DON'T DELAY

The progressive merchant's dream is to clear counters and shelves of all winter goods to make room for spring goods. Our season begins long before yours. That's why we have to plan well in advance. Everything that belongs to winter must move out. There has been "some doings" in Durham for the past few weeks. Have you missed what has been going on here at our

Great Annual Discount Sale

Big Crowds
Last Friday

Our opinion is confirmed again and again respecting the advantages of doing your shopping here while the great sale is on. We are constantly hearing satisfied expression from our customers, and better still our sales testify that our display is all that the most particular could ask for.

You'd think it was the day before Xmas. There's nothing like a genuine discount sale of good goods to arouse the enthusiasm of people who appreciate a real bargain. We are not doing this thing by halves. The People's Store is fairly flooded with sensational values in every department.

GROCERIES

A lady said the other day that she had tried all the stores in Durham for groceries—"good groceries"—and had at last settled down on Burnett's. The groceries I get here she said are always fresh and of the very best quality.

SOME HAPPENINGS.

Dunkley "take out an accident policy before he attempts to referee another game for Owen Sound." This is quite an inducement to the team to play good clean hockey, something the O. H. A. Officials have been trying to enforce the past couple of years, and quite a contrast with the sanctimonious stand taken by the same journal in the recent local option campaign. There it stood for humanity's sake, and it's every influence was used in support of local option. Now, if it's any greater sin or wrong to send a man home with a skin full of tangle-foot throat mixture singing "Show Me the Way to Go Home, Babe," and happy in the thought that he's worth a million or two, at least, than it is to soak him with the kick end of a fifteen cent hockey stick and send him home in an ambulance, wondering if the world has come to an end, or just an ordinary seven-story building, lot and all, dropped on him, we fail to see it. One fifteen-cent shot out of a hockey stick will generally fix them. It takes several out of a whisky bottle, and they recover quicker. Surely Owen Sound is a wonderful place, and if Joseph's coat of many colors ever happens to call there, opposition will drive it to pastures new.

CONSERVATIVE ASSOCIATION.

THE annual meeting of the South Grey Conservative Association was held on Monday last when the following officers were elected.
John Taylor, Hanover, President.
Wm. Sharp, Vice-President.
TOWNSHIP VICE-PRESIDENTS.
Hanover—Geo. Hallinger, 1st, Val. Kerchner, 2nd.
Bentinck—Wm. Willis, 1st, J. S. Wilson, 2nd.
Normanby—W. A. Sharp, 1st, A. Weinert, 2nd.
Egremont—Jas. Mack, 1st, John Swanston, 2nd.
Proton—As they have decided themselves.
Glennel—Geo. Arrowsmith 1st, Wm. Ritchie, 2nd.
Durham—w. D. Mills, 1st, Fred Seigner, 2nd.
Sullivan—Jos. Pringle Chatsworth, 1st, Wm. Smith, Desboro, 2nd.
Dundalk—S. Bell, 1st, Chas. Noble, 2nd.

Short addresses were made by Dr. Jamieson, Wm. Allan, R. J. Ball, W. Laidlaw and others. It was explained that Mr. Downey's absence was on account of the unfavorable weather and the probability of only a small attendance being at the meeting. A resolution condemning the action of the Dominion Government on the salary grab was unanimously carried, both sides of the house being, but the Government side in particular for having introduced the measure.
