DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor.

Durham, February 1, 1906

Doctors Disagree.

Dr. E. K. Richardson, of Toronto, is an opponent to vaccination as a preventive of small pox, and in a letter to the Flesherton Advance of a couple of weeks ago he gave instances of evil resulting from the practice. Down in the Province of Quebec some years ago we saw some very sore arms after the operation, but mostly amongst the poorly fed and improperly clad of the district. In last week's issue of the same paper Dr. Geo. S. Armstrong, of Spokane, also a Flesherton boy came out publicly in favor of vaccination, stating that he was health officer of the State of Washington for eight years and during that time and the eight years since he had seen hundreds of cases of small pox, not one of whom had a good vaccination scar. This is a case where doctors disagree, and as the Editor of this paper is not possessed of medical knowledge he can only follow the dictates of his own judgment, whether right or wrong, and express it as his opinion that personally he would feel safer after going through the vaccination ordeal. Dr. Armstrong finishes up his letter with the following paragraph:—

"The experience of 100 years is so abundant and complete that it ought to convince anyone who has anything to think with. True, there are a few dissenters in Derby, Timbuctoo and Toronto Junction. There are also those who believe in Dowie, Lydia Pinkham or a rabbit's foot. The state or municipality should not be required to isolate and protect people from what they can so easily protect themselves, consequently I am not in favor of compulsory vaccination. Everybody should have the right to small pox if desired. Of course some of them would die, but that would save the fool killer from working over time. Every one having small pox should be taken care of during illness, and upon recovery be put in jail for 60 days for having had it."

About twenty-five members of the R. T. of T. Council here paid a fraternal visit to the Council at Port Law on Thursday evening last. The Port Law council furnished refreshments and with a season of speech making the evening was very enjoyably spent.

The Durham Hockey Club played the club here a match on Friday eve last. The score 15 5 in favor of Flesherton, was too one-sided to create deep interest.

Three members of Mr. Andrew Beattie's family in the Orange Valley are victims of small-pox, but we learn the cases are not severe. Mr. Beattie's son returned home from Toronto last week, ill, and small-pox developed. There are no cases here or nearer than Mr. Beattie's, but a member of his family, having been attending the school previous to her brother's return, the trustees deemed it wise to close the school for a few days, and have had the building thoroughly fumigated.

Reeve Muir was at work in the town hall on Saturday last appointing officers for taking the local option vote on Feb. 6th.

As far as we have learned, those from here who attended the Torrey—Alexander meetings in Toronto last week enjoyed the services very much. Rev. J. B. Wass and others purpose going this week.

The thaw has put the village snow plow out of business. In contrast with last winter, the oldest settlers say never before did they see such continuous mild weather and little snow in January.

On Wednesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Karstedt had a family gathering at their home in honor of the latter's birthday. The evening was enjoyably spent by the friends assembled.

Mr. Geo. B. Richardson, who has been for some time in New Ontario, has received the appointment of postmaster at Hanbury. George is an industrious and capable young man, and we congratulate him on his appointment to this position of trust.

Mr. John Chadwick, of Manitoba, was the guest of Mr. Thos. Bulmer over Sunday.

Miss McAuley is home from Toronto Bible Training School visiting her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheppard of Toronto Junction are visiting the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Bentham.

Mr. Wm. Moore of Wilson N. Y., is visiting his uncle, Mr. Wm. Moore.

Mr. Thos. Clayton spent from Tuesday of last week till Monday in Toronto and attended the Torrey and Alexander meetings.

(This week's budget.)

At the regular meeting of L. O. L. No. 244, Proton Station, on the evening of January 9th, Mr. Wm. Sharp was the recipient of a much appreciated gift from the Lodge accompanied by the following address:—

MR. Wm. SHARP PAST MASTER L.O.L. No. 244:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—We take the opportunity this evening of expressing to you in a tangible manner our deep gratitude and appreciation of the excellent services you have rendered this lodge during your tenure of office. We have always found in you a faithful adherent of our noble Order, and always knew that our lodge had in you one of its most loyal supporters and untiring workers. Your zeal and energy in always trying to promote the best things attainable regarding the welfare of the lodge and Order you represent has struck a spontaneous chord in every heart, and we feel that we could not allow this occasion of your retiring as Master of 244 without expressing our heartfelt thanks for your valued services. We ask you to accept this fur cap and pair of gloves as a slight recognition of our esteem for you, and trust that when you wear them there will arise in your memory the fraternal spirit which prompted the gift and which your brethren hereby heartily exemplify.

temesia, held their annual tea and entertainment on Wednesday evening of last week and notwithstanding the absence of sleighing there was a good turnout, the proceeds being over $40. After the tea Mr. J. G. Carson was called to the chair and in a happy manner conducted a pleasing program rendered entirely by local talent.

Local option meetings are being held this week and next throughout the township. Rev. Jas. Buchanan, of Dundalk, will speak on the subject next Sunday at Eugenia in the morning, the Presbyterian church, here, in the afternoon, and in the Methodist church, here, at night.

After about four months' illness, there passed away on Wednesday of last week at her old home, the Beecroft farm a mile and a half from this village, Mrs. A. B. Sykes, aged 62 years. The funeral took place to the public cemetery, here, on Friday, Rev. Dr. Caldwell conducting the burial service. The pall bearers were Messrs. M. K. Richardson, R. J. Sproule, W. J. Bellamy, Arch. Boyd, J. Callen and Jerry Thompson. Among those from a distance were the deceased's daughter, (Frances) Mrs. McBean, of Los Angeles, who arrived a few days before her mother's death; Mrs. T. B. Akitt, of Collingwood, a sister of the deceased, and Miss Osborn of Michigan, a niece. The deceased was born in Yorkshire, England, and when six years of age came with her parents to Canada and lived in King township, County of York, till married to her first husband, the late Mr. James Beecroft, with whom she came to Artemesia township over forty years ago and settled on the farm where she died. About five years ago she was married to Mr. Sykes who survives her. The surviving children by her first husband are Mrs. D. Talbot and Albert, of Everett, Washington, Mrs. McBean and John T., of Los Angeles, California. The deceased was converted early in life and became a member of the Methodist church in which she was deeply interested. She was for many years president of the Ladies' Aid and was otherwise active in the work of the Church. In the early days of the Church here when the Superintendent of the circuit had an assistant her home was the home of the young minister on the field. She now rests from her labors.

At the service in the Methodist church on Sunday evening Rev. Dr. Caldwell took for his theme the Torrey-Alexander motto "Get Right With God" and gave impressions of his visit to their meetings. The Glory Song was sung by the choir and congregation. Dr. Murray and Mrs. Blackburn sang "Tell mother I'll be there" and "Does Jesus Care" was also rendered by the former.

Dr. Murray continues to add the newest up-to-date dental appliances to his office. While in the city last week he purchased a new invention for making illuminum plates which will be practically unbreakable.

Rev. John Stafford, M. A., who left here in November last to become Principal of the High School at Medicine Hat, Sask., is enjoying his work in our western Province.

Rev. J. Darroch, formerly pastor in the Baptist church here, who on account of break down of health had some time ago to give up active work is with Mrs. Darroch at Medicine Hat resting and seeking renewed health. We are pleased to learn there is an appreciable improvement and we trust the health giving ozone of the West will soon restore him to his usual strength and activity.

Mrs. Jos. Clinton returned last week from visiting relatives at Westfield, Huron county.

Mrs. A. McAuley, of this place, has recently been suffering with a serious affliction in the eyes and left on Saturday to consult a specialist in Toronto.

Mrs. J. F. VanDusen, of Dundalk, spent the past week with Mrs. A. S. VanDusen who is ill, but is on the mend. Miss Graham, of Toronto, paid her a short visit on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Lyons, of Winnipeg, visited the past week with relatives here.

Mrs. E. W. White, of Markdale, was the guest of Miss Quigg over Sunday and is this week visiting her brother at the old home.

Mr. Herman Morrison, of Owen Sound, was a visitor at Mr. Wm. Wilcock's last week.

Master Willie Wilson spent Sunday at Varney with his friend Master Hoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Runstadler spent the past two weeks with friends in Berlin and Waterloo.

Mr. J. A. Felstead was in town on Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Henderson has returned to the city after a lengthy visit here.

Gentlemen Who Are Bald

THE SLEEPY WATCHMAN.

A week Monday night was as black as ink. No one would venture from home you'd think. There was no snow, but plenty of mud. And a person could hardly see the road. Several miles nor'east of this. A dance went on in all its bliss. Some gents from Durham started hence. And up the gravel road they went.

North of the Rocky the rig upset. Right into a creek and they all got wet. One gent turned back to the Rocky Hotel. To dry his clothes and he dried them well. The other two fellows went onto the dance. And spent all night in their cold, wet, pants. The night was dark and lanterns used. And the lanterns they were much abused.

A dandy new buggy which cut quite a dash. When at home the next day it looked pretty well splashed. With three in that buggy on that muddy road. We are sure that the horse had a good heavy load. The bridge o'er the river it stood a good test. As the water had risen about four feet, I guess. Some people who crossed on their way to the dance. Had to crawl on their hands and their knees on a plank.

Those two brave fellows who went through to the dance. Must have shivered like leaves in their cold, wet, pants. Their feet were soaking and oh! Great Scott. There was only the one dry pair of socks. A pilot was left in the lonely wood, A lantern in hand for to guide the crowd. How long he waited not many knew. Till the last of the Durhamites came in view.

The people were cheerful and quite contented. Tobermory and Zion were well represented. The crowd was large and the building small. It took house and wood-shed to hold them all. At four in the morning it started to rain. Some who had started home had to turn back again. Some stayed for breakfast next morning at seven. And did not get home until half past eleven.—Com.
