with Many Eyes.

"My face is my fortune," said a pretty maid in the old English ballads. She had proper proportion of the value of a face in the matrimonial market. Eyes make or mar a face, the other features never so comely, a pair of eyes, red, inflamed or watering eyes will spoil all. Properly adjusted will cure most of these. Our qualifications for eye examination are the most thorough and modern, our choice of and taste for fitting unexcelled.

THE cutter that up-set near Jackson's corner in upper town Monday evening had only four occupants in it when the frisky young colt of twenty-five winters did the trick and started for lower town at a lively clip. The two young men with the other "two" are now thinking seriously over the old adage, "two is company, three is a crowd, and four in a cutter is not allowed."

It is with regret we announce the prolonged illness of Mr. Jas. Redford, who has been forced, for several weeks past, to abandon his work as book-keeper in the furniture factory. We hope to see him progress rapidly with the approach of spring. We understand that he has resigned his position, and that Mr. Koch, one of the recently appointed teachers in the school, here, has been engaged to fill the vacancy. To fill Mr. Koch's place in the school, we are told the trustees have made a liberal offer to Miss Davy who taught here a couple of years ago.

WE are unable to give expression to the sorrow we feel for Inspector Burgess, of Owen Sound in the sad bereavement through which he is now passing on account of the loss of his beloved wife, who was killed Monday evening last in a run-away accident in Owen Sound. Mr. Burgess, we understand, was away at the time, and at time of writing we are not in possession of the full particulars. A message was received Monday night by Inspector Campbell, who went at once to Owen Sound. Though only very slightly acquainted with the deceased lady, we admired her for her noble qualities and genial disposition. To Mr. Burgess and the bereaved family we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

WE referred briefly last week to the accident that befel Mr. Archie McLean of Bentinck, west of the Rocky. In leading out a young horse the animal became fractious, and in some way broke the young man's leg. On Wednesday last we went out to the home of his father with Dr. Hutton, and while he was engaged in dressing the fractured limb we had a pleasant interview with the young man's father who has been a resident of this township since 1852. Though he claims not to have much English, he speaks the language quite readily and we would like to have him tell us some of the things he saw in the early days of Bentinck. This was our first trip out of town during the winter and the roads are nothing to brag about. After an hour's genuine hospitality and a good supper we came home "full" leaving the patient much more comfortable on account of our visit.

THE Durham Curlers went to Walkerton on Monday afternoon and defeated the team of that town by 32 points. Three rinks were played. Our boys pronounce the Walkerton's to be the finest bunch of fellows in the country, and are loud in their praise of the treatment afforded them. We haven't been able to obtain the official score, but Durham "licked," anyway.

MR. DUNCAN McLEAN was defeated in the last election for County Commissioner, but he hasn't taken it to heart very much. Whether he thought he was doing something desperate or not we don't know, but at any rate he has captured a good, cheery wife in the person of Miss McArthur. She's a Baptist and "spokes" the Gaelic, so that will suit Duncan all right.

WE congratulate Dan McDonald who had the courage to enter the band of benedicts. On Wednesday evening of last week in Dr. Jamieson's parlor he took the hand of Miss Flora MacKenzie and the nuptial knot was well and truly tied by their pastor, Mr. Newton. The whole affair was done quietly, few indeed suspecting that Dan was in love or that the lively young lady of his choice would fix her fancies on a fickle man. They're married now, however, and we take much pleasure in tendering our heartiest congratulations.

WE regret to announce the death of Mr. Robert MacFarlane. For some few weeks he has been ailing but no immediate danger was anticipated, though his troubles were of a somewhat complicated nature. The deceased was a native of Paisley, Scotland, where he was born, we imagine, over seventy years ago. When about ten years of age he came to this country, and spent his boyhood, and early manhood days, in the vicinity of Brantford and Stratford. About 1863 he came to this town and engaged for some time with A. & A. Cochrane, who were then carrying on a manufacturing business. Subsequently, the deceased started up town in the wagon making business, which he carried on successfully till some thirteen or fourteen years ago. He was pre-deceased by his wife just nine years and three days. There remain four sons, George of Glencoe, David, of Caledon, Robt., of this town, and Archie, of Brussels; also two daughters, Mrs. J. P. Hunter and Mrs. A. H. Jackson. Mr. MacFarlane is a member of the Masonic body here, being one of the charter members when the Lodge was first formed. He was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, and in politics he always upheld Liberal principles. He served several terms as a member of the town council, and as an administrator of public affairs he was exceedingly careful of the exercise of his powers. Interment takes place this Wednesday afternoon to Durham Cemetery.
