

Broken Sleep—Tired Next Morning

Sleep not only rests, but builds up the body. Cut down the hours of sleep and you cut down health in the same proportion.

To restore sleep you must get more bodily strength, more nutritious blood, healthier nerves. Ferrozone solves the whole problem.

"Speaking of the strenuous life," said a Mount Forest bachelor, who is too busy to even think of getting married.

What Flour Granulation Means in Bread-Making

Flour is composed of myriads of tiny granules.

To make good bread these granules must be uniform in size.

In poorly milled flour some granules are large, some small.

The small ones absorb yeast, "rise" and "ripen" before the large ones—the result is bread of coarse, poor texture.

The large granules are not developed into "sponge," they bake into heavy hard particles, spoil the texture of the bread and make it harder to digest.

ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR is perfectly milled—all the flour granules are uniform in size—the sponge rises uniformly—the bread is even in texture—perfect in flavor—good-looking, appetising bread—easily digested.

Ogilvie's back it with their reputation by branding it

Ogilvie's Royal Household Flour.

A woman living in a town not far from New York commissioned her husband while in the city to purchase a motto for the Sunday-school.

When a Spade is not a Spade.

'Twas at a Browning meeting, And there you might have seen, Those female Gorgons said to walk In hose ultramarine

But there was one was missing From that most learned throng; "Where is she?"—towards her bosom friend The question passed along.

'Twas thus the lady answered: "Alas, poor Caroline Has o'er her optic organ A residence for swine."

Holstein.

(Crowded out last week.)

Mr. S. T. Orchard has taken unto himself the woman of his choice in the person of Miss Martha Pollock, of this village.

Miss Charlotte Pollock left last Wednesday to spend the winter with her brother at Niagara.

Messrs. Reg. Hunt and Geo. Walker went to Stratford last week but returned Friday.

Mr. T. J. Jordan, general merchant of this village, has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors to Mr. Geo. T. Calder.

Mr. A. Moyer's new residence is about complete and, we understand, he will move in next week.

The petition asking that a vote on local option be submitted to the rate-payers of this municipality, has been circulated and largely signed and will be presented to the township council at the next sitting.

Forty-five years nine months and three days previous to the 11th inst. Mr. Jacob E. Burrows first saw the light of day and on the above mentioned date, in the town of Paisley he calmly fell asleep.

Mr. Alex. Mitchell returned from New Ontario on Friday of last week. Alex. had spent two weeks in the land of the moose but failed to secure any of the monarchs of the forest having had to content himself with "seeing tracks."

THE CORN CROP.

The Western corn crop is full to overflowing, and many are the tales coming from the land of the setting sun.

"A small boy," the story runs "had climbed up onto a stalk to see one particularly large cob. On turning and attempting to regain mother earth, he discovered that the stalk was going heavenward faster than he could go earthward.

Arriving at the pearly gates, he was admitted by St. Peter, who, after presenting him with the crown and harp that was to be his forevermore, made him acquainted with the chair he was to occupy.

"No," said St. Peter, casting his eyes over the Ledger, "he's not here, but a boy answering his description passed through here just a week ago to-day on a cornstalk."

Edge Hill.

Mr. Chas. Cotton is engaged with Mr. Robt. Ector at present.

There was a dancing party at Mr. Geo. Staples on Wednesday night. Those who were present report a very good time.

Mr. Alex. McLean, whom we reported last week as suffering with inflammation of the eye, has gone to the hospital for further treatment.

Mr. Robt. Ector Sr., was somewhat under the weather for a few days, but is now improving nicely.

Mr. Dan H. Firth has returned to his duties with McFarland, Stafford & Co., Markdale. Dan's two weeks at home agreed with him and he takes up his work again much recuperated in health.

A party was given last Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Firth. A few of the older people were present along with the young folks and a very pleasant evening was spent.

METAL PENS.

One of Ancient Roman Make Has the Distinctive Slit.

Some curious one has collected a mass of interesting facts concerning metallic pens. Some of these references run back as far as the fourteenth and even the thirteenth century, and, curiously enough, in the case of the manuscript of Robert d'Artois, the forger scribe, is said to have used a bronze pen in order to disguise his writing and make his deception more safe.

A Roman metal pen is said to have been found at Aosta, not a mere stylus, but a bronze pen slit, and there is some evidence of a pen or reed of bronze nearly as early as the invention of printing in the fifteenth century. More than a hundred years ago some steel pens were made in Birmingham for Dr. Priestly, and some of these placed into the hands of Sir Josiah Mason in his early days with Mr. Harrison, but all seem to have been lost.

The first pen of metal of a definite date, beyond all question, is one in a Dutch patent book of 1717. At about the same time a polite ode of Pope's refers to a "steel and golden pen," but these were evidently luxuries only, and it was not until about the end of the first quarter of the last century that metallic pens became more generally in use. In the "Local Notes and Queries" in the Birmingham Weekly Post definite evidence has been given of steel pens as early as 1806 and more commonly in 1817, but it was about 1823 and 1824 that the great revolution came by which pens were made by a cheaper process—the hand screw press which placed the pens from steel rolled into tube fashion and the joint formed the slit, but these required considerable labor to shape them into pen form. The use of the screw press belongs to the period of John Mitchell, Joseph Gillet and Josiah Mason, but on a careful review of the facts it seems to be clear that John Mitchell has the best claim to be considered as the original introducer of press made pens.
