A PRETTY wedding took place the home of Mr. and Mrs. Caton, this place, on the afternoon of Tue day, the 28th of June, when the daughter, Margaret, was united in marriage to Mr. William John Baile of Hanover. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, th the strains of the wedding march led by Mrs. (Rev.) Colling, while nuptial knot was securely tied by Re Mr. Colling, pastor of the bride. M and Mrs. Bailey have taken up the residence in Hanover, where they w reside and the Chronicle joins the many friends in wishing them a long and happy married life.

Saugeen Presbytery

The Presbytery of Saugeen met on Tuesday of last week in Knox Church Harrison, the Rev. Mr. Hanna, the Moderator in the chair. The atten nce was smaller than usual partly accounted for by the absence of Messrs.
Cameron and Young in the North West and of Mr. Little at the World's Convention of Young People's Soci ties at Baltimore. The Clerk's place was taken by Mr. Tate, of Rothsay, and the business of the day was passed through expeditiously and pleasantly.
At the request of the Aytton congrega tion steps were taken to elect elders at that station and an interim session consisting of Messrs. Drummond and Campbell of Clifford, and Grant of Durham, with Mr. Farquharson as Moderator was appointed.

The Durham congregation was con gratulated on the step they had taken in the purchase of a Manse and liberty was given them to borrow on the se curity of the property a sum not ex ceeding $2500.

Reports from the Home Missio Committee and Young People's Soci ties was passed through and a list of committees was struck to take charge of the several departments of work for the next two years and Presbytery ad journing to meet in Durham on the 20th of September next.

SACKETT'S CORNERS

Quite a number from this part took in Dominion Day at Durham and re port a good time.
Mrs. Jas. Renwick is visiting friends in Stratford Master Burton Renwick and Miss Carrie Paris attended the wedding of Miss Jean Hastie this week.
Friends from Hanover visited Mr. and Mrs. George Haw this week.
Mr. Angus McDougall and his daughter, Miss Margaret, are visit ing friends on the Manitoulin Island.
Miss Bertha Lane and her brothers, John and Wesley, are visiting friends at Acton.
We are sorry to hear that Mrs.
Henry Love, of New England, is under the weather with stomach trou ble. We hope to hear of a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Atchison and fam ily, of Dromore, spent Sunday at Mr.
Lane's, of New England.
Mrs. S. Ferguson spent a pleasant day with Mrs. G. Sackett this week.
The concert given in the Russell Hall, at Dromore, was reported good, but the turnout was not as large as expected. However, $20 00 was real ized from the proceeds.
Mr. G. Witter is improving his farm by putting up a good straight fence along the side road. When finished it will very much improve the looks of his farm.
THE CHRONICLE OFFICE is headquar ters in Durham for plain or fancy printing.

Ayer's

What are your friends saying about you? That your gray hair makes you look old?
And yet, you are not forty!
Postpone this looking old.

Hair Vigor

Use Ayer's Hair Vigor and restore to your gray hair all the deep, dark, rich color of early life. Then be satisfied.

"Ayer's Hair Vigor restored the natural color to my gray hair, and I am greatly pleased. It is all you claim for it."

SCOTLAND'S DAY IN DURHAM.

ber. "God Save the King" and "The Bonny, Bonny Banks of Loch Lo mond" were exceedingly good num bers.

Will McLeod of Seaforth was the funny man of the evening and gave excellent satisfaction in the rendering of his comic selections. His "Sailor's Hornpipe" dance was also well execu ted and loudly cheered.

Miss McGill is a very pleasing solo ist and she appeared on the stage to wards the close of the program. She was presented with a couple of beau tiful bouquets.

The Sean Thiubhas, (if this isn't the right way to spell it you can do it yourself) by little Grace Hamilton, was neatly executed and brought forth vo liferous cheers of applause.

The Trapeze man did some fine bal ancing after the rope broke and he landed on the chair placed under him by his watchful assistant.

Grand Chief Fraser occupied the chair and gave good satisfaction. At the opening he made a brief address referring to the magnitude of the Or der and the importance of keeping alive the Scottish sentiment.

Baldness

as all men know, dis figures and adds an aged expression to the face.
Why remain Bald when Professor Dorenwend can fit you with a Wig or Toupee, which will hide all traces of Baldness and take the the place of your own hair? Doctors recommend these Toupees as a preventative for colds in head, catarrh and neuralgia.
PROF. DORENWEND will fit you on the spot and show you just how you look afterwards.
