FAMOUS PEOPLE BY FANNIE M. LOTHROP

BARONESS BURDETT-COUTTS

The World's Greatest Woman Philanthropist. Angela Georgiana, Baroness Burdett-Coutts, the lady bountiful of England, one of the partners in the great banking house of Coutts—second only in wealth, to the Bank of England—and one of the richest peeresses in the Kingdom, has had a romantic and remarkable career in her ninety-one years. She was a close friend of Queen Victoria, and Edward VII. said of her: "Next to my mother, she is the most wonderful woman in England." She was the daughter of Sir Francis Burdett and Sophia Coutts; her maternal grandfather, Thomas Coutts, died ignoring his children, and leaving his great fortune to his second wife, who was Miss Mellon, a well-known actress. The widow later married the Duke of St. Albans, whose relatives treated her with ridicule and contempt for her verbal inaccuracies, her quaint speeches and her inability to master the social code of her set. Her will revealed her revenge when it was found that every penny of her fortune went to her step-granddaughter, Angela Burdett, then twenty-three, with the understanding that she should add a hyphen and Coutts to her name. Then Miss Burdett-Coutts, in 1837, the year Victoria became Queen, began her life of benevolence and beneficence, limiting herself to no one phase of helpfulness; but wherever she could benefit humanity her heart and her purse were open. She built and endowed St. Stephen's Church, Westminster; endowed three colonial bishoprics, secured the government adoption of traveling inspectors of schools, gave funds for the topographic survey of Jerusalem, aided emigrants on a large scale, established a home for women, fitted out hundreds of boys for the navy, suggested the formation of the East London Weavers' Association, erected model tenements, aided Sir Thomas Brooke in his work in Sarawak, helped the starving fishermen of Cape Clear Island and the poor of London and Scotland, organized the Turkish Compassionate Fund to help the peasantry during the Russo-Turkish war, and for nearly seventy years has devoted herself to charities. In 1871 the Queen made Miss Coutts a peeress, and ten years later, when she was sixty-seven years of age, she married W. L. Ashmead-Bartlett, a young American—now a member of Parliament—thirty-seven years her junior, settling on him an annuity of $250,000 a year. Surprise became consternation, and, later, genuine hostility, when it became known that the Baroness, after nursing young Bartlett through a long illness incident to his work on her Turkish charity, had married him.

Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year 1905, by W. C. Mack, at the Department of Agriculture.

FOR THE BOYS AND GIRLS.

Pharos and the Circle of Young Canada are household words among the boys, girls and young people in thousands of homes throughout Canada and the British Empire. School teachers and parents are also constant readers of the Book Club chats, nature notes, items of interest to boys, and countless letters written by the members of the Circle. The information given is interesting, while the efforts of the young correspondents in preparing their letters are helpful and inspiring. This page of The Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer is not only entertaining, but highly beneficial to its readers. It broadens their outlook, widens their sympathies and increases their knowledge. To get the young people in our homes to identify themselves with an effort of this kind proves a strong incentive in promoting their education and in developing their characters.

Lord Inverclyde, chairman of the Cunard Steamships Co. died in Scotland on Sunday from pleuro-pneumonia.

The remains of a child have been found in a box in the garret of a vacant house in Sarnia. Medical men say the child has been dead two years.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known travelling man who visits the drug trade says he often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed.
