NEXT DOOR TO CARSON'S

Traverston.

(Intended for last week.)

Mr. Will J. Greenwood was seriously ill all last week with pleurisy, but a lot of writing is somewhat better. Good medical aid, a careful professional nurse and the untiring attention of his wife, mother and other friends will soon put him on his feet again, we trust.

Mr. Adam Robson returned on Friday from a fortnight's visit to relatives at Toronto, Burlington and Beverly.

Rev. Alex Minnis, the Evangelist, has occupied Zion's pulpit for the past two Sundays and made a most favorable impression on his hearers by his earnestness, zeal and arguments.

Miss Ella Whittaker leaves this week to return to Caledon, before going to her home at White Fish, New Ontario. Thirty years ago last Friday, her parents were made one in the "old home over the way." Eight children blessed the union, all of whom are alive and lively.

"Just two weeks till Zion's Christmas Tree," we heard some kids shouting on Saturday last. Everybody present is to be remembered and the program is being carefully prepared.

The foxes have cleared out of the woods on the lots butting each other on the 7th and 8th concessions. When Den. Sweeney, Jno. McNally, Geo. and Jno. Peart and another chap we know, all got skidding logs at the same time, the "Who-oo-oas!" caused the earth to tremble. Reynard thought it time to remove his habitation.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which developed into the worst kind of a gripe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Egleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip." These Tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale at Parker's Drug

A good story comes from New Hamburg:—A farmer living not a thousand miles from that place on entering his chicken house one morning discovered that a number of his best birds were missing, and on looking around found a purse lying in the straw in the hen house. Picking it up he imagined his surprise to find that it contained $80 in bills. He quietly put the money in his pocket and said nothing. Later in the day a wealthy neighbor called and asked if he had any chickens for sale. The farmer told him he had not but he insisted on seeing them anyway. But the visitor did not see much of the chickens. From the time he entered the hen house his eyes were riveted on the floor, and the way in which he kicked round in the straw spoke more convincingly than could words.

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund well fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age, will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

When you want a pleasant laxative take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

SACKETT'S CORNERS.

Mr. Editor, it is some time since there has been any news from this place, and even yet news around here is like hen's teeth, rather scarce. We are pleased to learn that Angus Ferguson, of Hopeville, formerly of this vicinity, has recovered from a severe attack of typhoid fever. He has our sincere sympathy in the loss of his wife from the same trouble.

Miss Mary Ernest is at present under the weather from an attack of measles. Nearly all of the young people around here have had them.

Wm. Sackett has returned from the West and thinks that country is all right.

Mr. G. Sackett has been ill for some weeks, but is able to be around again.

We regret to learn that the town of Dundalk is quarantined for small pox.

Mrs. Robertson Haw, of Port Hope, is visiting her sons Geo. and Wm. Haw, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kennell have returned from Swan River where they were visiting their daughter; Mrs. Glendinning.

The statement is made by those closely identified with the Seldon House that in order to meet the demand for additional rooms that the directors will consider at the next meeting the advisability of tearing down the brick stable to make room for a three story addition in which to locate more sample rooms on the ground floor which was greatly needed, while upstairs would be devoted to a better class of sleeping apartments than now exist, to which would be added baths. The two months' results are regarded as most satisfactory and demonstrate that a first class hotel without a bar adjunct can be made a paying concern.

THE LOCAL NEWSPAPER

It is to the interest of every town to support a good newspaper, says the Atlanta Constitution, not through local pride alone, but for practical business reasons. A newspaper is constantly doing twice as much for its own town as it could ever hope to get pay for—more than it could charge for if it would.

The more prosperous a newspaper is the more it is liable to do. Show us a good weekly paper, full of live local news, with a general circulation throughout the country, and we will show you an up-to-date and progressive community.

Show us a community that persistently proceeds on the idea that the editor of the home paper can live on the "pi" that accumulates in the office, whose official bodies think it is a waste of public money to give him a bit of public printing occasionally at living prices, whose citizens have come to regard it as one of their inalienable rights to work him for long winded obituary notices and "in memoriams" with three inches of hymn book poetry at the end, to say nothing of an occasional notice of a lost cow, or some cottonseed sale, and we will show you a community that is living from hand to mouth, and is always on the ragged edge of adversity. People ought to stop and think about these things. It is an important matter. It is their own good that is involved, the welfare and progress of their community, therefore of themselves.

A local newspaper is absolutely necessary to any community. No merchant, no grand jury, no town council that spends every year all it can afford with the home paper, whether the expenditure is absolutely necessary or not, makes a wiser, more profitable investment. They are not giving the home paper something. On the contrary it is earning every cent it gets, and more, providing it is a paper worth picking up in the road. And if it isn't that sort of a paper it is usually the fault of the town in which it is published.

An Emergency Medicine.

For sprains, bruises, burns, scalds and similar injuries, there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It soothes the wound and not only gives instant relief from pain, but causes the parts to heal in about one third the time required by the usual treatment. Sold at Parker's Drug Store.

WINTER NIGHT'S READING.

Just now, when our readers are considering the question of their reading for the fall and winter months, it seems opportune to call attention to The Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer. Each week it gives all the news in an easily accessible form, and includes a beautifully illustrated magazine section. Its able editorials have high literary quality, and summarize current public opinion. Its agricultural, commercial and home-makers' departments are carefully written, and supply valuable information for the farmer and his household. Its stories, leisure hour reading, and special topics for children and young people make it a welcome visitor to the family circle. Its page of selected western news appeals to all who are interested in the growing west. In brief, the history of The Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer covering a period of over sixty years, together with its high character, interest and value to readers of all ages, make it one of the greatest and most popular family newspapers published in Canada.

THOUSANDS DIE OF CONSTIPATION.

Your system will be pure and clean, you'll be free from headaches, no more sour stomach—in short you'll have joyful spirits and perfect good health.
