A LOAD of Durhamites attended the hockey match between Listowel and Mount Forest in the latter town on Monday night. The home team won, which is usually the case, the score being too one-sided to be interesting.

THE Election in the town announced last week as having been made by acclamation are still uncertain. It seems that a new clause in the statutes requires candidates to take the Declaration of Qualification before nine o'clock in the evening of the day following the nomination, and in the event of such declaration not having been the candidate is presumed to have resigned his candidature. None of the candidates named have taken the required declaration and we presume they are all disqualified from taking their seats as Councillors in consequence of their failure to have done so.

ON Tuesday last between twelve and one o'clock a ripple of excitement passed over the town on learning of the sudden death of Mr. John Moffat, of Palmerston, an old gentleman of sixty-nine, who dropped on the sidewalk and died in a very few minutes. The deceased came here last week to spend a few days with his sons John and William, and daughter Miss Emma. For some time his heart has been giving him trouble, and it was failure on the part of that organ that caused his sudden death. He fell near Stinson's Bakery and was soon carried to the residence of Mr. James Carson where medical aid was called in, but too late, as the vital spark had already fled. Interment will take place Friday afternoon next from the home of his son John where the remains are now lying. The sorrowing family have much sympathy in their sudden bereavement.

MR. ARCHIE BROWNE arrived in town last Thursday night from Hartney, Manitoba, with his bride who allowed him to change her name from Esther Graham to that of his own. They were married at her home in Hartney, Monday, Dec. 26th, at 6 a.m. and took the 8 o'clock train for Durham, reaching here as above stated. "Archie" and his winsome young lady are receiving congratulations from a host of friends who wish them happiness and prosperity. The groom is well known here, being an old Durham boy, and son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Browne. He was at one time a typo on THE CHRONICLE staff, but for the last three or four years he has been running a very successful barbering business in the progressive little town of Hartney. We didn't think that our young friend would have time to look after the "gals" there but we always knew that he had a weakness for the fair sex, and of course he couldn't keep from asking questions while among them and as a result he is now a beguiled man. Mr. and Mrs. Browne will make short visit with the former's parents here, then they will move along to other points before settling house-keeping. It is up to Archie now to turn the wedding up with a bang. THE CHRONICLE extends hearty congratulations to the happy young couple.

A VERY pretty wedding took place Wednesday, Dec. 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ard, Amabel, when their youngest daughter, May, was united in marriage to Mr. Robt. Watt, of town, Rev. Mr. Terryberry, Southampton, officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, entered the drawing room to the strains of Browne's Jubilee Wedding March, played by her cousin, Miss Sarah Ard, and took her place beneath an arch of evergreens. The bride looked very becoming in a travelling suit of navy blue cashmere trimmed with white silk applique, while the bridesmaid, Miss Nellie Watt, sister of the groom, wore a suit of blue camel hair cloth with white silk waist. The groom was supported by Mr. Milton Ard, brother of the bride. After the usual congratulations, the guests, about fifty in number, repaired to the dining-room where a sumptuous wedding repast was served. The many lovely presents, which were given to the bride, show the esteem in which she is held by her many friends.
