We have learned of the death of Mr. Henry Dennet, of Egremont, on Sunday last. From an item in Corner Concerns, we presume it was the result of inflammatory rheumatism.

The Durham Electric Lights, and the Durham Review, are rivaling each other for lack of luminosity. The press artists are showering on both, their strongest anathemas, but the Review is still in the lead, and will win the race if his wind holds out.

LADIES look younger, which is the desire of one and all. Take the trouble of visiting Prof. Douenwend's private show rooms, in the Middaugh House, Wednesday, Feb. 8th, and see the beautiful inventions in styles of Human Hair coverings, Wigs, Bangs, Switches, etc., and inspect his new patent structure. One day only.

A NUMBER of our townsmen took in the carnival at Markdale last Friday evening. Bert Moore and "Kelly" Swallow captured 1st and 2nd prizes in the free for all race, while Will Saunders took the first in the boys' race. Markdale didn't appear to be in it, as their own boys seemed a little scary to enter.

ANNIVERSARY services will be held in the Baptist church next Sunday at 11 a. m., 2.30 p. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. J. O'Neill, pastor of the Paisley Baptist Church, will be the preacher for the occasion. Special music will be given by the Choir. On Monday following at 10 o'clock the Rev. J. O'Neill will deliver his famous and humorous lecture, "Around the Camp Fire." For further particulars see bills.

We are pleased to acknowledge receipt of subscription from Mrs. J. H. Martin, of Blaine, Washington. She enjoys the weekly visit of THE CHRONICLE, and expresses much pleasure in seeing in its pages the familiar face of Mr. John McKechnie, whom she wishes success in the present campaign. There are no doubt hundreds of others who admire Mr. McKechnie, but many of whom will not support him, though no fault of his, however.

THROUGH ignorance of the circumstances we made a mistake last week in saying that Miss McFadden was married to Mr. Davis. We regret that the mistake should have been made, but it was made solely through wrong information. The lucky groom was a Mr. Wilson, of Boothville, and knowing the young lady we can easily congratulate him on his good sense in making a wise choice. Our Corner correspondence gives a few particulars of the marriage in his budget this week.

INFORMATION was given last week of the death of Mrs. Peter Lenahan, of Mildmay, mother of Messrs. Frank and James Lenahan of this town. As we had no intimation of the sad bereavement of our fellow citizens till after the paper was issued we were unable to make mention of it at the time. The deceased, who died on the 12th inst., was a native of Roscommon, Ireland, and immigrated to this country about a quarter of a century ago. Besides the two sons already mentioned she leaves as mourners two sons in Mildmay, two in Rochester, and one daughter. She was sixty-five years of age.

THE annual meeting of the Public Library will be held in the Reading room on Saturday night next, Jan. 28, at 8 o'clock. All members are respectfully requested to be present.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE meetings will be held in Hanover and Durham on Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 15th, and 16th, respectively. The speakers will be Mr. W. F. Kydd; Simcoe, and G. Barbour, Cross Hill.

THE remains of the late George Adlam will be taken to Trinity Church, Durham, at 2 p. m. Sunday, and after a short memorial service, to Durham Cemetery for interment. The funeral will be in charge of the Orangemen.

OYSTER SUPPER.—The brethren of the L. O. F., Court No. 111, intend giving an oyster supper at the Knapp House, on Tuesday evening, Jan. 31st. Members are respectfully requested to meet at their Court Room, at eight o'clock in the evening.

MT. FOREST Business College is advertised elsewhere in this paper. It is a young institution, but we understand it is doing excellent work under the management of Mr. W. T. Clancy the Principal. Some excellent testimonials are already in the hands of the College.

HOUSE FOR SALE.—A comfortable house on George street is offered for sale in this issue. As the owner, Miss Hutton, is going west in about three weeks the property will be sold cheap to a quick purchaser. This is an opportunity that may not soon come again.

DR. AND MRS. MACDONALD were in Fergus, Saturday. The Dr. was there professionally to perform an operation on a little two year old child of Mrs. Sutherland's. We do not understand the nature of the trouble, more than to say it is some affection of the glands which had to be removed. The child is doing well.

SEVERAL of our local "Grits" took in the McKechnie-Treax joint meeting in Hanover Friday evening, and report a good time. On the road home it is said, one of the "rooters" made an open air "spiel" that was quite entertaining to the chilly audience who were waiting for harness repairs by the roadside.

GENTLEMEN who are bald, or have thin hair, should call on Prof. Dorenwend, at the Middaugh House, on Wednesday, Feb 8th., and see his wonderful devices in Toupees, and Wigs, worn on over 75,000 heads. Explanation and demonstration free. Private apartments at Hotel. Don't fail to see his new invention, patented all over the world. Remember! For one day, only.

WE regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Henry Parker, which occurred on Wednesday morning, the 25th. inst. For some time she has been ailing from what turned out to be cancer of the stomach, according to information we have received. We knew very few particulars of the life of the deceased lady, more than to feel from our own slight personal acquaintance, that she was an estimable woman, of high social, moral, and intellectual qualities. Interment takes place to-morrow, Friday, to Trinity Church Cemetery, after first holding service in the church. We have much sympathy with Mr. Parker in his loneliness, and trust he may be supported by the Invisible Hand, in his severe affliction.

MRS. W. J. IRWIN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shaw, of this town, left Saturday morning for Seaforth, where she will remain a few weeks prior to going to Hamilton to join her husband there.

MR. AND MRS. MCCOSKERY have returned to Durham, after their honeymoon trip since their marriage a few weeks ago. They intend to go to Winnipeg, shortly, where they will take up their home.

MESSERS ALBERT and Harry Stewart of Flesherton, gave us a call last week. They were old pupils of Ye Editor, and it is needless to say they are good boys because of the use they made of good advice received under our instruction. Harry and his handsome partner were on their way to St. Paul, near Stratford, where they now live.

CONSERVATIVES SWEEP THE PROVINCE

Four Cabinet Ministers Buried In The Avalanche. Uncertainty Regarding Ross

Rah for Jamieson.

Hossack's Pills are too strong for Ross.

Dr. Jamieson's majority was over 400. Detailed statement next week.

It was an avalanche.

What about the man, the boy, the doctor and the load of hay.

Let us see. Didn't somebody say that Ramage was a false political prophet? What was he doing anyway? Lying, or simply whistling to keep his courage up?

Wednesday was a cold day—for Ross.

When Conservative victories began to pour in, the Review man sneaked off, as guilty looking as a dog that had been caught sucking eggs.

Where was the up-town prophet Wednesday night? At the Dominion Election he was on the platform as big as a house, and we stayed with him till the last dog was hung. It made us kind of lonesome last night when he didn't turn up at all.

Without any reflection on Mr. McKechnie, we shall just ask the Review to tell us what Cabinet position he is going to get in the Ross Government.

Ramage, Ross, Rottenness, and Rossbacks were big factors in the defeat of Mr. McKechnie.

Gibson, Dryden Latchford, Evan-turel, and probably Ross, Ministers of the Cabinet, are amongst the fallen.

A microscopic search all over the town has failed to find the Review man this morning.

Lucas, in Centre Grey had over 1000 majority against Donald Gillies, of Clarksburg.

MacKay was elected in North Grey.

Whitney may have downed hot Scotch, but the hot Scotch didn't down Whitney.

The Whitney majority will likely run to about 40. It is 40 at time of writing with west Middlesex conceded to Ross by a very small majority. This will be a good working majority; in fact it is too many in a total of 98 members. The indignation of the people however, is well shown in the vote of yesterday. The crime deserves the punishment and it is better to be a severe one. It must not be forgotten that the vote does not show the numerical strength of the Conservatives in Ontario. Thousands of honest Liberals have cast their ballots as a protest against corruption, for after all, corruption was the great issue against the defeated government. Moreover the Independents in politics are yearly increasing and these with the honest electors on both sides may well be looked to as the salvation of the country. Now that the Conservatives are in a majority in Ontario it would be well for them to know from the start that their tenure of office depends upon their purity of administration. The Liberals and Independents who helped to put them in yesterday will have the same power in helping to put them out four years hence.
