Losing Money on Horses??

There are several ways for doing this—betting on the wrong; making mistakes, etc. But the most frequent way is by neglecting their health, just when the hard work of spring and summer is at hand. A great deal can be saved by using our celebrated

HORSE and CATTLE POWDERS

A great tonic and appetizer. Gives a fine, glossy coat. Hardens the muscles and places the animal in the best condition for hard work. Equally good for Cattle, Hogs and Sheep.

REMEMBER we give a $5.00 prize at Fall Exhibition for best Spring Calf (Grade) fed on the British National Horse and Cattle Food.

REASON NO 12

WHY YOU SHOULD USE

Red Rose Tea

Because it is Recommended by the Best Grocers.

You will generally find Red Rose Tea in a store which deals in standard brands of high-class goods.

These are the merchants who do not look for goods which give them the largest profit, because it pays them best to sell goods which are the most reliable and give their customers the greatest satisfaction.

Ask a grocer of this kind his opinion of Red Rose Tea—his opinion will be honest, because nearly all other teas pay him a larger profit than Red Rose. He probably uses it in his own house, and will tell you in a very few words why he recommends it.

BRANCHES: TORONTO, WINNIPEG.

Flesherton.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blair, of the west back line, was the scene of a very pleasant gathering on Monday of last week, when the highly couple celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day. Of eleven children born to Mr. and Mrs. Blair seven are still living and were present to join in festivities as follows:—Mrs. W. Dorsey and David, Toronto; Mrs. J. I. Graham, Vandeleur; Mrs. W. Burnett, Markdale; W. J., Detroit; Robt. and Frank, Artemesia and James at home. Mr. and Mrs. Blair were the recipients of appropriate and valuable presents.

Mr. K. McGruther, of east back line, who is giving up farming to live at Markdale, had a successful sale of stock and implements on Monday. Mr. George Noble wielded the hammer. Mr. McGruther has leased his farm to Mr. B. Ferris, who recently took possession of the same.

Mrs. Croft, sr., of this place, is at the time of writing very ill with heart trouble.

Mrs. Rev. Paul Flint, of Galt, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Runstadler are visiting the latter's mother at Dundalk.

Miss Lily Thistlewaite leaves this week to take up a course in the Central Business College, Toronto.

The sad news of the sudden death of Miss Mary Elizabeth Speer, daughter of Mr. Wm. Speer, west back line, who died on Wednesday of last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. McDennitt, Schomberg, was a shock to the community. A little over three weeks ago Miss Speer went to visit her sister, who was ill, and though not robust was in her usual health till less than twenty four hours of her death which was due to a general collapse of the system. On Thursday the remains were brought by her father to her late home from where the funeral took place the following day to the Presbyterian cemetery, Orange Valley. An appropriate service was conducted at the house by the family pastor, Rev. L. W. Thom, of this place, who also performed the last rites at the grave. The deceased was 38 years of age. She was a member of the Presbyterian church here and was an exemplary character, living a consistent christian life which had its influence for good on all about her. Four sisters of the deceased who are married; one sister and one brother are at home with the aged father, who feels very keenly the great loss sustained. Many friends sincerely sympathize with him and the members in his family in their sorrow.

The "At Home" given by Prince Arthur Lodge, A. F. & A. M., on Tuesday evening of last week was a successful and very enjoyable affair. The neat lodge room of the society was beautifully decorated with plants and fragrant hyacinths. Mr. Edward Thompson was caterer for the occasion and at numerous small tables ice cream and dainty refreshments were served. During the evening games were heartily indulged in and a liberal supply of music, vocal and instrumental, was given. The members vied with each other in making the evening pleasant and the committee of management are to be congratulated on the success attending their labors.

Mr. D. McTavish has sold his 50 acre farm, the old Jas. Johnston property on the east back line, to Mr. Geo. Ludlow, who for many years lived near Inistogie. Mr. Ludlow takes possession on April 1st and will doubtless be heartily welcomed by the community.

Sabbath last was children's day in the Presbyterian church and at the regular service in the afternoon the pastor, Rev. Mr. Thom, gave an interesting address to the Sabbath School which sat in a body in the centre pews of the church, in honor of Miss Fanny Crosby, the blind hymn writer, who on Friday last celebrated her 85th birthday, the hymns sung were selected from her compositions and were introduced by the pastor, who referred appropriately to the great life work of the devoted christian lady, who has in the past forty one years given to the world eight thousand hymns.

At the Methodist Sabbath School on Sunday last the open review of the lessons for the quarter was committed to the teachers who were each given a lesson and five minutes to give the cream of their thought on it. The review was interesting throughout and the change was enjoyed by the school. Of late a song service has been held before opening the school and Mr. Alf Wardrobe has given increased interest in the music with his violin.

Continuing his series of sermons on commandments Rev. Mr. Wilson on Sunday evening last spoke on the seventh commandment, or the sanctity of marriage. The speaker for 40 minutes dealt in a very able searching and convincing manner with the sin prohibited in his text, and also denounced the law of divorce which contravened the law of God.

Many friends in this place and vicinity will extend congratulations to Mr. Joseph Henderson, of Osprey, who on Wednesday of last week was married at Faversham to Miss Mary A. Heron, a very highly respected young lady of that place. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Henderson many happy years of married life.

Wheels commenced running in the village on Monday and the dray and bus made their initial trip to the station. Councillor Best had men employed on Saturday reducing the snow banks on the station road. Owing to the bad roads the traffic from outside including the mails has been almost cut off for a few days, and the ministers had a holiday from outside work on Sunday.

The reflection on the sky from the Durham furniture factory fire on Thursday evening last was visible here with considerable brilliancy.

Mr. F. G. Karstedt's new millinery opening takes place here on Thursday and Friday this week.

A meeting in the interests of the Royal Templars lodge is to be held in the basement of the Presbyterian church on Friday evening, when it is expected several will unite with the society.

Owing to illness Miss Mercer has been unable to take charge of Mrs. Willett's dress making parlor and Miss Harper of Simpson's, Toronto, has been engaged in her place.

A christening took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boyd on Friday last, when their little son, Kendall, received the rite of baptism. Rev. J. S. I. Wilson officiated.

Miss Anderson, of Sintaluta, N.W.T., is the guest of Mrs. Geo. Mitchell this week.

An exchange puts it this way:— "Times are hard, money is scarce, business is dull, retrenchment is a duty. Please stop my—?" Whiskey? "Oh, no; times are not hard enough for that. But there is something else that costs me a large amount of money every year, which I wish to save. Please stop my—?" Tobacco, cigars and snuff? No, no, not these. But I must retrench somewhere. Please stop my—?" Ribbons, jewels, ornaments and trinkets? Not at all. Pride must be fostered, if times are ever so hard; but I believe I can see the way to effect quite a saving in another direction. Please stop my—?" Tea, coffee and needless unhealthy luxuries? No, no, not these. I cannot think of such a sacrifice. Ah I have it now. My weekly paper costs me two cents a week. I must save that. Please stop my—paper; and that will carry me through easily. I believe in retrenchment and economy.

Roosevelt's address to the Mothers' Congress included a lot of good advice to men, because he knew the men would be sure to read what he had to say to the women.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Julius Caesar had waved aside the kingly crown.

"No," he said, with becoming modesty: "I'd rather have a first-class consulship. There is less responsibility about it, and if you work right you can get just as much out of the fees."

Privately instructing the reporters to make a first page story out of the incident, he bowed them out and began dictating again to his stenographer.

We really cannot help our doubts; The scribes are getting denser; They fail to tell the whereabouts Of poor old Rojestvensky!

Patient—Did the doctor leave that other city because his sphere was too limited?

Nurse—No, because the graveyard was too limited.

"Doctor, my husband is dreadfully troubled with sleeplessness. What is good for it? You might try reading him to sleep, madam." "What would be the use of that doctor? I try to talk him to sleep every night, and it doesn't do a bit of good."—Chicago Tribune.

Kouropatkin's laconic despatches equal those of Caesar.

When children quarrel they hold the mirror of nature up to their parents.

To prove that time is money just reflect that you can't have a time without money.

Plenty of people would be glad to go in training for the strenuous life of a millionaire.

The reason some children are so mean is because they have made an injudicious selection of relatives.
