ALEX. RUSSELL.

Flesherton.

At the ripe age of 84 years and 5 months Mr. David Wood, a respected resident of Artemesia for nearly half a century, passed away on Wednesday of last week at his home on the east back line after a short illness. The funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery on Friday afternoon and the remains were interred beside those of his wife who preceded him in death six years ago. Rev. Dr. Caldwell assisted by Rev. J. B. Wass conducted the burial service. The deceased was born in Eniskillen, County Fermannagh, Ireland, on March 19, 1821. When quite young he entered the employ of his uncle, a merchant, with whom he remained for fourteen yrs. In 1850 he emigrated to Canada coming by way of New York to Toronto where in February 1852 he was married to Mary Ann Graham, daughter of the late Mr. Johnston Little. In March 1856 he came to Artemesia where he since lived and made for himself and family a comfortable home. The deceased for the past two years enjoyed second sight and could read comfortably the finest print without glasses. Being a great reader he was well informed and had laudable ambitions for the education of his family several of whom have graced the teaching profession. In religion he was a life long Methodist, for many years a member of the church here, and so lived that his end was peace. Mr. Wood was the father of ten children five of whom survive him as follows: J. L. Wood, teacher at Ceylon; Mrs. D. B. Brown Orangeville; Mrs. W. J. Magee, near Eugenia and Miss M. E. Wood at home. Two brothers also survive him, Robert in the old land and John in Peterborough. His brother Archibald, banker at Millbrook, died a year ago.

A death which has caused universal sympathy in the community for the bereaved parents was that of Mary Lillian, the bright little eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Down, of the 4th line, who died on Friday last. She was, as reported by us last week, ill with appendicitis, but was improving and good hopes for her recovery entertained till Thursday evening when she suddenly relapsed and rapidly sank till she passed away. The funeral took place to the public cemetery here on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended by sympathizing friends. Rev. Dr. Caldwell conducted the funeral service. The Methodist Sabbath School here marched from the church to the grave, and after viewing the remains as they were consigned to the tomb sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The coffin was covered with floral tributes among them being a beautiful wreath from the scholars of the Portlaw day school who thus showed their love for their little companion so suddenly called away. We join in the sincere sympathy expressed for the grief-stricken parents.

Turner-Rutledge-At the Methodist Parsonage 128 University Ave., Toronto, by the Rev. T. E. Bartley, on Thursday, Sept. 7th, at 9.30 a. m., Mr. Isaac H. Turner, of Winnipeg, Man., was married to Margaret H. Rutledge, of this place. The bride- maid was Miss Winnifred Hamilton of Toronto, and Mr. Thos. Strain of Thessalon, acted as best man. The young couple arrived here on Saturday and after spending a couple of weeks at the home of the bride and with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Turner, Eugenia, will take up their residence in Winnipeg. We join in congratulations and wish Mr. and Mrs. Turner many years of happiness together.

Stephens-Cameron-At the Manse Flesherton, on Monday forenoon, Rev. L. W. Thom united in marriage Mr. Stephens and Miss Isabella Cameron, both of Wiarton.

Mr. John Chard has sold his 50 acre farm east of the village to his neighbor, Mr. Robert Best, and has bought the Morrow farm, 160 acres west of Markdale. Mr. Chard makes the change to go more largely into stock raising.

Mr. McKenzie Duncan has leased from Mr. W. Caswell the old Hales homestead on the Durham Road.

Dr. Murray has added a gasometer to his dental office outfit. Patients may now sleep peacefully under the soothing influence of gas while the painful molars are being removed.

Mr. Jos. H. Watson, near Mount Zion, has been under Dr. Carter's care for some days suffering from some injuries received by falling from a load of grain. Mr. Watson is improving but slowly.

Master Charlie Bellamy had a narrow escape from serious injury last week. Testing some powder a spark from the brimstone of a match unexpectedly ignited it and in the explosion one side of his face and one arm was considerably burnt.

Mr. Fred Chard west of the village has had his residence veneered with brick which greatly improves its appearance.

Mr. Albert Stewart lost one of his horses a few days ago. The hired man was returning from Ceylon when it reared in the buggy shafts and fell striking its head with such violence on a stone as to cause its death.

Mr. P. Loucks came near losing a valuable cow last week by an apple she swallowed lodging in her throat. She was discovered only in the nick of time and it was with some difficulty the obstruction was removed.

Gowanbank, Woodstock, the residence of Mrs. R. E. Fulton, was the scene of a charming wedding yesterday afternoon," says the Globe of Thursday last when Mr. B. H. W. Stewart, of the Woodstock Lumber Company was married to Miss Bessie M. Fulton, second daughter of the late R. R. Fulton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. McMullen assisted by Rev. R. S. Laidlaw, Belleville, and Rev. J. A. McDonald, Toronto. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Charles Pye Clarksbury, and was attended by Miss Sarah E. Fulton as maid of honor, Miss I. Claire Stewart and Miss Florence Fulton, bridesmaids, and Miss Grace McClenaghan, flower girl. The groomsmen were Mr. W. E. James, Toronto, and the ushers were Mr. E. H. Watson and Mr. J. P. McGregor, Toronto. A large number of guests from the city were present. Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Carter, Flesherton; Mrs. Pye, Clarksbury; Mrs. McCrae, Guelph; Mrs. Laidlaw, Belleville; Mrs. J. A. McDonald and Mrs. Alfred Hall, Toronto; Mrs. Dayfoot, Mount Morris, N. Y.; Miss Catherine Wilson, Hamilton; Mr. J. B. Dayfoot, Boston. The decorations were in mauve and white. Many handsome presents testified to the popularity of the bride. The newly wedded pair left for a tour of the eastern cities and on their return will reside in Woodstock." On the occasion of the bride's visit to her aunt, Mrs. Carter, here, she made numerous friends who wish her much happiness in her married life.

Communion service was held in Chalmer's church here on Sabbath last. Rev. J. A. Matheson, of Priceville, preached at the preparatory service on Friday.

The Elders of Chalmers church and their wives were entertained at the Manse by Mr. and Mrs. Thom on Monday evening.

Word has reached here on Friday that Mr. Samuel Fisher, of Eugenia, who went a few weeks ago to work in Hickling Bros. mill at Sundridge had come in contact with a saw and had his leg so badly cut at the knee that it may have to be amputated. He was conveyed to Huntsville hospital and his wife left here on Monday to be with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Loucks drove to Meaford on Friday and visited friends till Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart and children visited friends at Clarksbury over Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. W. J. Bellamy and Master Robert visited friends in Nottawasaga last week.

Mrs. Charlie Armstrong, of Markdale, was the guest of Mrs. Hickling on Thursday last.

Miss Mabel Boyd left on Monday to attend Alma College, St. Thomas.

Miss Matheson has returned to again take charge of Boyd, Hickling & Co's millinery.

Mr. W. J. Boyd returned on Saturday from his extended trip visiting the principal cities to the coast and going as far as Portland. Mr. Boyd met many old friends from Ont. among them Mr. R. N. Henderson, who is doing well in Winnipeg and Mr. Thos. Sargeant, who some years ago farmed near Proton Station, but who is now Chief of the Fire Brigade and doing well at Nelson B. C.

Miss Carrie Sullivan is home from Montreal holidaying for a couple of weeks with her parents here.

Traverston.

Fall wheat is all in and in several cases up rank and growthy looking. Messrs. John McNally, Pat Ryan the cartoonist, and Will Ryan, of the 4th con. were down to the big Toronto fair and had a most enjoyable time.

Mr. Will Timmins is slowly but surely regaining health.

Mr. Ed. McGrade took possession of the Dulan homestead last week and has his sisters comfortably domiciled in their new home. Ed. purposes going to British Columbia again as soon as threshing is over. Mrs. Dulan has been one of the hospitable, pioneer mothers of this neighborhood. We have heard that she has removed to Markdale to spend her declining days.

Mr. Thos. Blair is excavating a cellar the full size of his home and is going to have a stone wall built under the same. Mr. John Timmins has the contract.

We have heard that Mr. Wm Paylor is also having a cellar dug under part of his home and is doing the mason work assisted by his cousin George Paylor.

Miss Florence Hunt left on Tuesday for Markdale to resume her millinery duties with Mrs. Sproule.

One of the best acts of the township Fathers this year, has been the painting and renovating of the T. P. Hall. McDougall & Son made a splendid job and the building is a creditable place to the rat-payers.

When it comes to a matter of exhibiting pluck, vim and endurance, Mr. R. Jack will easily take first place. He went to town and on Saturday evening had quite a large and courageous growth cut from the back of his hand. No anaesthetics were administered and the plucky old Scot directed the skillful surgeon where to cut.

Miss Flora Stewart, who has summered with different members of the family, returns to Rochester this week.

"An Irishman," says the Rochester Times, "recently went before Judge Stephens to be naturalized. 'Have you read the Declaration of Independence?' the Court asked. 'I have not,' said Pat. 'Have you read the Constitution of the United States?' 'I have not, yer Honor.' The Judge looked sternly at the applicant and asked: 'Well, what have you read?' Patrick hesitated but the fraction of a second before replying: 'I have read hairs on me neck, yer Honor.'
