MRS. T. HILL, of Grand Ledge, Michigan, but formerly of Varney, is amongst the latest to do us out of our subscription. The postmaster informs us of her "refusal" to take the paper out of the office. Before leaving Varney she held her holy hands up in horror at the conduct of some of the people there. We thought she was honest enough to pay for her paper, but the widow's mite, now grown to five dollars, doesn't seem to come. There are women as well as men who do up the poor innocent printer. May the Lord have mercy on her poor carcass.

MR. JOHN MURPHY, of this place, who recently purchased the Middaugh House, Durham, has rented the hotel to Mr. Millhausen, of Stratford, who takes possession immediately. With the intent of making it one of the finest hostleries in the county. Mr. Millhausen will commence at once to thoroughly renovate the place, and will add many conveniences not hitherto possessed by any hotel in Grey.—Markdale Standard. [Mr. M. was here Monday to make arrangements for taking immediate possession but the deal was not made, and Mr. Davis, the present proprietor, will run the place till December next.—Ed.]

IT was with feelings of real regret that we learned the intention of Dr. Macdonald to give up his business in Durham and go West. Two weeks ago he took a prospecting tour no doubt to Manitoba and the North-West. No sooner apparently had he reached Regina and Edmonton than he saw a field open, and at once wrote Mrs. Macdonald here to dispose of their household effects and get ready for a long move. The Doctor has made many friends here during the time he has been with us. He has shown good ability as a medical practitioner and great skill as a surgeon. He and Mrs. Macdonald have proved admirable citizens. Much as we regret to lose them we are confident the course decided on is a wise one. Wherever they settle our best wishes go with them.

AFTER a long period of declining health from lung trouble Mr. R. B. Bott died on Monday last about noon. The deceased, who was thirty-five years of age was born in Staffordshire, England. In 1881 he came to Canada with his parents and settled in Bentinck. The greater portion of his manhood days were spent in the vicinity of Wroxeter. He was in the West

Gain and Loss. You women are queer. For in a girl cries when she's getting as if she were losing a husband of getting one. She—Yes, she's losing a lover.

DRESSMAKING Apprentices Wanted. Apprentices to learn dressmaking. Apply to Miss M. Sharpe over Levine's store.

THE Harvest Home Anniversary Services of the Methodist church at Varney will be held on October 8th and 9th. Rev. T. J. Smith, of Elmwood, formerly of Varney will preach the anniversary service. On Monday evening our Harvest Home entertainment will be given consisting of vocal and instrumental music, readings, recitations and speeches. A rare treat is expected. All are welcome. Adults 15 cents, children 10 cents.—3t.

MR. AND MRS. CALDER are in much trouble at present over the serious illness of their little son Wilfrid, who is suffering from appendicitis of the worst type. On Monday afternoon last Dr. Groves of Fergus came up and operated on the child. At the time of writing, Tuesday afternoon, he is doing fairly well, but little can yet be said what the result will be. We sincerely hope the fond parents may be spared the life of their boy, and know not for many years to come the meaning of true sorrow.

BUTTER in two minutes. You may laugh at the idea, but that was the actual result of a churning test we saw on Monday last at home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan McKinnon. Dr. Rogers of Ingersoll spent a few days visiting Inspector Oampbell and his town friends. He brought a new kind of churn with him and to test what it would actually do, he and Mr. Campbell went out to the homes of a number of farmers and made butter in less than ten minutes in every case. At the test to which we refer at Mr. McKinnon's, there were present Dr. Jamieson, Inspector Campbell, Editor Ramage, Dr. Rogers, Thos. Livingston and the Editor of this paper. Dr. Jamieson and Ye Editor were time-keepers, and after two minutes churning by Dr. Rogers butter was formed and in two minutes and thirty seconds the whole job was completed, the result being as nice a lot of granulated butter as you ever clapped eyes on. The churn is a very simple concern, and the inventor has already made a fortune out of it. More will likely be heard of it in this section shortly.

Milk or cream at any stage of "ripening" can be churned readily, and it seems as though farmers by adopting Cream Separators and this Churn might convert the cow product into butter every day and save much labor in the dairy. We neglected making enquiry about the price of the Churn, but is so simple that it cannot cost very much.

Mr. Geo. Sparling went to St. Marys Monday morning to see Mr. Shiers, Geo. Shier's father, who is quite low from injuries received in an accident not long since.

Mrs. W. Banks, of North Bay, left Monday morning after spending a couple of weeks with her mother, Mrs. Porter, and other relatives in town and vicinity.

Dr. Brown, of Holstein, gave a number of well rendered vocal selections as well as a couple of piano instrumental. Mrs. Newton is always good, and on this occasion was in excellent form for her piano selections.

Miss Margaret Hunter gave a couple of nice recitals. This is the first time we heard from her in the elocutionary line, and we feel that she has a bright future before her. She has a good personality, and a pleasing appearance which takes well with the audience. Grand concert in the evening. Principals Harvey Lloyd renowned comedian, and Miss Pearl O'Neil, popular elocutionist, and entertainer, Toronto. Seating capacity for 1,000 people. Single fare on all G. T. R. lines. For prize lists and further particulars apply to M. B. FLYNN, Secretary.

R. TORRY, Capt., South Grey Rifle Association.

SOUTH GREY FALL FAIR.

The Durham Fair was held on Wednesday and Thursday of last week and was the record breaker of the Society if we measure results from the gate receipts which amounted to over $400.

The weather couldn't have been better. Up to noon Thursday there seemed to be but few in town. From that on, however, vehicles could be seen pouring in from every direction. The streets were lined with conveyances, the stables were filled to overflowing, and surging crowds might be seen on their way to the grounds, some going through the gate, while others crawled under or over the fences to demonstrate their dishonesty in order to escape the gate charges.

The hall was fitted out about as usual. We can scarcely say there was any material changes in it. Roots and fruits and flowers and cereals were largely in evidence, all of good variety and surpassing in quality what many expected this year. Upstairs were the usual quilts, fancy work, painting, photographs, butter, cheese, bread, buns, pies, wines, honey, etc., etc.

The paintings and drawings were said to be good. Kelsey had a large exhibit of photos. The Farmers' Mfg. & Supply Co. had a corner to themselves, where they had on exhibition a fine display of separators, sewing machines, organs, stoves, and other articles.

For Shorthorn cattle, the prize list seems to show that Scarf & Sons are the whole thing. They certainly deserve credit for the high standard to which they try to bring up the class of cattle and pigs.

The Expert Cattle Judge didn't seem to suit the crowd, but we haven't heard any particular dissatisfaction regarding the judging of horses, though some of them were thrown out altogether and no prize given. The class of horses here do not seem to have reached the same degree of excellence as the cattle, which of course should be a warning for better breeding. The scrub horse would do all right for hacking around fifty years ago, but today we need something better.

Women's fine wool mits, omitted from Prize List should be credited to H. McDonald 1st, A. McClinton 2nd.

For "Brood Mare foal at foot," "Foal of 1905," "One year old filly" and "One year old gelding" the judge decided the animals exhibited were not deserving a prize and made no award.

In Hereford cattle A. S. Hunter is a heavy prize taker.

Among the prize takers in sheep the names of A. Muir, Brigham Bros., Wm. Herd, J. Fairbairn, W. A. Livingston stand out prominently.

Mr. Herd exhibited six mangolds that weighed 118 lbs.

Dan Campbell had a good display of stoves, sewing machines and other agricultural and domestic necessities.

The races were the most interesting feature of the Fair and were well contested. The prizes in the Open Trot were taken as follows:—(1) Vicky Clock. (2) John Nolan. (3) Little Pete. Best time 2:24.

The 2:35 Trot or Pace—(1) Cyniska (2) Jim Sim, (Robert Scott's, Durham.) (3) Coun Boy. Best time 2:49.

Farmers' Trot—(1) May Erie. (2) Jim Gray. (3) Sorrel Maggie. Best time 4:50.
