal Household" is a new flour requiring new treatment.
This Flour is Different from Other Flours
 It is different from other flour.
 It is better than any flour you have ever used.
 It is the only flour that is equally good for bread and pastry.
 It makes the best of both.
 Being different, it must be differently mixed, kneaded and baked.
Much Quicker
and Easier Baking By following our recipes you can bake easier, quicker, better than ever before.
 All your own skill and knowledge of good baking will be made doubly effective, and as a good housewife you will quickly see why these recipes are so good.
 The words of a lady of St. John, N.B., whose letter we have just opened: "bread made with it is lighter, flakier, better than any I have ever seen" are words echoed by thousands of the best judges of good cooking throughout Canada who are writing us constantly to say that they have found the flour just as represented, and the recipes the best they have ever tried.
 Grocers tell us that the homes where the flour and the recipes are both used are the homes where the greatest success is attained in baking.
 We wish everyone who uses "Royal Household" flour to have these recipes.
 So send for them.
 Send now, and we will not only send you the recipes, but place you on our literature list, and mail you whatever we issue for users of flour.
 No woman who values the reputation of her baking—the success of her bread, cakes, pies and pastry—the health of her family, (depending as it does on good cooking) will use anything except "Royal Household" flour and in the "Royal Household" way.
 The best baking requires the best flour and the best recipes.
 We have both.
 We send the recipes free.
 Write for the recipes to-day.
 Every really good grocer has the flour.

 Miss Maggie Hooper is visiting friends in Atwood Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Konold, Laramie, Wyoming, visited at W. L.
 Dixou's, Mrs. Konold's uncle for a couple of days last week. They were accompanied by Miss Louise Konold, who stayed till Saturday, then returning to her grandfather's where, with her cousin Mary Konold, she will study music during the winter months. Mr. and Mrs. Konold also visited friends at Swinton Park returning on Saturday.
 Minnie Halpenny we are pleased to see is spending a couple of days at her home here.
 Mrs. Dixon spent last week with her mother Mrs. Binnie who is not so well at present.

The church sheds under the management of Mr. Cunningham Moore have been framed, and have also been boarded in. There yet remains the roof to add, which we are in hopes of seeing completed in a short time if the gentlemen will only turn out and give their valuable assistance at the next bee.
 The Sunday school Anniversary of Ebenezer will be held on the evening of Dec. 14th commencing at 7.30.
 Preparations are being made for a good programme.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lawrence from near Wilder's Lake visited the former's sister Mrs. Jones Harrison at the beginning of the week.

Henry's Corners.
 Once more we gather together a few of the happenings around the Corner.
 Miss Jean Brown, of Durham, visited her friend, Miss Agnes Hunter for a few days last week.
 Mr. Wm. Hunter, Jr., is night-watchman at the Lake.
 Mrs. John Allan visited her sister, Mrs. Hastie of Traverston, and other friends for a week.
 Miss Jane Reid left for Toronto last Thursday after a couple of months' visit at the old parental home.
 Mr. James M. Matthews, night-watchman for Neil Gow, has purchased a farm in Proton south of Hopeville.
 The box social held in S. S. No. 12 was a very successful one, Mr. Wm.
 Ramage being chairman which he ably filled. The program consisted of dialogues, two of which were given by the people of Lawrence Hall and were very well rendered, the other three being given by the school children which were well rendered too. George Watson gave a recitation about "Society Setting a Hen," and Mr. Doward Henty gave a speech which were both well received. The school children sang nicely together, and Messrs. Ramage and Isaac and little Miss Blanch Reid favored the audience with appropriate songs. The boxes were auctioned off by Mr. John Moore who kept everybody in good humor.
 The proceeds amounted to $77?

Just One Laugh.
 Did you ever hear how Eli Perkins sprained his ankle? Well neither has any one else, though Perkins is willing to tell the story—on one condition is that no one laughs until he finishes the story.
 This is how he began the story at the banquet given to the American press humorists by the Business Men's League at St. Louis:—
 "Your task maker, Mr. Frank, has asked me to tell you how I sprained my ankle. Well, I shall tell you, if you will not laugh until I finish the story. This is how it happened:— I was on a train going east, when there was a wreck. The train was derailed, and all passengers were more or less shaken up. Everybody in the sleeping car tried to get out as hurriedly as possible, and in the rush the clothing got considerably mixed. I could not find my trousers at all; but finally I did find a pair of trousers, but I couldn't wear 'em You see they were not men's trousers."
 Here there was general laughter, and Perkins looked about in a pained sort of way, then went on:—"There you laughed. I knew you would.
 They were not men's trousers; they were boy's trousers". But I won't tell you how I sprained my ankle because you laughed."
