Last week we published a resolution, evidently intended to mislead stockholders regarding the company's willingness to co operate with the Town Council in their search for material. The refusal to lend the augur, (and by the way it was Mr, McKechnie a Director of the Company and also the Treasurer of the Co. who was DURHAM PO refused,) was referred to as an instance wherein the Company did not show themselves in strong harmony with the Town Council in making their investigations. More than that it is alleged that orders were given to keep the investigating party off the Company's property, and even a man put on watch to see that no one should go in that direction. The investigation has been made and both materials have been found in abundance; they have been analysed and pronounced of first class quality for the production of Portland Cement. the present we must conclude with The Town, let us say, went on with a few remarks from letters that show an independent investigation.
