

Your Wall Paper Chance

In spite of the backward Spring our wall paper business has this year exceeded the sales of any previous year. This is largely due to the fact that practically our whole stock was new paper—the late 1905 styles. It is a great advantage to buy an entire new stock every year, so to clean up the remainder of this year's line we will sell all papers now instock at

One-Third Off

This is a reduction of one-third from prices that were already low. It means that you get these new, stylish papers—the cream of this year's production—at cost or less.

We Want You To See These Papers

Even if you are not going to paper until late Fall you had better buy the paper now while the saving can be made.

Sale Begins Thurs- day, June 15th.

Woven wire fencing, No. 9 wire per rod.....	56	42

Cement, a saving of 15 cents per barrel; coal, saving of 50 cents per ton; harness, from 10% to 20%. Similar sayings of substantial amounts are secured in sewing machines, pianos, stoves, furnaces, etc.

These figures I got (most of them) from farmers who have bought the articles named. One or two special instances might be given. Mr. T. J. Clump, near Galt, bought 160 rods of No. 9 woven wire fencing, and saved $22.40 on the one purchase, within three weeks of buying his share for $20. Mr. Twamley, of Durham, bought 500 rods of another grade of wire at 38 cents per rod, saving a total of $60.00.

The company is growing rapidly, as is to be expected. As the capital is limited by the charter to $100,000, which makes it impossible for more than 5,000 farmers to become shareholders, it will probably be necessary to change the charter to admit of larger membership.

A word as to the way business is conducted: The buying is done by the head office at Durham, prices being thus secured that are impossible in the case of small local purchasers or agents. Shareholders anywhere may post their orders direct, or leave them at the branch stores in the nearest town, and the goods are got by them either at the stores or at the station. Cash or note is the rule for payment on purchases, as being the most economical way of running the business.

So far as I can see, this company of organized farmers cannot fail in their project, because they are succeeding splendidly now, and because a growing membership steadily increases the united power that benefits each one. It is not the ideal plan of organization I have outlined, but it has got results, and results are what I had in view in suggesting the methods of organization I did.

It has occurred to me that there may be many other co-operative organizations of farmers in Canada, as well as this, and that members of such organizations should give an account thereof to the readers of the "Farmer's Advocate."

certainly be dead, so without further investigation he notified some neighbors, and immediately a coffin was ordered and taken down to the shanty, but to the surprise of the undertaker and those around when the coffin arrived they found the supposed dead man at work planting potatoes. The coffin was brought back to the undertakers with the old man sitting on top of it, and while passing through the town he caused no little excitement by shouting and yelling, proclaiming his resurrection—Huntsville Forester.

HITS AND MISSES.

The Chosen Friends, of Owen Sound, have chartered the Minnie M. to run an excursion to Collingwood on Dominion Day. This is not the first time this boat took out a load of "chosen friends."

We had an account last week of a town lad who stole flowers from Charlie Lang being up before Magistrate Telford. He got off with a lecture and the payment of costs amounting to $4.00. The boy was only eleven or twelve years of age. We may just remind Mr. Telford that the prompt and unceremonious settlement of all such conduct on a stiff cash basis is far ahead of the lecture method in young and old alike. Last week's account happened to get pried just as we were putting it in the form and consequently did not appear.

People don't complain much about the cold, and even George Lawrence recognizes that the Grand Trunk is not troubled much with snow drifts.

George Stinson did right to get married 'cause he's got the "dough." When some young men correspond with ladies their object is matrimony. When we correspond with them it is a matter of money too.

People who don't like to see their own dirty actions in print are not slow to suggest that the other fellow get a raking down.

There are citizens who doubted Mr. Cowham's word about the building of a cement mill, but they realize now that he was telling the truth when he told them not to be anxious to live nearer than a half a mile of it.

County Court and General Sessions.

The regular semi-annual sittings of the county court and general sessions of the peace opened Tuesday afternoon before His Honor Judge Hatton, and have been in progress ever since with the exception of Wednesday morning, when the court, out of respect to the late Magistrate Spencer, did not sit. The following cases have been disposed of:

CIVIL.

OWEN SOUND IRON WORKS vs. BRENNAN.—This action took a considerable length of time. A claim for $1000 was made for repairs to the tug Hazard, owned by the defendant, who is a Lumber Merchant, at Hamilton. The defence was that at the time the work was ordered the Company guaranteed that the price thereof should not exceed $500, which amount the defendant had paid the plaintiffs on into court. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiffs for $765.00 for which amount, less the $500, judgment was entered with costs. A. G. MacKay, K. C., and A. D. Creaser, for the plaintiffs; Bull & Hollis, Toronto, for the defendant.

VAIR vs. ANDERSON.—An action brought for balance due upon a car of apples sold to A. M. Anderson, of Leduc, Alberta, was adjourned owing to the non return of the Commissioner to take evidence in Alberta and will come up at a special date to be fixed. MacKay, Sampson & Telford, for the plaintiffs; Wm. S. Middlebro for the defendant.

CRIMINAL.

REX vs. McNALLY.—The accused, Jas. McNally, who was tried at the last sessions when the jury disagreed failed to put in an appearance at this court, and if he does not turn up before the court rises his bail will be forfeited. John Armstrong for the Crown; MacKay, Sampson & Telford, for the accused.

REX vs. THOMPSON.—The accused, a local milkman, was charged with having sent a scurrilous letter through the mail. The Grand Jury however returned no bill and the accused was at once relieved from further attendance at the Court. Jno Armstrong for the Crown. MacKay, Sampson & Telford, for the accused.

Rex vs Prior.—The accused is charged with having forged an order purporting to be signed by one Mrs. Carr and directed to one Trace who owned her $700 for board. Prior collected the money. Mrs. Carr claims she never signed the order or authorized Prior to collect the money. The case lasted considerably over a day and resulted in a verdict of not guilty. A. G. MacKay, K. C. and Jann Armstrong for the Crown. William Kingston K. C. (Mount Forest) for the accused.—O. S. Advertiser.
