OBITUARY.

MRS. THOMAS BINNIE.

On December 21st 1904 there passed away one of the old settlers of this county, Mrs. Thomas Binnie of this town at the age of 78 years and 4 months. Mrs. Binnie (Isabella Cranston) was born near Kelso Roxburghshire, Scotland, in the year 1826, and lived in that neighborhood until 1849 when she was married to Thomas Binnie and resided near Jedburgh, till 1854 and in Northumberland England until 1861 when they and their family emigrated to Canada and settled down on the old homestead in Glenelg, in June of that year where she lived until nearly two years ago, when she and her son moved to Durham. During all these 43 years she had her full share of work. In the early years besides the regular work is generally considered to belong to a woman's department on a farm, she often assisted in clearing the land, as well as in other departments of farm work and was always in splendid health until about two years ago. Mr. Binnie died nearly twelve years ago, and since then Mrs. Binnie lived with her son Alex. till she died.

In religion she was a Presbyterian, and while living in Northumberland travelled on foot nine miles to the Free church at Morebattle. In this county she was a member of the Congregation of the Durham Line, and when that was dissolved became a member of the church in Durham.

Mrs. Binnie was always ready to assist the needy and sympathize with the afflicted and in many a home where sickness fell, she was found as a ministering angel there, and many there are who lovingly remember her gentle touch and motherly advice in time of trouble. Of her brothers and sisters two are still living, Janet in Jedburgh Scotland and Adam, who is well known in this county, in North Dakota. She had a family of nine, four boys and five girls, who all live to mourn her loss, George in Glenelg Alex. in town, Thomas in British Columbia, James in Tweed Ontario, Mrs. W. L. Dixon and Mrs. Weir, in Agrement, Mrs. T. McGirr, Mrs. D. Edge and Mrs. J. Bell in Glenelg.

W. A. ANDERSON.

We regret very much indeed to chronicle the death of Mr. W. A. Anderson, of Crawford, which took place on Tuesday, the 27th of Dec 1904. The deceased gentleman, whom we always highly respected, was born in Halton county, about fifty years ago, and since the age of four years, he has been a resident of the township of Bentinck. About nineteen years ago, he was married to Miss Boyce, who, with five children, mourns the loss of a devoted, loving and Christian husband. Only a few weeks previously, we announced the death of their little daughter, Ruby, and in the second affliction in a short period, the sorrowing family has the sincere sympathy of all who knew them. For the past three or four years, Mr. Anderson was almost an invalid, growing constantly weaker, on account of some disease of the nerves, apparently, not well understood. He was a Methodist in religion, and much devoted to the welfare of the church. In politics he was a moderate Conservative, but advocated what he considered the best moral measures. He was a member of the Independent Order of Foresters through which society he leaves some provision for his family, as well as other property accumulated by his industry. A Memorial service was held in Crawford church the Sunday following his death.

JAMES PETER, SR.

One after another, the old pioneers are passing away. In the early part of last week, the death summons came to Mr. James Peter, of Normanby, an old and respected resident of the township for many, many years.

The deceased was born in Aberdeenshire, Scotland, July 3rd 1819. At the age of two years, he moved with his parents to Caracas, Venezuela, in South America, with a number of British colonists, who intended to make their home there. Not satisfied with the country and climate however, they all left in the course of a couple of years, and came to Ontario, settling in the vicinity of Guelph, then, almost a wilderness, and destitute of most of the educational and social advantages we can boast of nowadays. After remaining there about twenty-two years, the subject of this sketch came to this county, to look for land, and selected the farm near Orchardville, on which he settled, and remained, till the time of his death. He was married, about the time he moved here, to Miss Isabella McInnes, who died about thirty years ago, leaving a family of ten children, four of whom survive, namely, George, James, Mrs. James McIvride, and Mrs. Andrew McIvride.

Through industry and perseverance the deceased, and young, rising family, hewed out a comfortable home. Mr. Peter was a staunch member of the Presbyterian church, which he attended regularly, till a bout five years ago, when infirmities and the effect of a paralytic stroke forced him to be absent. In politics, he was always a Liberal, of the old school. A few days before he died, he had another paralytic stroke, from which he died, on the 5th inst.

Of all the colonizing party, only a single survivor remains, in the person of Mrs. Blyth, of Marden, mother of the late John Blyth, who represented this constituency in the Local Legislature, some years ago.

When the deceased came to Guelph there was no Guelph, and when he came to Normanby, there was no Durham. The Garafraxa road was just being made, and as the country was an almost unbroken wilderness, he had many an encounter with the hardships of pioneer life, as well as encounters with the denizens of the forest, one of which was very exciting, with a huge bear he wounded in a hunting excursion. The animal fell, and appeared dead, till Mr Peter came close up, and found him very much alive, and ready for a fight with him and the dog. Though successful, Mr. Peter, carried with him, to his grave, the marks of the encounter.

Stomach Troubles.

A disordered stomach may cause no end of trouble. When the stomach fails to perform its functions the bowels become deranged, the liver and kidneys congested, causing numerous diseases, the most fatal of which are painless and therefore the more to be dreaded. The important thing is to restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition, and for this purpose no better preparation can be used than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by H. Parker.—1
