FAMOUS PEOPLE

BY FANNIE M. LOTHROP

MARGARET ANGLIN

Canada's Successful Young Actress

Miss Margaret Anglin, the popular young Canadian actress, has manifested her individuality on many occasions—and in her portrayal of Camille in Dumas she defied the conventions by creating the rôle on new lines, making the heroine a sweet, simple, sincere ingénue, uncontaminated by the atmosphere in which she lived. The actress made a strong defence for her conception of the character and gave chapter and verse from the writer of the play to prove her contention.

Miss Anglin was born in Ottawa in 1876, and here first asserted her individuality by choosing as the scene of her début on earth the hallowed precincts of the House of Parliament, her father at that time being Speaker of the House of Commons. Her early education was at Loretto Abbey, Toronto, and the Convent of the Sacred Heart at Montreal. At the age of seventeen she determined to go on the stage, and went to New York to study at the Empire School of Dramatic Acting, and began to show her ability by her clever character work in two matinees given by the students.

In 1894 she made her professional debut at the Academy of Music in New York in Bronson Howard's successful play "Shenandoah." A season of barnstorming and the cares, trials and troubles incident to one-night stands proved of value in giving her a deeper insight into certain phases of life, in increasing her repertoire, and in preparing her for her later successes.

In 1896-7 Miss Anglin, as the leading lady of James O'Neill's company, made a tour of the United States and Canada and did splendid work as Ophelia in "Hamlet," Virginia in "Virginia," Julie de Montmar in "Richard III" and Mercedes in "Monte Cristo." The ease and simplicity of her acting and her versatility were again shown in her clever portrayal of Meg in "Lord Chumley," and she rendered even more absolute and secure her place in the hearts of Canadians during her tour through the provinces.

Her brilliant acting in "Mrs. Dane's Defence" and her later work in Mr. Mansfield's company revealed the mellowing and refining of her powers and the broadening of her genius. Through all great acting runs the golden thread of personality, and the natural refinement, culture, sweetness and strength of character of the woman merely finds new expression in the work of the actress. In addition to her dramatic talent of a high order, Miss Anglin is a brilliant musician, speaks French fluently in her calm, clear, charmingly modulated voice, and is a writer of ease and grace.

Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year 1905, by W. C. Mackay, at the Department of Agriculture.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some soured meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

You can always tell a young husband from an old one by the way he acts in the garden. Three months married he digs, whistles, smiles, and casts covert glances at the house as though some one was looking at him from the window. One year married he digs, smiles by turns and seems annoyed at breakfast being late. Two years married he digs a little, looks sour and glum, kicks the dog or cat and looks towards the house as though he would like to choke somebody. Three years married he sits on the door step and smokes while his wife does the digging.

A Western lawyer recounts a story of a trial he once witnessed in a Texas court. A hard-looking tough was the defendant. His counsel, in a voice apparently husky with emotion addressed the jury something in this wise:

"Gentlemen, my client is a poor man. He was driven by hunger and want to take a small sum of money. All that he wanted was sufficient funds wherewith to buy bread, for it is evidence that he did not take the pocket containing $500 that was in the bureau drawer."

At this point the counsel for the defence was interrupted by the convulsive sobs of his client.

"Here, man!" exclaimed the judge "why are you crying so?"

"Because your honor," replied the defendant, "because I didn't see de pocket book in de drawer!"
