BARGAINS IN FANCY GOODS

The following letter from a member of the firm, "The Fancy Goods Co. of Canada" speaks for itself.

TORONTO, Nov. 28th, 1904.

R. Macfarlane jr.,
 Durham,

Dear Bob,

We are moving into our new premises after Jan. 1st. If you want some bargains come down. Will give you my personal attention.

Yours truly,

J. H. WOOD.

Fortunately for you and ourselves as well, we had not bought the bulk of our Xmas stock of:

- Dolls
- Toys
- China
- Albums
- Dressing Cases
- Perfumes
- Leather Goods
- Etc., Etc.

We readily availed ourselves of this good chance. We were not disappointed, nor will you be when you see what we have to offer.

We can sell these Goods at regular Wholesale prices and still have a fair profit

A line of china cups and saucers are exceptionally good value.

DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor.

Durham, Dec. 15th, 1904.

Flesherton.

Judge Morrison presided at Division Court held here on Friday last and the following cases occupied most of the day: Small vs Robert son—The plaintiff, who lives at Arthur, sued H. K. Robertson, of Osprey, for amount of note, something over $20.00, which had been given by him to an insurance agent for premium on a policy. The defendant claimed that the policy issued to him proved fraudulent and upon the evidence produced the Court ordered nonsuit.

Jas. Scott, Hopeville, vs Thos. Watson, Egremont. Action for $5. The price of an old horse which the defendant claimed proved worthless. Judgment for the Plaintiff.

Robert McMaster vs. Wm. McClennan and son John, all of Osprey. This case arose out of an assault upon the Plaintiff who brought action for $60.00 for damages and was given judgment for $20.00 and costs.

W. G. Pickell, vs. Mrs. Catherine Shore and M. J. Shore, all of Markdale. The Plaintiff sued for $5.00 which he alleged was promised him for iron delivery of sheep, and was given judgment for the same.

E. Sargent, Ceylon, vs. W. A. Armstrong, Flesherton. This was an action to recover damages for timber claimed by the Plaintiff, but claim was not sustained and the case ended with nonsuit.

On Tuesday of last week there died at the home of her son-in-law Mr. Wm. Chard, 4th line, Mrs. Mary Hepburn at the age of 78 years and 11 months. The funeral took place to Maxwell, on Thursday, Rev. W. L. Thom of this place conducting the burial services. The deceased was a native of Scotland and has been a resident of Artemesia for about 25 years, most of which time she has been a widow.

After a long illness borne with Christian resignation there passed peacefully away at her home here on Sunday afternoon last Mrs. Robert Trimble, who had reached the age of nearly 73 years. She was a very highly respected lady and one of the oldest residents, having lived here about 50 years. The deceased whose maiden name was Miller, was born in the county of Durham on January 23rd 1832, and on May 16, 1850 was married at Bowmanville to her now sorrowing husband. Soon after marriage she came with her husband to Grey county and lived about four years in Holland and Owen Sound after which they settled at Flesherton and have since resided here. She was for nearly 40 years in poor health but withal maintained a cheerful spirit, was ambitious beyond her physical strength and reached the age of order of her own home. Kindness was a trait of her character felt beyond her own home as was also the influence of her consistent Christian life. Nearly fifty years ago under the preaching of Revs. Hill and Browning she experienced conversion, joined the Methodist church and remained a steadfast member. Mrs. Trimble was the mother of three sons and one daughter who survive her as follows: Jas. of Mt. Clemens, Mich.; Wm. W. of Flesherton; Mrs. J. C. Crane, Owen Sound and Robert in Washington State, James and wife and Mrs. Crane will be here for the funeral which takes place to the public cemetery on Wednesday afternoon when an appropriate service will be held in the Methodist church conducted by the pastor Rev. J. S. I. Wilson. Mr. Trimble now alone, as well as the members of his family have the sympathy of a large number of friends in their sorrow.

Messrs. Sproule, Crossley & Co. are taking advantage of Sproule's empty store on the corner recently vacated by T. J. Sheppard and are this week moving into the same, so as to enable them to meet the growing requirements of their trade. No doubt in their commodious premises, which is one of the best business stands in town, their trade will greatly increase. This firm started in a humble way four and a half years ago and should they prosper in the future as they have in the past may soon lay claim to being one of the stable and progressive and business houses of this place. Miss Crossley, a member of the firm, who by close attention to the wants of customers and courtesy to all has made many friends, continues the management of the business.

Born, on Thursday last, to Mr. and Mrs. E. Patterson, of this place, a daughter.

The front page of the New Yorker Echo of December 3rd contains an elegant photograph of Mr. W. F. Doll now a leading watch and jewelry manufacturer of New York city. The Echo is printed in German and not being master of that language we are unable to translate all the good things it has to say respecting our former townsman and old friend Doll.

Miss Myrtle Thurston now attending Model School in Durham, has been engaged by the Trustees of S. S. No. 6, in the village of ...

News has reached us of the marriage of Mrs. (Dr.) Rosborough, who recently returned to Everett, Washington, particulars not yet received.

The Advance of last week copied from Toronto Saturday Night the marriage recently of Miss Jennie Richardson of this place, daughter of Henry Richardson, to Mr. R. A. McIntyre of Toronto. The marriage took place in the Presbyterian church Beamsville, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Dr. MacIntyre, uncle of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. MacIntyre will reside in Brampton.

Mrs. J. A. Boyd entertained a number of her lady friends at a thimble party on Friday afternoon last.

Communion service was held in the Presbyterian church on Sabbath last. In the Methodist church Mr. M. K. Richardson preached in the morning and the pastor, in the evening when a strong prohibition sermon was delivered the principles enunciated being total abstinence for individual and prohibition for the state.

A large representation of the Methodist church League, Dundalk paid the League here a fraternal visit on Monday evening and gave an interesting programme. The home League furnished refreshments and an enjoyable evening was spent.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Fred Sproule, son of Mr. R. Sproule of this place, who is a law student in the office of Mulock and Roberts, Winnipeg, has at the recent law Exam., passed the second intermediate with honors.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Boyd visited on Saturday and Sunday with friends at Meaford.

Mr. W. Whitten is visiting his sister in Toronto.

Mrs. Dunsmore who has been on an extended visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bellamy returned to her home at Owen Sound on Monday and was accompanied by her sister Miss Leone.

Dr. Murray spent from Friday till Monday in Toronto with his wife who we are pleased to learn is improving under Massage treatment.

A number of the young people here attended the rink at Markdale on Monday evening.

Mr. Thomas McGirr visited friends in Guelph last week.

Miss Margaret Lindsay, we are pleased to learn is able to be around again after a severe illness.

Miss Jennie Meenagh returned to Durham Thursday last, after spending a few days at the home of her brother, Mr. Thomas Meenagh.

We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Alex. Bell, but hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hewitt were guests of the Timmins family Sunday. Messrs. Sam, Tom and Dave Ritchie have taken the contract of cutting wood, posts and logs in Mr. Wilson's swamp.

Miss Kate McNally is on an extended visit with friends in Owen Sound.

Mrs. McCracken and family, of Edgemoor, have the sincere sympathy of this community, in the death of her husband and the serious illness of her son James for whom there is little hope of recovery.

Mr. Stanley McNally who has been on the sick list recently, we are pleased to learn is on the mend.

"Not if it Costs Ten Dollars"

A bottle would I be without Polson's Nerviline, writes J. A. Ruth, a farmer living near Trenton, Ont. Nerviline is the best household liniment I know. We use it for stomach troubles, indigestion, headache and summer complaint. I know of nothing better to take in hot water to break up a cold, or to rub on for rheumatism or neuralgia. Every farmer should keep a few bottles of Nerviline handy and have smaller doctor bills. Large bottles 25c. at druggists.

Spring Bank.

Mr. John Whitmore disposed of a team of horses to Mr. D. McLean, of the mill, for the sum of $260.00.
