Ayer's

Why is it that Ayer's Hair Vigor does so many remarkable things? Because it is a hair food. It feeds the hair, puts new life into it. The hair cannot keep from growing. And gradually all the dark, rich color of early life comes back to gray hair.

When I first used Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair was about all gray. But now it is as rich black, and as thick as I could wish."

Gray Hair

Corner Concerns.

Mr. John Baird, of New York, paid a short visit to friends in this part last week. His brother George also came up from Toronto to spend a few days before going West.

Mrs. Smallman, of Toronto, is spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Grasby, who is still very ill.

Mr. John Hornsby is one of our promising young men. Last week he bought a new buggy from Barclay & Bell which is the handsomest in this part and will give him an extra tone.

Mr. Archibald Baird is on the sick list at present and Dr. Brown is in attendance. We hope he may soon recover though his illness is pretty severe.

The hope we expressed last week that Miss Janet Marshall would recover from a severe attack on inflammation was not realized and on Wednesday evening the brittle thread was broken and allowed her bright spirit to pass into the Promised Land of the true and righteous, which caused feelings of sadness with her many friends and especially in her home where she will be so much missed. She had just reached womanhood the period when life seems to hold so much and to be cut down so suddenly seems sad indeed for the sorrowing friends who have the heartfelt sympathy of all in their sad bereavement. The funeral service in the absence of Rev. Mr. Campbell was conducted by Mr. Wm. Allan and the remains were followed to Maplewood cemetery by a large number of sorrowing friends.

Miss Mary Mack leaves this Wednesday to resume her duties in the dressmaking business in Brandon.

Mr. Wm. Johnston was at the Stratford Hospital last week having a finger amputated which had been rendered useless through injury some weeks ago.

J. Hoellins threshing engine and separator broke through a bridge at Orchardville on the gravel road on Friday and did considerable damage to the outfit. A better class of road bridges and culverts should be constructed in the future owing to the large engines being used. To make bridges of dry cedar stringers covered with green poles is uselessly spent money.

MULL CORNERS.

Most of the farmers here have their wheat sowed and some have finished harvesting. The oats were a good crop but peas seem to have been a failure.

School has again reopened and the youngsters are once more chased off to school each against their will.

Mr. Dan McCormack left last week for the west and is going to try teaching in the prairie province.

Mr. James McDonald is assisting Chas. McCormack with the harvest.

We wonder where the Ostrich is now, or if he just appears at certain times of the year.

Miss Fodie McKinnon of Durham is visiting cousins here.

High Dive Artists

Kincardine has many expert swimmers and exponents of high diving, but it remained on Tuesday for John McGregor, Southcott Davey and John Johnston to come to the front in the latter art. They have been diving from the derrick at Walter Burnside's coal yard on the north dock and looking for a higher elevation, struck upon the Huron Terrace St. bridge as being a suitable place to give an exhibition. The distance from the bridge floor to the water is fully thirty feet. Davey made three, and McGregor two successful dives, while Johnston's three headers included two from the bridge railing which is about four feet in height. The performers of the feat are about eighteen years of age.—Review.

Teacher Wanted.

TEACHER WANTED FOR SCHOOL Section No. 3, Havelock. Applications will be received up to September 25th for a teacher holding a Second Class Professional Certificate. Personal application preferred. Salary $400.

WM. RITCHIE, Sec'y, Edge Hill, P. O.

Flesherton.

The Penrith (England) Observer of the 8th inst., refers to a Culgaith equine veteran as follows: "Yesterday Mr. M. K. Richardson, an ex-member of the Canadian Parliament, who is on a visit to his brother, Mr. Joseph Richardson, Culgaith, drove from that village to Penrith on his way to the north. The distance, a good eight miles, was done by Mr. Richardson's well known horse 'The Doctor,' in less than an hour, though the animal is 36 years old. The Doctor finished quite fresh, and left for home after a feed and short rest as briskly as many a six year old." Mr. Richardson, we might say, is still in England, and in a letter to us a few days ago reports a very enjoyable visit amidst the scenes of his youth.

With a view toward obtaining his recovery, the T. Eaton Co., Toronto, took up the case of Mr. John W. Field, one of their employees, while the latter was in the city lately disposing of his household effects prior to moving here, and employed a specialist to examine and pronounce upon the ailment, the result being the same as other specialists have pronounced it, namely "Sarcoma," with no hope of recovery. Since returning here from the city Mr. Field has gradually become worse and the end of his suffering is not likely to be prolonged. He has the sympathy of his many old friends as well as new ones in this, his sad affliction. The Eaton firm is to be commended for their efforts to preserve his life. Mr. Field's wife and three children accompanied him from Toronto and are now with him at the home of his mother here.

It is with a feeling of sadness and real sympathy for the bereaved ones we announce this week the early departure from this life of Mr. Thomas Cook, who after a lingering illness passed peacefully away on Sunday evening last at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook, Ceylon. The most careful nursing had been given and the best medical skill had been employed to save his life, but the disease, which was tubercular in character, could not be overcome. The deceased who was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Cook, was born at Ceylon nearly 24 years ago and was a very highly respected young man in the community. Having been for some time a brakeman on the C. P. R. the van of a train on Monday was draped in mourning in respect to the deceased. His sorrowing parents and sisters have many friends who sincerely sympathize with them in their bereavement. The funeral will take place to the public cemetery here to-morrow (Tuesday) when Rev. Dr. Caldwell will officiate and will be assisted by Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, of Markdale, and Rev. T. Watson, of Keady. Mr. Cook was a member of the Chosen Friends under whose auspices the funeral will be conducted and he also belonged to one of the Railroad Brotherhoods.

"A very pleasing event," says the Alliston Herald of the 17th inst., took place on Nelson street on Monday afternoon, when Mrs. J. Mitchell celebrated her 87th birthday. Mrs. J. Bemrose, of Toronto, received with her mother, while Miss Mitchell, as assisted by Misses Fletcher, Martindale Packham, Bunker, Mullen and Fife, attended the tea room, which was beautifully decorated with flowers. Miss Lulu Bunker gracefully attended at the door. The guests numbered about sixty and among those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Young, New York. Mrs. Mitchell received a number of magnificent presents. Mr. George Mitchell, Banker, and Mrs. M. K. Richardson, of this place, are son and niece respectively of the esteemed lady who notwithstanding her years is in the enjoyment of good health. We are pleased to have her acquaintance and join in congratulations.

Mrs. W. J. White has purchased from Mr. W. Richardson the residence on Spring street she and Mr. White have occupied the past few years. Mrs. White has also bought the Robina Smith property on the same street.

Mr. Charlie McMullen and several other young men in this vicinity are leaving this week for the wheat fields of the North West.

Mr. John Runstadler and Dr. Murray each favored your cor. a few days ago with a mess of speckled trout the finest we have seen for many days. The treat was very much enjoyed.

A party of picnickers went to Kimberley on Monday. The little event was in honor of Miss Shaw, the guest of Mrs. Willett.

Mr. Edgar Bellamy, President, Mrs. Thorston, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong and Miss Wass are the delegates elected by the League to attend the Epworth League Convention at Berkeley to-morrow, Tuesday.

Miss Ella Barnhouse, of Toronto, formerly of this place, has, we are pleased to note, been so successful in her studies as to pass for teacher's certificate at the recent examinations.

Mr. Wm. Strain, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, is on an extended visit with his brother, Joseph, at Inistoga and was in town last week calling on old friends. Mr. Strain's youngest son, Fred, who has been a student in the University at Ann Arbor has, we learn, recently received the degree of B. A., and his youngest daughter, Clara, having obtained a teacher's certificate has taken charge of a school at Goldfield's, Nevada. We are pleased to learn of the success of our young friends and tender congratulations.

DARING ROBBERY IN PETROLIA.

While walking over the flats yesterday morning about eleven o'clock, Mrs. E. McDermand was robbed of her purse by a footpad. She was carrying her restle over her arm when she felt two or three tags at it. The third time the chain broke and the robber quickly opened the purse and rifled it of its contents. Mrs. McDermand immediately gave the alarm and as she furnished a good description of the robber it will not be long before he is in the toils of the law, as the description fits an ex-jail bird who has just been liberated. We have since learned that a young man named Brydges was arrested in the afternoon by P. C. Esson, and has confessed. He will come up for trial to-day.—Wyoming Enterprise.
