Plan at Macfarlane's. Opens Jan. 26th at 2 p. m.

WE are pleased to announce this week, the recovery of Mr. Ben. Williams. Mr. Williams underwent an operation on Dec. 23rd last, and though we believe his condition was never a matter of alarm to his physicians, still it is a great relief to his family and relatives to know he is on the road to recovery. He has been up and around for some days, but Tuesday was his first day up town, and if he didn't handle his feet just right, and bore down rather hard on the walking stick he's forced to use, time, care, and judicious exercise for a week or so, will make him the envy of many men who are several years his junior.

THE Editorial quill has been laid aside by Mr. E. E. Sheppard, who for many years has been the able and racy editorial writer in the Toronto Saturday Night. His successor is Joe T. Clark, who for eight years held a position as associate editor on the same journal, but for some years has been engaged on other papers, latterly the Toronto Star. Joe was a Flesherton boy, served some time as a typo in the Review office in this town, and at times owned and operated the Pickering News and other papers, until he got tired of the "stiek" and turned his attention wholly to the wielding of the quill. Mr. Clark is a good writer but he's got a mighty hard man to follow, and he knows it. We wish him success as Editor-in-chief of Toronto's great Society paper.

AUCTION SALE.—See notice of Neil McCannel's sale in this issue.

TAUBE & SON, eyesight specialist will be at Parker's Drug Store on Wed. and Thurs. Feb. 7th and 8th.

Ogilvie's Royal Household Flour $5.25 per bbl. Other high grade Manitoba flour at $4.75 and $5.00 per bbl. at Watson's Bakery.

FARM FOR SALE.—South 1/2, lot 26, con. 18, Township of Normanby. Fine buildings. Must be sold. Apply to Arthur H. Jackson, Durham. 2m.

HEAD aches come from eye strain. If you are troubled that way consult Taube & Son at Parker's Drug Store, Feb. 7th and 8th.

THE Canadian Order of Foresters will have their annual "At Home" on Friday evening the 23rd inst. The brethren will please take notice.

Mr. J. G. ORCHARD, of London, spent a day or so in town this week, and gave the Chronicle a call. He cannot imagine why any one should even think of moving the Cement Mill.

SACRAMENTAL Services will be held in the Methodist Church on Sabbath next at 10:30 a. m. The evening sermon on "The Revelation of our Lord as a Healer" will be followed by a Gospel Song Service conducted by the Pastor.

WE understand that Mr. Alex. Gordon has sold, or is about to sell his jewellery business here to a Mr. Webster of Toronto. They are taking stock this week. Mr. Gordon thinks of going West for a time.

THE Canadian Press Association meets in Temple Building, Toronto, this week from Thursday till Saturday. Morning and afternoon sessions Thursday and Friday, excursion to Guelph Saturday to visit the College and Macdonald Institute.

WE had a brief call last week from Mr. T. J. Lawrence, of Ravelstock, B. C. Tom left here about six or seven years ago and is engaged on the Canadian Pacific Railway, now occupying the position of conductor. He is down visiting his father and friends here and will return in a few days.

AFTER three years in the jewellery business out West Mr. Roy Gordon has given up, and has entered the study of medicine. He is home here at present. An attack of typhoid fever affected his eyes so that he decided to quit gazing at watches and jewellery for a while though he was very successful.

WE regret very much the death of Mrs. John Moffat, of Edge Hill, after only a few days illness. It was a surprise to everybody, as no one seemed to know she was ill till the announcement of her death on Friday last. Interment took place to Durham Cemetery on Sunday afternoon. Our Edge Hill correspondent gives a brief account.

DE ALVA'S College Girls will be at the Town Hall, Durham, one night only. This company comes to the town recommended by the press as one of the strongest shows that has ever played in Canada. They carry 25 people, all special scenery, a lady band and orchestra. It is strictly a high class attraction catering specially to ladies and children. The company will give a parade at noon. Plan now open at Macfarlane's drug store.

THE Quotation Books, a nice little souvenir of Durham, compiled by the E. worth League of the Methodist Church, is now on sale at the store of Matthews & Latimer. The work was done at this office, and is generally spoken of as a neat little job. It contains about three hundred quotations furnished by members and friends of the League and is nicely illustrated with portraits of citizens and places in town. Proceeds to be applied to the organ fund. Single copies 35c. If you wish to secure one order at once, as the number is limited.

THE CEMENT QUESTION.

Mr. H. H. Farr, who has been superintendent of the Cement Works since they began operations, resigned his position and leaves this week to enter on duty at an early date in a cement mill on the other side of the line. Mr. Farr was very popular with the employees of the company and was always regarded as a hard worker and a good citizen. Of late he has been determined in decrying the chances of the mill, and in condemning the marl. In view of the good report put in by Mr. Wood, the independent expert, we cannot understand why he should have done so. We respect Mr. Farr for getting out when he felt the tide of opinion was turning against him. Who knows but he may have been misled?

It is not our intention to say much this week about the cement question, and by the time our next issue is out the question of the board of directors will in all probability be settled for 1906. There is a strong pull for office. The old directors are working tooth and nail to get back on the board, and the large body of shareholders are just as determined that they shall not be returned.

There is a danger that too many self seeking aspirants will be in the field and divide the vote so as to render it ineffective. Elections are like horse races, you can never tell till the winning post is reached, what the result will be. There should be concerted action on the part of the stockholders and as we have already stated we should be willing to concede many points in order to have effective action. So far we have not mentioned any names in particular, except Mr. McKechnie, for the next board.

Last week Mr. Hodgert, of Exeter, was in town looking up votes with a view of getting on the board of directors. From what he said he was opposed to the present board, and was strong on getting a new set of directors.

The Exeter Times of the 25th of January reports a meeting of the local stockholders. Mr. Cobblestick and Mr. Ratz were present and spoke as directors. At the close a motion was passed. The Times says: "The meeting was brought to a close by a motion made by W. D. Saunders and seconded by A. E. Hodgert, that the thanks of this meeting be tendered to the directors present for the able manner in which they have handled the affairs of the company during the past year."

The seconder of the above motion is the same man whom we refer to above. Two and two make four.

Send your proxies in to Gilbert McKechnie.

Presbyterian Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Durham Presbyterian Church was held on Monday last and the congregation is rejoicing in having passed another annual milestone in its history with the winning flag still unfurled. Our Reports, presented in printed form, of the various organizations through which the Church is carried on showed not only a successful year financially and numerically, but from the interest manifested throughout the year, the harmony prevailing in all departments of the work, the good-will towards each other and towards the sister denominations, and the generally regular attendance of the congregation at the regular services of the Church it is believed that the higher interests of the congregation are also in a flourishing condition. During the year the Manse property was purchased and the expenses were necessarily higher on that account but the contributions rose proportionately so that in due time the congregation will, as before, be free from debt. The net contributions for all purposes were as follows: Sabbath School $54.63, W. F. M. S. $89.81, Missions about $500, Guild $107.49, Record $14.75, Manse $959.59, General Fund $1669.87. Total about $3,315.

The following paragraph from the Report of the Missionary Society speaks for itself and for the devotedness of the deceased donor and her esteemed husband to the cause of Christ upon earth.

"The Missionary Society gratefully acknowledges the handsome legacy of $1189.76 left by Mrs. Jas. Calvert to the Mission Schemes of the Church and the unostentatious yet joyous manner in which Mr. Calvert has carried out the wishes of his deceased wife. While this large sum is not properly a congregational contribution, it is, notwithstanding, a substantial addition to the amount contributed during the year."

The number of members added during the year was 23. Removals by death or otherwise 19. Number of baptisms 19, of marriages 15. Total membership 310.

The retiring Managers were Messrs. Daniel Edge, Thomas McGirr, Campbell Milligan and R. Macfarlane. The two last were re-elected for the next three years. At their own request the two first were allowed to rest after a long and honorable service of some 21 years. Many were the complimentary remarks passed by the brethren on these long years of willing, faithful and capable service and a very hearty and special vote of thanks was tendered them by the meeting. In their places Messrs. Wm. Weir and Dan McArthur were elected for the next term.

After the business was over the annual social tea was partaken of in the basement by those present and others. Short congratulatory remarks were then made by a few of the members and Rev. Mr. Bice in a few pleasing words complimented the Pastor and congregation on the work of the year. He emphasized the need of prayer as the chief factor in all success. If all the christian people of Durham "cried more to God," greater success would attend their efforts. The meeting was interspersed with excellent selections by members of the choir and closed with a doxology and the benediction by Mr. Bice.
