SCOTT ONTARIO.

The Woman who Would And The Grocer who wouldn't.

Every day from five to fifteen letters are received by The Ogilvie Flour Mills Co. from women living in the smaller towns throughout Canada, saying they have asked their grocer for Royal Household Flour but can't get it. One writes—"I told my grocer, Mr.----, that I would buy 'Royal Household' regularly if he would always keep it on hand, but he said he wouldn't take on another brand of flour until he was obliged to." Another says—"My grocer is an 'old fogie' and never gets the newest or the best things until the year after." A third says—"We haven't an enterprising grocer in our town and are obliged to send to-----for 'Royal Household' or take a poorer flour."

Write direct to Ogilvie's.

If you can't get "Royal Household" from your grocer, write to us direct—we will immediately give you the name of the nearest grocer who keeps "Royal Household" and send you also the "Royal Household" recipes. There is no good reason why your grocer should compel you to use inferior flour—no first class grocer will hesitate to order "Royal Household" for you, and even the smallest dealer will get it if you insist upon it.

Owing to the recent thaw which took away a large quantity of the snow and left the fields bare in most places, the roads are pretty badly used up. The crows are getting thicker, and the shrubs are starting to bud which shows that sunny spring is close at hand.

Mr. Duncan McNabb left for Dauphin, N. W. T., Tuesday of last week.

Mr. John Hewitt, who has been under the weather for the past two weeks, we are glad to report, is again on the mend.

Mr. John Staples disposed of a fine horse last week to Mr. Thos. Caldwell for the handsome figure of $110.

We omitted to mention in our last budget that Miss Kate McNally, has again started working on the staff in Miss Dick's millinery establishment.

Mr. James Wilson, of Rocky Saugeen, leaves Monday for Dauphin, N. W. T.

Miss Sarah J. Hurley, of Omaha, Neb., arrived at Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hewitt's on Tuesday last and intends to make her home here.

Mrs. Jas. Wilson and her two children, are residing with her parents until her husband takes up a home in the Sunny West.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell of your town called on Mr. and Mrs. John Hewitt last Friday evening.

The robin is with us at last and his pleasant song is ringing through the woods.

When a Girl is Twenty-nine.

The hurring months are passing. Another birthday near! And some one is lamenting in secret so I hear. The idle gossips whisper that it is much too late to hope for any miracle to save an old maid's fate. What bare insinuation! What falsehood, lie on line! For lots of nice things happen when a girl is twenty-nine.

"Young things" may still be pretty. No doubt. Yet critics stare. They're really quite old-fashioned. And somewhat out of date. Our dramas, poems and novels, As any one can see, Have relegated "sweet sixteens" to tales of ancestry, If heroines are older, Its certainly a sign That lots of things may happen when a girl's "sweet twenty nine".

So do not grow too wistful O'er long forgotten teens. With sighs of retrospection For whispered might-have-beens. But if you smile as sweetly As then, and are as coy, And never show that you prefer a grey beard to a boy; In short, if you're own true self, You never have to pine! For everything can happen when a girl is twenty-nine.

Smith—"Do you believe in the old saying that absence makes the heart grow fonder?" Mrs. Smith—"Well, I don't know. I might scramble up some liking for you if you'd go away for a couple of hundred years."

SPRING SMILES.

A man pays much more heed to his own conscience if he thinks the police are looking.

If people were as willing to believe good of others as they are to believe good of themselves there would be a universal grin that would compass the earth and lap over and signal Mars.

The easier people make money the easier they want to make it.

Among the many mysteries of childhood is why grown people cry when they are glad.

There are some people who think they have discharged their full duty to you by praying for you.

What do you use most during the day? Do you use the little white lie almost as much as your shoes?

When a man makes one mistake he usually follows it up with three or four before he recovers his balance.

Don't be conceited; get any map of the United States, and do you find any mark on it to show that you are on the earth?

Every one admits that rich people are not happier than the poor, or as happy, yet every one is striving to become one of the miserably rich.

Look out for the small woman every time. Dangerous goods usually come in small lots.

Some forms of insanity are often found under a cloud.

You Are Ailing

Not quite sick,—but robbed of ambition to work—find it hard to think clearly. Not ill enough to think of dying, but bad enough for life to be pretty dull. There is a remedy—Ferrozone—that quickly lifts that half dead feeling. Gracious, but Ferrozone makes you feel good; it sharpens the dulled appetite, makes it keen as a razor.

BLOOD? Ferrozone makes lots of it, the rich, nourishing kind that vitalizes the whole body. You'll be wonderfully quickened, immensely strengthened, feel hearty and vigorous after using Ferrozone. Buoyant health, surplus vigor and reserve energy all comes from the great restorative. Fifty cents buys a box of fifty tablets at all dealers.

A writer in the Toronto World calls attention to the importance of having the new license commissioners selected from a class of men who will have no business interests of their own to serve by selling cigars, or other supplies to hotel keepers. He complains particularly about Toronto insurance agents being on the license board in that city, under the late government, and practically compelling the hotel keepers to give them their business. In so far as can be seen from the appointments so far made by the Whitney Government, there can be no special cause of complaint in this respect. But we need scarcely point out that it is impossible for the Government to know all the commissioners personally, and that this fact imposes upon the member, or candidate, representing the patronage of the riding a special obligation to nominate the best men for the position. If all do as well as South Bruce, the country will be well served, and the hotel keepers will be treated with justice and fair play.—Bruce Herald.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 S. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign I caught cold after being overheated which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak loud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on taking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale at Parker's Drug Store.

FEED TO FATTEN

Steers are bought, raised, and fattened to make money; so just a few words as to how this profit can be made and, in many instances, increased. The increase in weight in steers, is due to the amount of food that is digested and assimilated, and the greater the amount digested and assimilated, the greater the increase in weight. In close confinement the feeding ration lacks the variety of the open field, therefore, the food must have the "salt, pepper and gravy" added; this is Clydesdale Stock Food. It stands to reason, that, like a human being, if the food is made more palatable by the addition of the "salt, pepper and gravy" it will eat more of the thing it likes because "it makes the mouth water." This is "wise feeding." Furthermore, it will do them more good because it not only helps to digest the food, but after it is digested, it helps the blood to take up or assimilate a large proportion of it. This is where the profit comes in by putting on extra weight, giving them a nice, fat, smooth finish that brings top market price. The feeding period can be shortened thirty days at least; this is money saved. The increase over and above the ordinary feeding increase is, easily 1/2 of a lb and over per day. You can stop feeding Clydesdale Stock Food at any time without injurious effects. If you find you cannot feed Clydesdale Stock Food at a profit your money will be cheerfully refunded by the dealer from whom you buy it. It is sold in your district by:
