(Intended for last week.)

The death of Mrs. Wm. Barnhouse of Toronto, reported by us last week, was due to complications arising from Asthma, with which she had suffered for several years. The remains were brought here to the residence of Mr. Wm. Clayton from where the funeral took place to the public cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. An impressive service was held at the house which in the absence of the deceased's former pastor Rev. Wilson, was conducted by Rev. Thom, who gave an appropriate address from ps 116: 15. A fitting tribute was paid by the speaker to the memory of the deceased who had been a consistent member of the Methodist church for many years. Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar" was effectively rendered by Miss Zilla Trimble and Dr. Murray. The Pall bearers were Phillip Barnhouse, Andrew, John and Uri White, Toronto. Wm. Thompson, of Doblington and W. A. Armstrong this place. The casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings. The deceased was born nearly 49 years ago at Grafton, Northumberland County, and the past 22 years was a resident of this place. Her kindness of heart and very cheerful manner won for her a large circle of friends who sincerely mourn her departure and sympathize with her sorrowing husband, four sons and two daughters in their great loss.

On Thursday last when on his way to the post office John Clinton had the misfortune to fall on the icy street and break his thigh bone in two places. Dr. Carter was assisted by Dr. Ego, of Markdale, in reducing the fractures. Mr. Clinton has many friends to sympathize with him in his mishap, a very serious one for a gentleman of his advanced years.

The Baptist Sabbath School gave a free tea and entertainment in their church on Friday last. After an enjoyable social hour at the refreshment tables a short but pleasing programme was rendered by the members of the school, the pastor Rev. G. F. Hurlburt presiding. A prettily decorated Christmas Tree bore many gifts for the delighted children of the school.

The old Wright store and residence occupied by Mr. Ed Patterson has again changed hands, Mr. Geo. Boyd of Mt. Forest, father of Boyd brothers here, being the purchaser.

Mr. Walter Taylor has sold his farm, the old Trimble property, west of the village, to the Richardson brothers, Will and Robt. of this place and has purchased and taken possession of the Patterson livery. A new livery business has also been opened by Mr. W. G. Hacking of Toronto, whose outfit is at Mr. W. Crossley's stables.

Dr. Murray went to Toronto, on Thursday last and has since, we regret to learn, been laid up with a very sore throat. He expects to return home the last of this week accompanied by Mrs. Murray who is making satisfactory progress towards good health.

W. J. Ballamy, who has served several terms on the public school board was re-elected at the annual school meeting last week. Mr. W. Davis was chairman of the meeting and Mr. W. W. Trimble recorded the minutes.

Rev. Wilson is laid up with tonsillitis which developed acutely on Saturday night. On Sunday morning Mr. M. K. Richardson was called upon to take his work here and preached edifying sermons. Mr. J. A. Felstead preached at Meaford Road in the afternoon.

Rev. Wass, M. A. of this place, was the officiating clergyman at two interesting matrimonial events in Euphrasia last week. On Wednesday evening at the residence of Thos. Comack his eldest daughter Ethel A. became the bride of Mr. Wm. Martin of Artemesia. Mr. Fred Martin and Miss Olive Comack acted as groomsmen and bridesmaid. An inviting wedding repast was served after which the numerous guests enjoyed a pleasant social evening. The bride received many handsome presents. On Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. John Hunter there was given for life partner his adopted daughter Miss Emma O. Catepole to Mr. C. M. Parker of Drayton, Dakota, Mr. Culbertson and Miss Hurd were groomsmen and bridesmaid. A sumptuous wedding supper was served the large company spent the evening pleasantly in social intercourse. Many beautiful presents were bestowed upon the bride.

The municipal elections in Artemesia resulted in the election of Mr. J. A. Boyd for Reeve by a majority of 110 over Mr. McTavish. Councilors—R. Best and R. Purvis members last year. T. R. McKenzie who held a seat in 1903 and A. Carson a new man.

The Methodist Sabbath School anniversary on Monday evening was very successful, the proceeds being $60.00. Mr. M. K. Richardson presided and an excellent programme was rendered the large audience giving very hearty tokens of appreciation. Miss Wass, elocutionist, assisted in the programme and was highly pleasing in her selections.

Mr. F. G. Cole visited last week with his son at Camlachie.

Mr. R. T. McGirr and father Mr. A. McGirr of Meaford, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell a couple of days last week.

Miss Hattie Cole, of Toronto visited last week with her mother, Mrs. G. F. Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Osborn of Nottawo were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bellamy over New Year's.

Mr. George Mitchell and children Harold and Eva spent New Year's with the former's mother at Alliston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bunt attended the marriage of the former's sister at Woodbridge on Monday.

Miss Osborn, Milliner, has gone to her home at Orangeville for holidays.

SPEECH OF WALTER MILLS

Tribute To Clean and Upright Principles in Public Life.

The Chatham Planet prints in full the admirable speech of Walter Mills, son of the late Hon. David Mills and a Liberal, in favor of the candidature of P. H. Boyer, Conservative candidate in East Kent. After paying tribute to the worth of Mr. Boyer, Mr. Mills said:

"Go out, not content with having voted for cut and dried resolutions. Merely paper warfare avails nothing! Go out as men armed with drawn swords for battle! Determine to prosecute an honorable campaign! Follow your standard-bearer. Give him good cheer. And whether you win or lose, whether you are counted among the victors or the slain, be sure you are able to stand together after the sun has set and recount the achievements of the day with pride, and be able to walk erect in the consciousness that you have fought a fair and honorable fight, and the glory of that day will be just the same whether you have triumphed or whether you have fallen!

"An honorable defeat is preferable to a victory achieved by shameful methods. (Hear hear.)

JUSTICE AND FAIR PLAY.

"Justice and fair play are as important in an election as in transactions of business, and a constituency won by bribery, intimidation, promise of office, spurious voting and other scandalous methods is not a victory of which any party can afford to boast. It is no palliation of political wrongs that the other party has been guilty of questionable methods. I do not endorse, I do not assent to the doctrine that it is all right to beat the other party at its own game. It is neither good law nor good morality. It is immoral; it is unjust; it is dishonest; it is unworthy of our citizenship; it is treasonable!

"The true greatness of nations is in those qualities which constitute true grandeur in the individual. 'Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people.' This is good politics as well as good morality. Public men, leaders in the various walks of life, by their public acts, public utterances and professed principles stamp their impress upon the public mind, and mould the character of the people. 'Many statesmen,' said the late Canon Farrar, have been raised up among us whose great example is the heritage of the world. Ought we not to be thankful for these great men, for their learning, for their dignity, for their eloquence, for their inflexible determination, to the utmost of their power, to be just and fair not.

"Let us emulate the example of those great men in what was lofty, pure and good. It is not, what profession does a man follow, nor, in what occupation do we find him? But is he an honest, loyal intelligent citizen fit for the duties of public life? (Cheers.)

TRUE GRANDEUR OF NATIONS.

"The true greatness of a nation cannot be in the triumphs of the intellect alone, said Sumner, 'literature and art may widen the sphere of its influence. They may adorn it. But they are in their nature but accessories. The true grandeur of humanity is in moral elevation, sustained, enlightened, and decorated by the intellect of man. The truest tokens of this grandeur in a state are the diffusion of the greatest number, and that passionless, God-like justice, which controls the relations of the state to other states, and to all the people who are committed to its charge.'

REASON No. 3.
WHY YOU SHOULD USE
Red Rose Tea

Because of its Flavor.

Why do you buy certain varieties of fruit and vegetables? Is it not because you like the flavor of some better than others?

Flavor is the special quality which stamps one brand of food product as superior to another, and is the quality that always commands the highest price.

The delicate, fragrant flavor of Red Rose Tea is the result of scientific study and methods on the tea plantations, and in the tea testing and blending rooms.

It has what might be called a fruity taste—a rich, ripe flavor that is very pleasing to the palate—a taste you won't forget.

The Blue Label is recommended.

T. H. ESTABROOKS, St. John, N.B.

BRANCHES: TORONTO, WINNIPEG.

"The late Dean of Canterbury, who was no less a statesman than a great ecclesiastic, speaking to the subject of Christian statesmanship, said, 'Let none of us be so vulgarly absorbed by our shops and our families by our private interests and selfish domesticities, as to think that parliaments and laws make small difference to us. Their functions are so far reaching that there is not a home or hearth in the land which is not happier or more dismal by their influence. Not only does the safety of nations, the peace of churches, the prosperity of commerce depend on them, but even no little of the security, the order, the happiness of our individual lives. When some great social iniquity has entrenched itself in the citadel of power, it is theirs to drive the battering ram against its walls. By fearless depression of wrong, by wide encouragement of right, by high moral influence, by strong sanitary legislation, it is theirs to secure righteousness of our land, and the health of our people'—Applause.

WORTHY OF PUBLIC TRUST.

"I love my friend and appreciate his worth. I know him to be worthy of high public trust, and, in all respects, fitted for the office for which you have chosen him a candidate.—(Loud and prolonged cheering)

"He is our fellow citizen; our fellow citizen well-known, respected, admired and worthy our commendation, I turn to him and I say, 'Be of good courage your chances are good!' I say to you, Cheer him on, work for him and make his chances certain! Cheer him on! We want to see good men in high places! Take courage, do not lose faith in man's honor because some men have been dishonorable! Cheer him on! And help a good and fit man to this exalted office that he may use his powers for the safety of the state of our common good. Men of any party I say, strive to purify the streams of public life by electing men strangers to the corrupt and corrupting influences that have appalled us in these latter days, that have well nigh sapped us of confidence in the honor of parties, and tarnished the good name of our country! Then shall we make public life laudable ambition for the wise and the good. Then shall we make our country great; then shall we make history of which our children may be proud; and so spread a chastened and chastening influence abroad among the nations of the earth for the betterment of all mankind and the glory of our common country!"—(Prolonged applause.)

Sacketts Corners.

Well Mr. Editor Christmas is past once more and we wish you a happy and prosperous New Year.

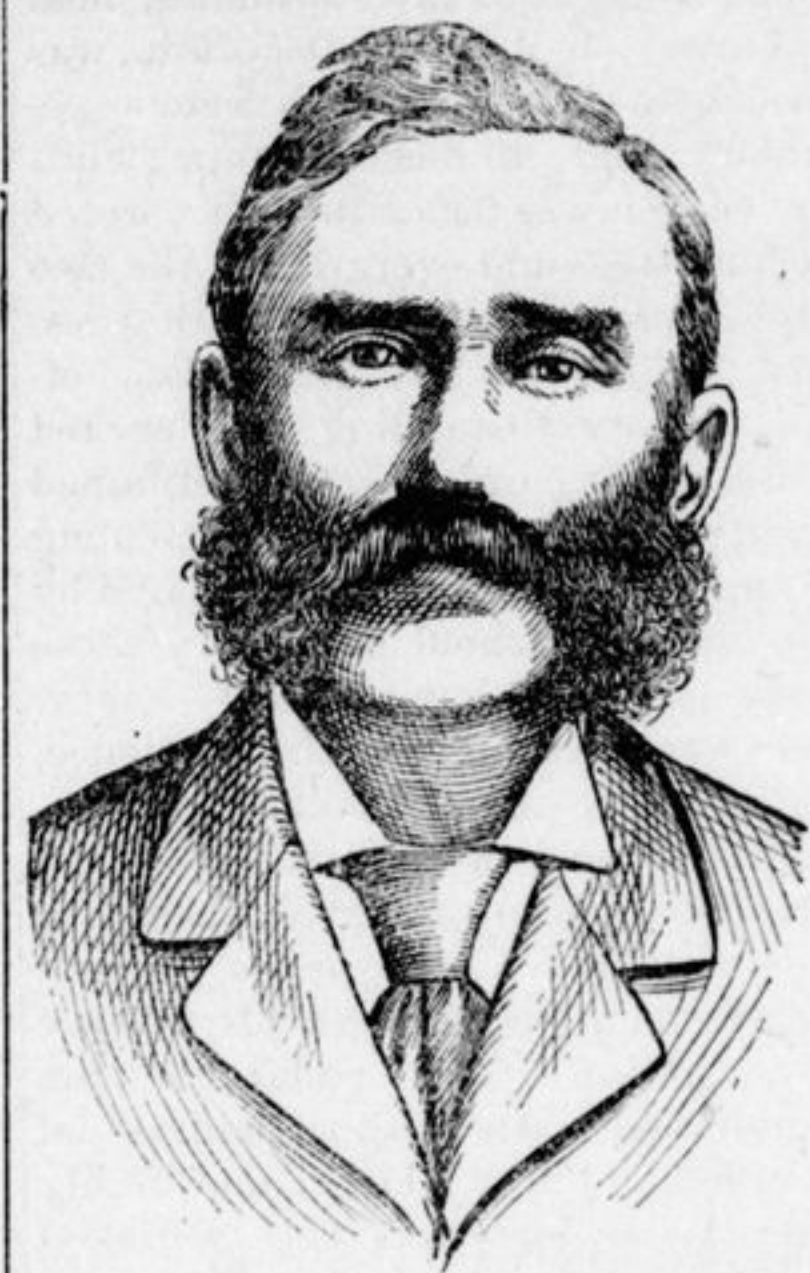

Mr. Donald and John McMillen, of Welwood are visiting their friends here and renewing acquaintances around the corner. They both look well, and we were pleased to meet them.

Mr. Thomas Hargrave formerly of Swinton Park, now of Weyburn is home at present. It is six years since Mr. Hargrave paid his friends a visit but money would not induce him to live in this country.

A pleasant time was spent at Mr. Hugh McMillen's in honor of his brother, from Welwood, when friends and acquaintance were invited and a general good time was indulged in.

Miss Carrie Paris is home again after taking a trip to New Ontario. Miss Paris speaks very much in favor of that country.

GENTLEMEN,— I respectfully request your vote and influence at the approaching Provincial Election on 25th of January, 1905.

Should you honor me by electing me as your representative, I will faithfully do all that I can to promote the best interests of our Riding, and the welfare of our Province, by supporting only such legislation as will tend to honest, efficient and economical administration of Provincial affairs.

Believing that the will of the people should be faithfully respected, I will oppose and strenuously condemn all electoral corruption; convinced that majorities must rule, I will make it a first rule of my conduct to see that they are honest majorities.

Trusting that I may be honored by your support, and wishing you a happy and prosperous New Year, I am, Yours very sincerely,
