DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor.

Durham, April 6, 1905.

DEATH OF A. M. DARGAVEL.

(The News, Wolsely, Assa.)

Rarely has a town been moved to such a degree as Wolsely was on Saturday when it was learned that Mr. A. M. Dargavel had passed away that morning from the effects of the accident that happened to him Thursday afternoon. It appears he was riding a horse, of which he apparently lost control, and when opposite the Leland Hotel he was thrown violently against the sidewalk. He was at once picked up and carried to a bed in the hotel, and the best of medical aid was soon in attendance. But all that could be done was of no avail, his internal injuries being of too serious a nature and he expired about six o'clock on Saturday morning, leaving a widow and seven children to mourn his loss.

Deceased came to the west from Durham, Ont., about the year 1897, and has always been well and favorably known during his residence here. At the time of his death he was proprietor of a livery business in town and also manager at this point for the Western Packing Co. His age was a few days short of 46 years.

Deceased being a member of the Masonic Order, the Loges at Grenfell and Sinaluta took charge of the funeral arrangements, and the funeral on Monday afternoon was by far the largest in the history of the town. All business was suspended at noon and blinds drawn, and remained so until nearly five o'clock.

The funeral procession, which left the house about 2:30, was a very lengthy one. First walked Revd's Russell, Cornish, Goodwin and Taylor, followed by the Wolsely Band playing the "Dead March." Next came the Grenfell and Sinaluta Lodges, A. F. & A. M., nearly one hundred strong, followed by the hearse. The immediate relatives came next, and following them came a long line of vehicles and citizens on foot. Arriving at the Presbyterian Church the first part of the service was conducted by the Rev. Jas. Russell, pastor of the deceased, assisted by Rev. Mr. Tait, of Qu'Appelle, and Rev. Mr. Beal, of Grenfell. After the service in the church, the procession again reformed in the same order and proceeded to the cemetery, where, in the presence of a large concourse, the casket was lowered in the grave, and the Rev. Jas. Russell, assisted by the Rev. F. C. Cornish, concluded the funeral service. The Masons then took charge, and with the Rev. Bro. Beal, conducted the beautiful Masonic burial service over the remains of their departed brother. The casket was covered with a number of very beautiful floral designs, among others being one each from the Masons, Dr. Cooke, and Mr. Norman Crozier.

Flesherton.

Mr. F. G. Karstedt's millinery opening last week was very successful. A large number of ladies visited the show room and the pretty creations in headwear were much admired. Among them was an attractive large picture hat of black chiffon with plumes. A very becoming hat was of shaded brown chiffon with ribbon trimming. A very odd, but dainty hat was made entirely of forget-me-nots, trimmed with folds of white tulle. Another much admired was a Napoleon shade of the new crinkled chiffon in champagne and brown shades with flowers falling over the hair. Another very stylish hat was one with rolling brim made with black and white tulle with large plume falling over the brim. Numerous other pretty designs and a splendid variety of trimmings were shown. Altogether the display was good and artistically arranged in the neatly fitted up new show room which was made attractive with a large mirror in the rear and a handsome case and cabinet manufactured at the Wilson factory here.

Mr. R. McMullen, east back line, and W. Hales, Durham Road, had successful auction sales of their farm stock and implement last week. Mr. R. J. Sproule conducted both sales. Mr. Hales has leased his farm to his brother-in-law, Mr. W. H. Caswell, Toronto Line.

Messrs. William Stewart, Frank Cairns, James Felstead and J. Chard have been elected elders by the Presbyterian congregation here and the edict for their ordination was read on Sunday.

"Resolved, that the farmer is more useful to the community than the business man," was the subject of an interesting debate by four of the pupils in Principal Mansell's room in our public school on Friday afternoon last. Master Robt. Chornfield acted as chairman and before introducing the speakers gave a cordial welcome to the visitors present. Miss Ettie Beattie led the affirmative and was supported by Miss Mary Wilson. Arnold Thurston led the negative and was supported by Fred Karstedt, Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, Mr. M. K. Richardson and Mrs. (Dr.) Carter were the very capable judges and though complimenting the supporters of the negative for the ingenious presentation of their case gave their decision in favor of the affirmative which was supported with telling points and logical argument by the girls.

On Friday last after a lengthy illness in part due to a paralytic stroke there passed away at the Methodist parsonage, Drayton, Rev. J. W. Shilton, B. D., a former very much beloved pastor of the Methodist church here. The sad news deeply touched the hearts of many in this community who sincerely sympathize with Mrs. Shilton and her only son in their great bereavement. Mr. Shilton was 52 years of age and was therefore but at the zenith of his pulpit power. He was a very able preacher and his early death is a great loss to the community and church with which he stood identified. Mr. M. K. Richardson and Mr. Wm Clayton attended the funeral at Drayton on Monday.

Mr. Thos. Lumley, from near Eugenia, being of unsound mind, was on Saturday last committed by Magistrate VanDusen to the care of Jailor Miller at Owen Sound and Bailiff Wright accompanied him thither.

Some of our citizens have become interested enough in Cuba to invest in land there. Mr. Chas Stafford, 4th line, has made the largest purchase reported here yet, being that of 120 acres. He purposes visiting the land of sunshine and seeing his property after seeding.

At the Royal Templars meeting in the school room of the Presbyterian church on Friday evening last, thirteen candidates were initiated making the membership now twenty-three. Officers were elected for the balance of the current year as follows: Select Councillor, J. A. Felstead; Vice Councillor, Mrs. W. P. Crossley; Chaplain, G. F. Hurlbut; Treas., Wm. Clayton; Sec., Sec., Elwood Genoe; Fin. Sec., Millie Crossley; Herald, Emerson Bellamy; I. Guard, Wilda Crossley; O. Guard, Stanley Thurston. A committee was appointed to secure a hall for the regular meetings hereafter. Open meetings will probably be held fortnightly and the Council hopes to do aggressive temperance work among the young people of the community.

Mrs. Edward Whitten is in Toronto visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Saunders, to whom was born a daughter, on the 26th inst.

Mr. Alex. Holmes, of Orangeville, visited his sister, Mrs. J. Felstead here.

FANNIE M. LOTHROP The Author of Our "Famous People" Series

We take pleasure in announcing to our readers that with this issue we begin a series of remarkable, illustrated, biographic sketches of famous people—men and women who are making the history of the times. This series is by Fannie M. Lothrop, the well-known author and the ablest writer in this line in America to-day. For several years she has been a writer and critic on the leading publications of New York and Philadelphia.

For this work Mrs. Lothrop has a double fitness; from the literary side her knowledge of the great people of the day and her original way of putting things, and from the artistic side, her close acquaintance with the world's famous people fits her pre-eminently to select the best possible views of her subjects. To her belongs the distinctive honor of possessing the largest collection of portraits in the world, now numbering over 400,000—a treasury of portraiture unapproached by that of any museum or library in existence. The time, patience, concentration of purpose, industry and systematic attention to detail expended in arranging such a collection is remarkable.

"Mrs. Lothrop," says a famous critic, "has unusual ability in presenting the vital elements of a man's character so cleverly, so deftly, and subordinating dates and details, that from her pen we get in a few lines living biographies that show the real man, his qualities and his life, more effectively than in whole pages by other writers. Some artists can give more in a thumbnail sketch than others can present in a panoramic painting."

Mrs. Lothrop passed her girlhood years in Wisconsin, her native State. Her father, I. F. Mack, a New England gentleman of that class we fondly term "the old school," was a lawyer, educator and thinker of rare power and singular clearness of mind. He founded the public schools of Rochester, N. Y., and was identified with all local movements during his residence there, removing thence to Wisconsin, where he became prominent and wealthy by reason of his legal talent. Mrs. Lothrop's mother is a cousin of John Pierpont, the American poet, who was the grandfather of J. Pierpont Morgan.

For two years Mrs. Lothrop was a student of Oberlin College, standing highest in her class, and a graduate of the Normal College of Chicago, where her musical genius early attracted attention. She is brilliant in conversation and well informed on all topics of the day, though not a "new woman" in any sense of the word. In the library of her home in New York, filled with the best works of the best thinkers, she does all her literary work.

Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year 1904, by W. C. Mack, at the Department of Agriculture.

PEDLARS PLENTIFUL

(Toronto News)

Owen Sound, April 1—According to the statements of rural merchants in this vicinity they are being deprived of a great deal of business by the foreign pedlars who are very numerous in Grey county. Many of these pedlars have been fined repeatedly for pursuing their avocation without a license, and petitions are now being circulated throughout the country requesting the County Council to increase the annual license fee of the pack pedlar to $125, and to fix the fee of pedlars owning horses and conveyances at $225 per annum. The real object of the petitions is to abolish the pedlar trade.

Announcement.

We beg to announce to the public of Durham and vicinity that we have purchased the Drug business of the late Henry Parker, and are prepared to serve you in a manner which we trust will be profitable and pleasant to both you and ourselves. We look upon Pharmacy as a profession, and shall strive in every way to buy and make only the purest, freshest and best medicines. We shall test and analyze them to see if they are as they should be, and in putting up Prescriptions and Family Recipe, we shall make it our especial concern to combine drugs with skill and accuracy and with every assurance of safety. We might add that there is a wrong impression among the public as to the freshness of the Drug Stock. There is in this business, as with all others, a certain amount of old stock, but it is in lines outside of the drugs. The late Mr. Parker was a very careful and shrewd business man, and in buying, the drugs that deteriorated were bought in small quantities, whereas, those which could be bought in large quantities were done so, but all were kept in a manner to insure their medicinal value. Like other druggists, we handle perfumes, toilet articles, cigars, tobaccos, and other lines usually found in a well equipped Drug Store. In all these directions, we shall endeavor to make the stock complete, the goods superior, the prices right. It is our intention to continue the business under the name of "Parker's Drug Store" and to continue the manufacture of the valuable remedies made by the late Henry Parker. We want everybody to be satisfied with what they get at Parker's Drug Store, satisfied with the goods, satisfied with the price and satisfied with the treatment received.

Yours most earnestly,

JAS. R. GUN & CO.
