IN the Methodist Church next Sabbath Missionary sermons will be preached at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. by Rev. R. W. Woodworth, of Toronto. The offerings will be for missions.

CITIZENS who knew Mrs. Charles Sheppard will regret to learn of her recent death from an operation. Interment took place at her home at Barrie on Sunday last. Mr. Sheppard is a brother of the late Mrs. Henry Parker and he and his deceased wife are well and favorably known here.

HARVEST Home Anniversary Services will be held in Ebenezer church, Oct. 15th and 16th. Sermons preached Sunday afternoon and evening. On Monday evening an excellent program will be given. See further notice next week.

THE Epworth League Convention of the Mount Forest District will be held in Durham on Tuesday next, October 19th. A good evangelical program is being provided and a profitable time is assured. Afternoon session begins at two o'clock and the evening session at 7:30. The general public is very cordially invited to be present at all the meetings. Everything free.

THE smoke still rises from the cement mill and we understand the debt on the property at the beginning of the year is being rapidly wiped off. Director McKechnie gets credit for saying another year will clear the property of debt and pay the shareholders a dividend. They are certainly doing well this year, and if the raw material proves abundant there seems a bright future for the Company.

THE Kimberley correspondent of the Flesherton Advance was, a few weeks ago, bemoaning the fact that a pest of some sort was raising blazes with the turnip crop. Last week the editor of the Wiaront Canadian complained of rot in the potato crop. The apple crop is not of the best, either. Evidently the poor country editor won't be overburdened with "spuds" on subscription this year, and with no turnips in sight, will have to sell the old "muley" cow he got this summer on an advertising deal. There's but one end in sight. He don't eat. Our forests are rather shy, too, so there's no chance of trading this old rag of freedom off for a supply of water-logged fire-wood no one else will buy. With the cash crop about as bad as any of them, we can't sport coal, so if you read about a poor editor being found frozen to death next winter, so poor his own dog fails to recognize him, you can paste it in your hat that there's more than one class on this little ball of ours that feels the shock when the potato crop drops.

WE have some bargains to offer in ladies' and men's fur coats. S. F. Morlock.

A SONG service will be held in the Baptist Church on Sunday evening next. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

INTELLIGENCE has reached here of the serious illness of Mr. Roy Gordon, jeweller, of Weyburne, Alberta, who is suffering from typhoid fever.

THE South Grey Teachers' Institute are running an excursion to Guelph on Friday, Oct. 13th. See hand-bills for particulars; also notice on page 8 of this issue.

MR. GEO. MORTON, of the Rocky, advertised his farm in this paper a couple of weeks ago and soon found a purchaser in the person of Mr. Wm. Leggette of this town. Mr. Morton intends going West shortly.

WE regret to announce the death of Mrs. James Boulden, of Elmwood, sister of Mr. Thos. Petty, of this town. Deceased was sixty-eight years of age and ill only for a couple of weeks. The remains were interred in the Hanover cemetery on Sunday last in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.

A SHORT time ago the Trustees of Allan's Section, Egremont, decided to advertise for a teacher and placed their ads. in the Toronto Globe and Durham Chronicle. Three or four applications were received as the result of the Chronicle ad, while only one came in from the Globe's publicity. Half the people in this country don't know the value of the Chronicle as an advertising medium. It generally brings results.

ANNIVERSARY Services of the Baptist Church in Glenelg will be held on October 8th and 9th. Rev. L. F. Kipp, B. A., of Strathavon, will preach Sunday, morning and evening. On Monday night there will be a public meeting under the auspices of the Women's Mission Circle. A good program will be carried out consisting of dialogues, recitations, music and an address by Rev. Mr. Kipp. A silver offering is requested.

THE Furniture Company had a graining machine installed during the past week by the Grand Rapids Panel Company, of Grand Rapids, Michigan. The factory is now fully able to cope with any of its competitors, and if the present pace of advancement continues, will in a short time be in an even better position to do first class work than before the fire.

ON Thursday last, as Mr. Allan Campbell, of Livingston's corners, and his sister-in-law, Miss Forman, of this place, were driving on Garafraxa st., the horse became unmanageable, and bolting, upset the buggy, throwing the occupants to the ground. Getting clear of the harness, the animal started on a lively clip up the street toward the bridge, but was captured before going far. The buggy and harness were but little the worse, considering, and the occupants of the buggy, beyond a severe scare, little the worse of the experience.

DIED.

THE Harvest Home Anniversary Services of the Methodist church at Varney will be held on October 8th and 9th. Rev. T. J. Smith, of Elmwood, formerly of Varney will preach the anniversary services on Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Special music by the choir. On Monday evening our Harvest Home entertainment will be given for which an excellent program is being provided. Dr. Brown, of Holstein, the Durham Quartette and local talent will delight all with music. Recitations, readings, drills will be especially interesting. The Rev. D. L. Campbell, of Dromore, and Rev. Chas. P. Holmes, of Holstein, and local speakers are expected. A rare treat is in store. Everybody is welcome. Program to start at 8 p. m. Adults 15 cents, children 10 cents.

FLESHERTON FAIR.

The East Grey Agricultural Society held their annual Fair in Flesherton on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. They were certainly favored with fine weather, and consequently a good turn out. We have not been following the Exhibits sufficiently to compare the show of this year with previous years. There was a good display of fancy work in the hall, as well as a good showing of fruit, vegetables, grains, flowering and foliage plants. A noticeable feature was the Educational Department containing samples of writing, drawing, and free hand sketches.

On Thursday they had their big day, when a large number of cattle, sheep, hogs and horses were brought to the grounds for exhibition purposes. Being a little out of our constituency we omit giving the prize list, which though interesting to some would be omitted by the greater portion of our readers.

In looking over the exhibits of stock we were struck with a few pens of Oxford Down sheep. Our attention would not have been arrested here any more than in front of the other pens had it not been for the unpretentious card bearing the name of the owner. The name "Jacob Laughhead" was there displayed and we ascertained from him that he had nineteen sheep including a fine imported ram for which he paid $100. He had also an imported ewe of the same breed for which he paid a handsome price.

There was a fairly good exhibit of poultry, but the number seemed fewer than we usually have in South Grey.

Secretary Sproule was a busy man and spared no pains to look after the comfort of the judges and others brought in to help on the exhibition. Always courteous and ever active, Mr. Sproule seemed to outdo himself on this occasion.

Mr. Wm. Black, of Durham, has evidently a good knowledge of horses and was present to act as a judge of the light horses and the races. The fact of his going there year after year is strong evidence of the satisfaction he is giving the management generally. Rev. Mr. Franklin was in Flesherton Fair Days and told the writer it was 30 years since he last met Mr. Black, who was then engaged as a printer in St. Thomas. Mr. Franklin is the Episcopalian Clergyman at Eogenia and Maxwell, and was so delighted at meeting Mr. Black that he wished us to make mention of it.

The horse racing was the greatest feature of the Fair. It was even more popular than the colt with three jaws and two tongues. The man with the wildcat from Owen Sound had another of the side shows, that seemed to get considerable patronage.

Robert Rutherford, of Clarksburg, Walter Hartman, of St. Vincent, and John I. Graham, of Vandeleur, were amongst the exhibitors and got their share of the prizes. By the way it must be over thirty years since we previously met Mr. Hartman, then a prominent and prosperous young farmer who just moved in. We cannot account for his absence but Charlie Grant, of Thornbury, one of the biggest prize takers in the province in various kinds of grains, was not present. Of course Alex. Muir was there and had some fine pens of sheep.

Our Flesherton correspondence will in all probability give the result of the racing contests.

Morlock's Millinery Opening.

Many attended the Millinery Opening at S. F. Morlock's store on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Good taste and all the new ideas were shown and the result was a beautiful display of stylish millinery.

A pretty toque in brown panne velvet and handsome brown bandeau was trimmed with bird of paradise and osprey and touches of Alice Blue ribbon.

A girlish Charlotte Corday hat in red chenille and frayed silk was much admired.

A Napoleon shape with high back in shirred brown silk and chenille was trimmed at the back with green roses and shirred ribbon.

The rolling sailors with deep backs were much admired as also were the numerous toques, trimmed ready-to-wears, and Misses and children's hats.

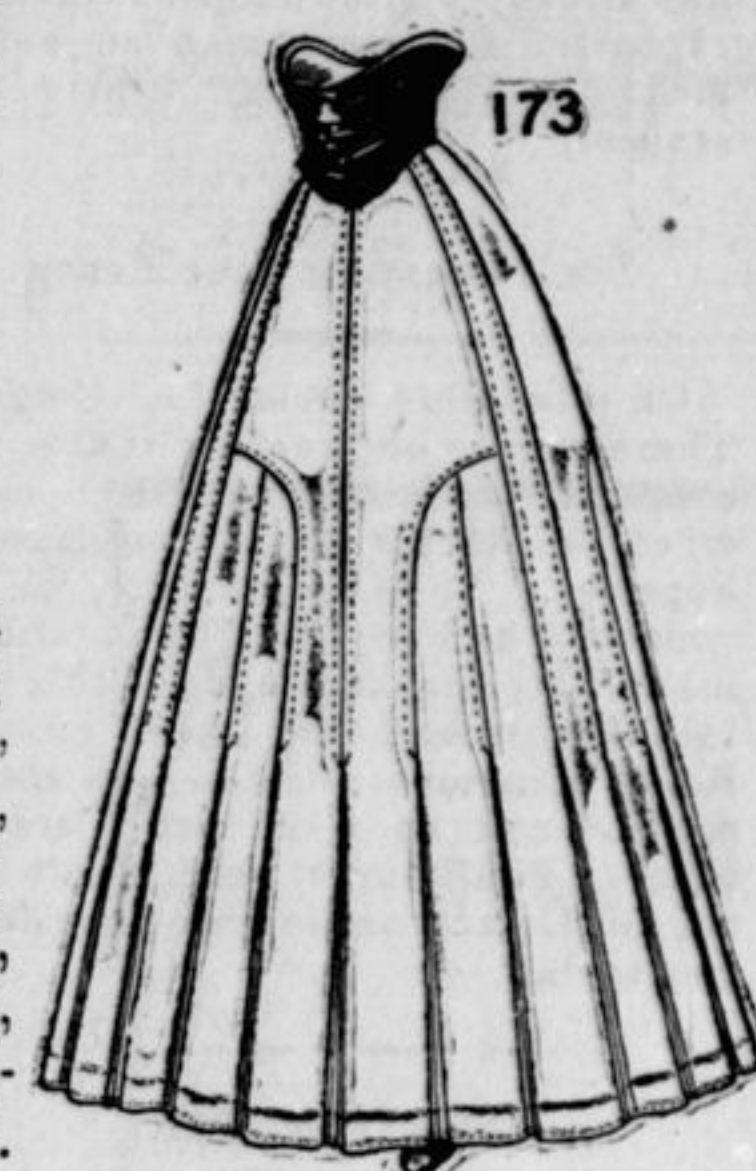

We had a call Monday from Mr. Robert Hewett who is now engaged in the sale of handsome books.

Fall Millinery...
