WIFE WANTED.—A young man of British Columbia, formerly of Glenelg wishes to correspond with some young lady. Object matrimony. Address J. A. D. Aspen Grove, B. C., care of Otter Flat Hotel.

THE Misses McKenzie, of Lambton street, had the front of their residence repainted and beautified, last week. Monday night, some person or persons desirous, no doubt, of letting us know we have still "the fool with the knife" in our midst, came along and slashed one of the big wooden pillars on the verandah. It was the work of some youngsters, no doubt, but if caught, will be made to suffer the full consequences.

WE regret to learn of an accident that befell Mr. Duncan McLean, of Aberdeen. While drawing out manure, last Friday, a young team he was working with took fright, ran away, and Mr. McLean fell forward on the tongue and subsequently to the ground when the waggon ran over him crushing him quite severely and spraining one of his ankles. It was a miraculous escape and Duncan is glad it wasn't worse.

THE Baptist congregation of the Muloch Church will hold a Garden Party at the grounds of Mr. Duncan McLean, Aberdeen, on Friday, July 14th. A good programme will be provided, and refreshments will be served. The Clergy of Durham, as well as the Durham Baptist Church Choir will be there and a pleasant evening will be assured. Warden McArthur, of Priceville, will occupy the chair. Admission; adults 25c, children 15c. In case the weather is not favorable the party will be held on the following Monday.

WE regret to learn of the death of Miss Bessie Clark, of Varney, who died on Monday night, after an operation for acute appendicitis on Sunday last. The young girl was only fifteen years of age, and on Thursday last was in her usual health. Friday and Saturday she felt indisposed, and on Sunday she was taken severely ill and an operation for appendicitis was performed by Dr. Macdonald, as the last and only hope to save life. The fatal termination on Monday night, leaves the distressed parents in deep sorrow over the loss of their bright and beloved child. The funeral takes place to-day, Wednesday, to Durham Cemetery where she will be interred after a short service in Varney Methodist Church.

MR. HARRY BURNETT had the misfortune to have a horse struck by a special train on Monday morning last and killed, at the town line crossing. It seems that the beast, in company with two others, got on the track in some way when the special came along. The others got off safely, but this one stumbled and fell and was gobbled up by the train, being cut completely in two. We understand that several animals have been killed in this same place, and some steps should be taken to make this place less dangerous, ere a human life pays the penalty. It is being demonstrated more clearly every day that the overhead crossing is fast becoming a necessity for the protection of human life and property.

FOR SALE.—House and lot in Upper Town. Apply to MacKay & Dunn.

WOOL WANTED.—Highest price in cash or trade for any quantity of Wool at J. & J. Hunter's.

PASTURE TO RENT.—By the month. Apply on premises to Wm. Jackson, Buinessan. Jun29tf

If you use machine oil, you would do well to see the Farmers' Mfg. and Supply Co. before buying elsewhere. They handle the best.

WE congratulate Miss Maggie Caton who was married last week to Mr. Wm. Bailey.

DR. BROWN, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, will be at Knapp Hotel, Durham, Saturday, July 8th, from 12 to 6 p. m. Eyes tested and glasses supplied.

ON last Monday evening Rev. Bielby delivered a very fine address, to the Methodist Senior League, on the war between Russia and Japan (illustrated). There was a large number present and everybody thoroughly enjoyed the lecture.—Meaford Monitor.

LADIES look younger which is the desire of one and all. Take the trouble of visiting Prof. Dorenwend's private show rooms at Knapp House, Durham, on Wednesday, July 19th, and see the many inventions in styles of human hair coverings, wigs, bangs, switches, etc., and inspect his new patent structure.

A GARDEN PARTY will be held under the auspices of the Presbyterian church on Mr. A. Noble's lawn, opposite the church on the evening of Tuesday, July 11. A good programme is being provided and everything else possible is being done to give all an enjoyable evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Admission, children 10, adults 15 cents.

GENTLEMEN who are bald or have thin hair, should call on Prof. Dorenwend at Knapp House, Durham, on Wednesday, July 19th, and see his wonderful devices in toupees and wigs worn on over 65,000 heads. Explanation and demonstration free. Private apartments at hotel. Don't fail to see his new invention, patented all over the world.

WE are in receipt of a splendid lithograph of the talented young violinist Miss Maud Buschlen, of Arthur. Among the many flattering press comments we notice one from Canadian Music and Trades Journal, Toronto World, The Globe and others which speak very highly of this dainty lady's remarkable musical ability. We think the music lovers of Durham would do well to keep Miss Buschlen in mind when arranging musical entertainments.

TOM COLLISON was in town a day or two the fore part of the week and gave us a call Tuesday. Excuse us; we should say Dr. Collinson, as he is now a full fledged M. D. and will soon hang out his shingle. It just seems like yesterday since he left Edge Hill school to go into the study of medicine, yet four years have passed and gone. We are pleased to see him looking so well, and with such a bright prospect before him. We tender our congratulations and wish him all kinds of prosperity.

FOUND LOST.—IN SWAMP, AT base line Con. 4, Glenelg, on Saturday July 1st. Color—White with a few large black spots. Finder will be rewarded by returning him, or giving such information as may lead to his recovery. A. B. COLLINSON, Ceylon, Ont.

SCOTLAND'S DAY IN DURHAM.

Thousands Journey to Durham on Dominion Day to Take In the Caledonian Games.

The Caledonian Games are over, and as far as attendance is concerned it was certainly a success. The London "Free Press" places the attendance at 7000 but we think it was far short of that number. The morning was cloudy which kept many away. Anyway there was a good turnout and the management did their best to carry out the program in full.

The Seventh Fusilier Pipe Band, of London, and the fifty or sixty cadets, all in kilted uniform, gave a Scottish appearance to the day's proceedings. The program consisted of all the usual athletic sports of such occasions, some well contested and some not so well. The vaulting was good and caused considerable interest towards the end of the game. The running was a little one-sided, the outside professionals being too much for the local home brews. The pipe music was variously estimated in making comparison with those we had last year. Whether as good or not, the music was enjoyed by lovers of the pipes. The drill exercises by the cadets was pretty and the boys appeared to be well trained in the exercises given. The high-wire man was the most disappointing feature of the day's program. The visitors expected something but got very little. The exhibition on the grounds was exceedingly amateur, and the breaking of the rope at the concert, whether by design or otherwise, reduced the "great balancing feats" to nothing and very little of that.

Dr. Pickering took first on the hop, step and jump and didn't have to use his third trial to win it. The tug of war didn't come off, to the disappointment of some who enjoy a struggle of that sort. Geo. Smith was the only one to enter for the contest, but the management didn't have him pull, and we haven't heard of him getting a prize though it seems to us he ought to.

The London "Free Press" reporter was on the ground and says that every vacant store in town was turned into eating rooms to feed the multitudes. Since we have no vacant stores in town we can't account for the peculiarity of the reporter's vision, unless it be that he imagined himself in the tale end of an election contest or was so full of Scotch "enthusiasm" that he could see two posts at each corner of his bed. In either case a man is excusable for a slight stretch of the imagination.

The concert in the rink was quite a success. The crowd was large and the proceeds amounted to more than $225.

Mr. Dwight-Edwards, baritone, was in good form and took well with the large audience whose cheering appreciation forced an encore to every number.
