GREY LODGE No. 169, I. O. O. F. are taking up an excursion to Detroit to take place some time early in August. Should the idea materialize, an excellent opportunity will be afforded citizens of Durham to visit the "City of the Straits." This will certainly be a magnificent trip, and a cheap one.

THOSE who read a notice from a young man in British Columbia, who wishes a lady correspondent with the view of matrimony, must not imagine it anything of a fake nature. The young man we believe is very respectable and advertises with honest intentions. We hope he'll get a good wife through the advertising influence of THE CHRONICLE.

THE excursion to the Model Farm on Saturday was well patronized, and notwithstanding its annual occurrence it is growing none the less popular. A large number left here, and was much augmented by additions at Varney, Holstein and Mount Forest. The weather was not the very best, on account of the rain, but the excursion was a success financially, nevertheless.

MR. J. C. JOPP, of Moosemin, Assa., says—"Nothing can surpass the beautiful weather prevalent in this district. Following the ample supply of rain this season, and at the right time, causes wheat and other grain to grow by leaps and bounds, and the heart of everyone filled with joy, and a large field is confidently looked for. The proverbial grumbler is for once silent.

THE final line in the C. P. R. survey is now made through the town. From the west it runs along George Street part of the way, crosses the river at Garafraxa Street bridge, at the foot of the hill, and cuts through the school grounds within a few feet of the building. Building operation have not commenced yet, and before the line is completed there may be some deviations. One thing certain, the road will not go in the right place to please everybody.

IT was a sort of a tame send off, the soldier boys got on Tuesday morning last as they entrained for Niagara to attend the annual drill. The Company consisted of twenty-five members mostly young fellows with the bulk of their lives before them. Amongst those of the Company who are always seen at camp, were, Captain Snider and Messrs, W. Ramage and Robt. Tory. The boys are all good stuff, but a casual look at the "thin red line" would lead a person to conclude them on average to be a little under-sized. They all felt happy on leaving, and we hope they will all be able to give a good account of themselves, and come home with a training that will show a development of military precision. Some went to camp, we imagine, for the fun of the thing, their minds never once being burdened with the idea of a real fight. How much more cheering the outgoing would be to the martial strains of a good band.

MISS ELLA ROBERTSON returned last week from a training school in Hamilton, where she graduated as a professional nurse. We are pleased to hear that she intends to remain in town, and discharge her professional duties wherever needed. We feel satisfied that Miss Robertson will make many friends in the discharge of her chosen work.

REVEREND and Mrs. Boundy of London were guests over Sunday at the latter's mother and sister, Mrs. Newton and Mrs. George Sparling. Mr. Boundy returned Tuesday, but Mrs. Boundy will remain for a few days with her mother who is still suffering from the effects of a fall on the sidewalk.

THREATENED BY A PREACHER.

Who is Too Thin in the Hide to run a Magic Lantern.

We are in receipt of a letter from Mr. W. M. Bielby of Meaford, charging our Edge Hill correspondent of June 1st with making slanderous remarks against him in his recent picture show at the Grange Hall. He asks us to give the name of our correspondent whom he says, "must either deny the slanderous statement or bear the legal consequences." In closing he says "Please furnish me the name of the party as I hold your paper responsible for circulating slanderous statements."

This is the paragraph that Mr. Bielby considers slanderous, and we simply repeat it, not for the purpose of perpetuating slander, but simply to refresh the minds of our readers and enable them to know what the trouble is:—"Rev. Mr. Bielby gave an illustrated lecture and moving picture show in the Grange on Friday night. He was considerably out on some points and had often to be prompted by those in the audience. The audience was not large which probably accounted for the poor man leaving without so much as even saying "thank you" for his board and lodging.

We always commend our correspondents for truthful accounts of incidents of the kind, and where anything having a "fakey" appearance exists, we think they do right to warn others from falling into the same trap and supporting such with their patronage.

We know nothing personally about Mr. Bielby, nor Mr. Bielby's show, and we are not going to run taffy down his back simply because he has "Rev." at the first end of his name. The very portion of Glenelg from which the complaint comes was bitten a few years ago by a magic lantern man who will not be forgotten for some time and even in the very precincts of Durham we had a man whose name was prefixed by the letters "Rev." to turn out a veritable scoundrel only a few weeks after he left here.

We'll furnish the name of the correspondent to Mr. Bielby when we have to, and we do not think he will even then suffer much "legal consequences" from the gentleman who presumes so haughtily to make us wilt under his legal threat. Mr. Bielby may be a good, honorable, upright, Christian man, deserving well the title he carries, but we don't know any thing about him, and until we do we refuse to acknowledge his superiority nor yet shall we fall down and worship at his unwashed feet simply because he happens to be a "Rev."

People We Know

THE GOING AND COMING OF DURHAMITES AND THEIR FRIENDS.

Miss Maggie Spiers returned last Saturday after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Spiers and other friends in Caledon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown and Rev. and Mrs. Newton are attending the Baptist Association this week in Flesherton.

Mr. J. H. Brown was in Kimberley Monday in connection with the establishment of a new Baptist Church. Miss Flora McGregor, of Parkhill, daughter of Rev. Mr. McGregor, is visiting friends here.

WIFE WANTED.—A young man of British Columbia, formerly of Glenelg wishes to correspond with some young lady. Object: matrimony. Address J. A. D., Aspen Grove, B. C., care of Otter Flat Hotel.

AFTER a long illness, Miss Annie E. Reilly, of Glenelg, near Edgehill, passed away on Tuesday morning at the age of forty-two years. We have no particulars to give regarding the deceased lady, more than to say her departure is much regretted by those who know her. Interment takes place (today,) Thursday, to Maplewood Cemetery, leaving the father's house at one o'clock. Fuller particulars will be published next week if furnished by some of the friends or our own correspondent.

WEDNESDAY, June 7th, was a gala day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Putherbough, of the 2nd line of Bentinck, it being the occasion of the marriage of their second daughter, Sara, to Mr. W. H. E. Fillingham, of Shanty Bay, Ont. The weather was not all that could be desired, but it did not deter a great number of guests from being present, who all thoroughly enjoyed the occasion. Space will not here permit the publishing of all the names, but we would just beg to mention that "Grandpa" McNally was an honored guest, and claims that he has over fifty grandchildren.

At 7 o'clock p. m. the bride attired in cream coline, was presented by her father at the Altar of Matrimony, and was assisted by Miss Jean Putherbough, clad in pale blue coline, as bridesmaid, and Mr. H. G. Martin of Shanty Bay acting as best man.

The knot was strongly and safely tied by the Rev. W. Aitchison, of Dornoch, and we might just advise the young people of this neighborhood that he does it well.

After the ceremony a bounteous repast was served by Mine Hostess, Mrs. Putherbough, which was done ample justice to by all present.

The presents were numerous and costly and showed the esteem in which the bride was held by her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fillingham will take up house at his home in Shanty Bay.—Com.

MISS MARY HUTTON returned from Lenore, Man., on Monday, but intends returning again to resume her school duties in the course of a week or so. We regret to learn that her sister, Miss Martha Hutton, is very ill in the hospital in Winnipeg.

WE are pleased to learn that Ayling & Sons have finished burning their first kiln of brick, consisting of a hundred thousand, and that they have produced a genuine article. Those who intend building will now have an opportunity to get material, but they must get it quick.

OUR local jockeys are getting ready for the races, and if their fame once goes abroad they'll be picked up quick by owners of fast horses. One of the best of them gave a free exhibition here on Sunday, and he was picked out of the mud in about two minutes from the time he left the Middaugh House stables. Between times there was such a mix-up you couldn't tell the horse from the jockey; they were on top turn about; but the horse won.

WE regret to learn that Mrs. Ndwton, Mrs. George Sparling's mother, met with a rather serious accident a few days ago, by falling on the sidewalk in attempting to save a little child. For a time the injury was thought to be serious, but she is improving nicely.
