Corner Concerns.

(Intended for last week.)
Miss Bella Allan spent Saturday and Sunday pleasantly with Miss Kathleen Grant of Durham.

Last Tuesday about twenty-five neighbors turned out and cut Mrs. Dennett enough wool to last her for the winter.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Matthews watched anxiously over their little daughter who was laid low with pneumonia. We hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

Miss Aggie Sirrs felt somewhat indisposed last week. No doubt a lengthy anxious attendance on her sister, Mrs. Carson, was somewhat responsible for her illness. We hope soon to hear of both being restored to perfect health.

The Orangemen are off to a district meeting in Mount Forest to-day, Tuesday.

A very pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hopkins last Friday night by a large gathering of their young friends. So pleasantly was the time spent in games, music and dancing that they kept up the enjoyment till well up in the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins left this Tuesday for their home in Kamloops, B. C. They will spend a few days with friends in Toronto and Ottawa on their way.

The mill yard and premises have a very businesslike appearance at present. The proprietor, Mr. McLean, has had a gang of between 25 and 30 men at work all winter in his woods. The surrounding country find it to their advantage to dispose of their timber there.

Mr. Andrew Picken had a valuable horse die last week from a wound made by a stick piercing its body while working in the woods.

Miss Bella Allan had a pleasant companion during election week in the person of Miss Rice, of Fairburn. A handsome jolly girl, who can give sufficient bawler from a Grit standpoint, to make her very entertaining company. But of course women's politics can never be taken seriously. They are much like their name—liable to change without notice.

Mr. Noble McCallum, of Manitoba, and Miss McCallum, of McKillop, spent the forepart of last week with their cousins, Jas. Tucker's.

Mr. Richard Morrison is building a large brick house this year. Mr. Geo. Moore has the contract for the carpenter work, but the mason work, we presume, is not let yet.

A week ago Monday morning this neighborhood was startled with sudden surprise on learning of the death of Mr. Henry Dennett who had been ill but a few days with inflammatory rheumatism which had developed into spinal meningitis. Deceased was fifty-three years and nine months of age. He was born and lived ever since on the farm where died, it being the old homestead where eight of a family was raised—seven sons and one daughter. On arriving at manhood he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Thompson, of Turnberry, and as a result of the union five daughters are left with a widowed mother to mourn the loss of a kind father and husband. One son died in infancy. He was a Methodist in religion and a member of the Varney L. O. L. No. 689. His pastor, Rev. Mr. Masson, preached the funeral sermon in the church and performed the duties at the graveside. The Orange brethren also performed their last sad rites to their departed brother. Messrs. Elijah Dennett, of Markdale and Thompson, of Turnberry, were in attendance at the funeral.

Two Prominent Canadian Insurance Men Praise Psychine

Throat Catarrh
Leger L. Hardy, St. Bazile de Portneuf, P. Q., Representative of The Liverpool, London, and Globe Insurance Company, writes as follows: "I suffered for two years with Throat Catarrh and an obstinate cough. Psychine had a splendid effect in my case. I obtained the permanent cure I had so long and so anxiously desired, and I shall do all in my power to increase the popularity for Dr. Slocum Remedies in this vicinity."

STOMACH TROUBLE.
"I suffered much with indigestion and dyspepsia, and tried so many things to cure me without relief that I made up my mind my case was hopeless. I tried Psychine, and in a few weeks I was entirely rid of stomach trouble."—Arthur Tennyson, 88 London street, Toronto.

Psychine is pronounced Si-keen
For sale by all druggists at $1.00 a bottle. For further advice and information, write Dr. Slocum, Limited, 179 King street west, Toronto, Canada.
