

HERE AND THERE

Miss Mulvell, a Chicago heiress, was murdered by Policeman Herman of that city, whose love she had refused. Herman afterwards committed suicide by shooting, and is said to have belonged to a Toronto family of that name.

Fears are entertained of a general strike of the smelters of British Columbia. They are dissatisfied with the defeat of the eight-hour day Bill.

A Winnipegger named Martin Curley has been arrested in Crookston, Minn., for hugging.

One man was killed and from fifty to sixty were more or less hurt in a head on collision on the Washington Alexandria & Mount Vernon Ry., at Spring Park Station, Va.

The Supreme Court has given judgment sustaining the C. P. R.'s contention in regard to the right of the municipalities to impose taxation on the company's lands in Manitoba and the Northwest.

Councillor Frank Cook, of Midland, has been disqualified and unseated by a judgment of the Master-in-Chambers.

Four hundred and sixty-five West Ham, Eng. families have applied for emigration to Canada. Only 220 families can be sent, and the first batch leaves London on March 15th.

Many private bills are to be considered by the Legislature at the coming session. The applications are more numerous than usual.

John Edgar was sentenced to two years in the Central Prison for bigamy.

The Hamburg-American Line has decided to reduce the price of steer age passage between Hamburg to Halifax from 160 to 150 marks, in order to divert the stream of emigration to Canada rather than to the United States.

A party of thirty sent by the East End Emigrant's Society of London, and bound for Toronto and other Ontario points, will arrive at Halifax by the mail steamer Bavarian.

Andrew Seiffred, a Weisenburg blacksmith, was found dead in his cutter at the school door, where he had gone for his children. Heart failure was the cause.

The Brink of Montreal office at Regina was burned recently. The manager and his family had a close call, escaping in their night clothes.

Durham, of the united counties of Northumberland and Durham, is after a divorce. They claim an unequal and unjust taxation.

There is a story of an Illinois gentleman who evolved a most brilliant scheme for advertising his magnificent bargains. Procuring, through the boys of his town, an enormous number of cats, he placarded them with his advertisements and turned them adrift in the streets. The result can not be said to have justified his expectations. Instead of going into the homes of the town, the cats took to the back alleys, and the Humane officer took the enterprising farmer before the Police Judge, who imposed a fine upon him in restraint of further like exhibitions of advertising genius. It is not by trick advertising the merchant invites the customer to an inspection and purchase of his wares, but by the news paper that goes into the homes, giving the news of the day, as it should be given, omitting nothing that is news and commenting on the news in a spirit of fairness. Neither the public servant nor the dealer in goods that will not stand the test of public judgment likes the newspaper that goes into the home—back alley advertising suits them better. But it is the advertising in the home news paper that brings together the dealer and the customer, and the public servant in line with his duty believes in the home newspaper and profits accordingly.

The Country Editor.

The Stork disappears and we look into the cradle and behold a male child. After running the gauntlet of the measles, mumps and chicken-pox, he enters school. At the age of ten he is redheaded, freckle faced, and the terror of the neighborhood. At twelve he is an apprentice in a printing office. At 18 he has acquired two cases of long primer, and an Army press, and is editor of a country newspaper. At twenty he is married. At thirty he is baldheaded, stoop shouldered, and the father of a large family. At thirty-five he is a corpse in a cheap pine coffin and is 500 delinquent subscribers file past his bier for the last look, they are heard to say: "He was a good fellow but he couldn't save his money."

REASON No 9 WHY YOU SHOULD USE Red Rose Tea

Because it is accepted as a standard of quality. Red Rose Tea can be found in the sample room of nearly every tea firm in Canada. It is used as a standard of quality by which they judge their own teas. A large London, Eng. Tea firm recently asked their correspondents in Montreal to send them samples of the best brand of tea sold in this country—they sent Red Rose. This is a very high tribute to Red Rose Tea. If you will try the tea you will feel like endorsing this tribute.

GOLDWIN SMITH'S VIEW.

Thinks That Liberal Party Will Not Stand by Laurier.

Goldwin Smith when asked yesterday for his views on the separate school clause of the Laurier autonomy bill, said: "We continue to call them separate schools here, but they are really Roman Catholic schools. Other Churches as far as I know have not asked for them. What the proposal amounts to is that the common wealth shall educationally recognize, subsidize and propagate the Roman Catholic religion. The question is whether we shall break through the principle of severance of church and state authorized by the clergy reserves."

When asked if the Liberal party could afford to stand by Sir Wilfrid Laurier he said: "I think they can hardly afford to do it. I should expect, seeing what he has before him, and having done all that he could for his co-religionist, he would be inclined to gracefully withdraw."

It was time that the principle of the severance of church and state was asserted in the house as far as the country was concerned. It had been asserted regarding the clergy reserves. He considered Sir Wilfrid Laurier's contrast between Canada and the United States as most unfortunate. If a contrast was made, he said, "it should have been made with the New England and not with the Western States."

Fifteen Million Candlepower.

St. Catherine's lighthouse, Isle of Wight, has just been fitted with a flashlight which is estimated to be equal to 15,000,000 candlepower, and on nights when the atmosphere is favorable its beam probably is visible from the French coast. The new light is immensely more powerful than the old one, which was of about 3,000,000 c p.—London Globe.

A Healthy Stomach is the Basis of All Strength

Catarrh of the Stomach, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Promptly Cured with

PSYCHINE (PRONOUNCED SI-KEEN)

Mrs. Beckstedt, Chesterville, Ontario, writes:

Some years ago I was greatly troubled with indigestion and catarrh of the stomach (the after effects of influenza), was very weak and greatly run down generally. The use of Psychine brought a marked improvement so that no doubt remained in my mind as to the value of the treatment. Psychine is the greatest of digestants. It assists the gastric juices and ferments in their digestion of the food, cleanses the mucous membrane of the stomach, and has also an invigorating and beneficial effect on the muscles and nerves of the stomach. PSYCHINE rids the stomach of all inflammation, commonly called Catarrh of the Stomach or Dyspepsia.

Psychine is pronounced Si-keen For sale by all druggists. For further advice and information write Dr. Slocum, Limited, 179 King street west, Toronto, Can.

Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Not For Him.

He liked to beat men in a fight, To beat out in a trade, To beat most everything in sight And every game he played. He liked to beat a bill for drinks, To beat the races too, But as for heating out the kinks Of carpet—he was through.

PASTURE CROPS.

The area of cleared land devoted to pasture in Ontario amounts to nearly three million acres, and that devoted to hay and clover to about two and one-half million acres annually. A large number of varieties of grasses and clovers have been grown in the Experimental Department of the Ontario Agricultural College, both singly and in combination, for pasture and for hay. The mixture of seed now used for the production of pasture for a two years' stand in the short rotation on the College farm is as follows: Red Clover, 7 lbs.; Alsike Clover, 2 lbs.; Timothy, 4 lbs.; and Orchard Grass, 5 lbs., making a total of 16 lbs. per acre. This mixture can also be used for hay, but when the chief aim is the production of hay, the Orchard Grass is not included and only 15 lbs. of seed per acre are sown.

Farmers frequently write in the spring of the year, stating that through lack of germination of the grass and clover seed, the killing of the plants by the hot dry weather of the summer, or the heaving of the clover in the early spring, the pasture crop is likely to be deficient in the coming season, and asking what they can sow in the spring of the year that will furnish the best pasture in the same season. In each of four years we conducted an experiment in testing fourteen different kinds of crops for the production of pasture in the same season in which the seed was sown. As a result of these experiments we find that we can get better returns from a combination of varieties than from any one variety sown by itself. The following mixture, when sown in the spring, is likely to be ready for use at about six weeks after the seed is sown and to give good satisfaction in furnishing pasture throughout the summer: Oats, one and one-half bushels; Early Amber Sugar Cane, thirty pounds; and Common Red Clover, seven pounds; thus making a total of eighty-eight pounds of seed per acre.

Sometimes a farm contains a considerable amount of comparatively rough land, or fields which lie at a long distance from the buildings, and the owner is anxious to use a mixture of grasses and clovers which will make a permanent pasture. From twenty years' results in testing different varieties of grasses and clovers, both singly and in combination, we would suggest the following mixture for permanent pasture on an average soil: Orchard grass, 4 lbs.; Meadow Fescue, 4 lbs.; Tall Oat Grass, 3 lbs.; Timothy, 2 lbs.; Meadow Foxtail, 2 lbs.; Lucerne, 5 lbs.; Alsike Clover, 2 lbs., and white Clover, 2 lbs.; thus making a total of 24 pounds of seed per acre. Some of these varieties produce grass very early in the spring, while others are later and furnish a good bite during the hot dry weather which occurs frequently in the months of July and August. The seed can be sown in early spring either with or without a grain crop. Such a mixture as this, when once well established on suitable land, should form a pasture abundant in growth, excellent in quality, and permanent in character.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Run of Luck.

"He asked three different girls to marry him," "And they all refused?" "Yes," "Some men are born lucky."

Glenmont.

Miss Minnie Halpenny, of Durham, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents here.

Mrs. Fred Hargrave paid a visit to Mrs. Isaac Hooper one day lately.

Mrs. Thos. McGirr, president of the Women's Institute of S. Grey, visited friends here last week and also attended the Women's Institute meeting at Dromore on Friday where a branch Institute was organized with Mrs. John Renton as president.

We are sorry to say that Master John Tucker has been quite ill for over a week, but hope he may soon recover.

Last week, while helping to dice the roads, Mr. Geo. Hargrave had the misfortune to be kicked on the head by one of Mr. Weir's horses, which took fright at a dog, while being unhitched. The wound, however, was not very serious and is healing nicely.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. John Wilson, of Dromore, is so poorly. He went to Toronto a week ago and is now in the hospital where an operation has been performed on his throat.

Before The Days of Geography.

A coloured Virginia preacher announced one Sunday morning: "Breddern an' sistern, I shall discourse dis mornin' on de power of de miracle, an' U'm gwine ter take as example de children of Isreal a crossin' of de Red Sea. Der was Moses on de brink of de sea an' right behin' him was de army of Phar'oh. An' all at once 'st, breddern, de sea frose over es solid es a rock, an' de children an' Moses walked across."

In the congregation were some young negroes who had been to college and whose orthodoxy had been slightly warped. One of them arose, and said: "Why parson that can't be possible, 'cause de geographies tell us that water don't freeze at de equator." The old man hesitated a moment and then replied, scornfully: "I just knowed one of you young niggers was gwine ter dispute de work of de Lawd. Young man when de Red Sea frose der warn't no geography, an' der warn't no equator."
