The Edge Hill Union Sunday School. held its annual social in the Grange were not very good but this did not deter a large crowd from turning out to this closing exercise of the Sanday School for 1905.

Tea was served from 8 to 9 when willing waiters passed around the abundance of dainties which were generously provided by the ladies. After tea, Mr R. T. Edwards was called upon to act as chalrman, which position he filled most acceptably in his usual, racy, jovial; manner. He makes an ideal chairman The program was long and varied, consisting of recitations, readings, solos. duets, and instrumental music. There were also several choruses which were well received. We never heard a program go off better. All those who took part seemed to be at their best while the very best order prevailed throughout the evening. A recitation of six verses given by CUSTOM WORK and George Williams the little five yearold son of Mr. Harry Williams, deserved particular mention. He spoke out very clearly so that his voice could be distinctly heard in every part of the crowded room.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Ritchie rendered some fine instrumental music, but we will not begin to comment upon the different parts of the program.

A collection taken up during the evening amounted to $4.60. The Superintendent's report showed that the average attendance this was 50, a very creditable showing. The collection for the six months amounted WE to $16.08. A grant of $7 50, was made to the Muskoka Hospital for WANT consumptives and $14.00 was invested in the Library which now consists of 500 volumes. At the close of the program the children were given a treat of candies and the meeting brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared."
