PEACE AFTER THE BATTLE.

The wife of a well-known Western Senator is a Southern woman who married to the Senator late in life; While still a young girl she left her native State and came north to live; but from time to time she would revisit her old home.

On one of these occasions shortly before her marriage she happened to meet the old colored "mammy" who had been her nurse, and who was vastly surprised to find that "Miss Mary" was still unwedded.

"Lan, Miss Ma'y!" she exclaimed "ain't yo' married yit?"

"No not yet, aunt Sally" was the answer.

"My, my! Who'd a-thought it? Ad' yit," she mused, determined to soften this disgrace, "afiah all dey does say dat ol' maids has de happiest life; dat is, afiah dey quits strugglin'."—The Tribune, New York.

A MEAN MAN.

John T. McCutcheon, whose "Bird Center Cartoons" have achieved an amazing popularity, told a Bird Center story at a recent dinner.

"The mean man of Bird Center," he said, "took his little boy fishing one day. The boy sat with his feet hanging over the end of the pier, and losing his balance somehow, he fell head foremost into the water.

"A bystander plunged after him. This hero had to dive down to the bottom before he found the boy. At last he got him, and altogether exhausted he climbed painfully out and handed to the father his wet and unconscious son.

"What have you done with his hat?" the father said."

YOU'RE ONLY HALF SICK.

But nevertheless you feel pretty "seedy." Best prescription is Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they tone up the entire system, strengthen the stomach, elevate your spirits and make you feel better in one day. It's by cleaning the body of wastes, by purifying and enriching the blood that Dr. Hamilton's Pills accomplish so much. Very mild, exceedingly prompt, and guaranteed in every case. Your druggist sells Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Battenut in yellow boxes, 25c. each, or five for $1.00. Get the genuine.

MARTYRS AT THE STEAK.

The gnashing teeth bit hard On a stern and rib bound roast While boarders 'gainst a dented wall The leaden biscuit tossed.

And their anxious brows grew dark As they glanced the table o'er And recognized in a chowdered form Some things they'd seen before.

What sought they thus afar? Fresh loaves and tender meat? The wealth of seas, the spoils of farm? They sought a bite to eat!

Not as the conquerer comes— They hurried in pell mell, All hungry eyed, emaciate, At sound of dinner bell.

Aye, call it what you will, The proudest spirit bows Before that nameless, shameless thing, A city boarding house.

Success.

A BAD BRUISE.

Often causes a good deal of trouble. The best cure is a prompt application of Nerviline which instantly stops pain, prevents swelling, prevents discoloration. Nerviline is antiseptic—prevents blood poisoning. No salve so strong, so penetrating, so swift to destroy pain. You miss a lot of comfort by not using Miss Casey's Nerviline. For fifty years it has been the standard first-aid remedy.

MISS JESSIE MACLACHLAN

The Popular Scotch Prima-Donna. In the picturesque little seaport town of Oban, Scotland, with its beautiful scenery and its inspiring historic associations, Miss Jessie MacLachlan, the famous Scotch prima-donna, was born. She was young when she first revealed her unusual musical endowment, for Nature gave her a voice of rare sweetness and power. When she was but twelve she joined the choir in her native town, and with a thrill of surprise the choir-master heard her sing. So pleased was he with the possibilities of her voice that he urged her to guard her golden treasure with care, to avoid indiscriminate singing until she should be trained and perfected under the best teachers. He recommended her to devote her life to song, and told her, with a prophetic glimpse, that she would be numbered among the world's greatest singers.

Under the enthusiastic teaching of Edwin Holand of the Guildhall School of Music, and other masters, her training was continued until she was ready for her first public appearance. Her intense love of Scotland, a patriotism that seems the keynote of her whole nature, led her to realize the possibilities of the old Gaelic ballads, the heart songs of her people, and when Glasgow recognized her genius, her fame quickly spread through Great Britain, and the doors of conservative London opened in welcome.

At Balmoral she was commanded to sing before Queen Victoria, who expressed her royal appreciation by presenting to her a superb bracelet. For nearly two and a half centuries no Highlander had been summoned to the throne—the latest one being a MacCrimmon piper who, in 1651, had the honor of performing before the King and kissing his hand.

Miss MacLachlan's voice is a rich full soprano, vibrant with feeling and dramatic power. It is not the mere singing, the mere succession of pure liquid notes, that rouses her audiences; it is the magnetic force of her personality, her absorption of the spirit of the song that carries the words from the heart of some Scotch poet of centuries ago to find their echoing note in the hearts of his twentieth-century fellow-countrymen.

On her fourth tour of the world she is awakening enthusiasm wherever her voice is heard, and is now singing in Australia. In Boston, before an audience of 5,000, when she gave the stirring martial air, "WI' a Hundred Pipers," men jumped on chairs and waved their hands and shouted. In Toronto, encore after encore inspired new songs, until the singer grew wearied—a welcome typical of her entire tour.

Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year 1905, by W. C. Mack, at the Department of Agriculture.

At Bishop Fraser's first ordination one of the archdeacons was asking an old friend of the bishop's how he accounted for the hold with the bishop, even then, had taken of the diocese. "The great point about Fraser," was the friend's reply, "is that if he sees anything needs doing, and he can do it he does it!"

At that moment the door of the room opened, and the bishop appeared carrying a coal scuttle in his hand. He had seen that the fire replenishing, and, instead of asking anyone else, he got the coals himself. "That," whispered the bishop's old friend, "is an example of what I mean."

They Appeal to Our Sympathies.

The bilious and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. There is not one of them, however, who may not be brought back to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. These tablets invigorate the digestion. They also regulate the bowels. For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

"Have you any fireworks suitable for small children?" asks the young mother.

"Yes ma'am" answers the dealer.

"We have some splendid firecrackers, Roman candles, and all such things."

"But I fear my little boy is not old enough for them."

"Then here are some pinwheels, and—"

"O the very thing! Have you—"

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale at Parkes's Drug Store.

Beware of Summer Germs

Will Cause Sickness Unless Stomach is Strengthened With Mi-o-na.

One tablet of Mi-o-na taken before each meal during the summer month whenever the stomach is out of order, or the digestion weak, will do more than any other treatment to prevent the diseases caused by germs at this season.

If the stomach is weak so that food does not readily digest in it, the food will become a sour, slimy, fermenting mass in the digestive organs the ideal condition for germs to cause bowel trouble, diarrhoea, or other summer illness.

Mi-o-na will soothe and heal the irritated mucous membrane of the stomach and digestive tract, stimulate the solar plexus, and strengthen the whole nervous system. This remarkable remedy will make the whole digestive system so healthy, clean and sweet that food cannot ferment, and any disease germs which may enter the stomach will be destroyed.

Just one small tablet out of a fifty cent box of Mi-o-na before eating, and you will have no headaches, back-ache, poor appetite, distress after eating, heart-burn, furred tongue, sleeplessness, or general debility. It will tone up the digestive system and give perfect health and strength.

Take Mi-o-na now, and MacFarlane & Co. will guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. The risk is all theirs.

"There's nothing like perseverance. It wins out in the long run." "Not always. Did you ever see a hen on a porcelain egg?"
