Mrs. John McKinnon, of the Rocky, has taken up her abode in town.

Mr. Chas. McKinnon went to Seaforth Tuesday on business.

Mr. Brad Jamieson is attending an examination in Toronto this week.

Mr. Wm. Moffet and sister, Miss Moffet, went to Palmerston Tuesday.

Miss Annie Alexander of Allan Park left Tuesday morning for Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Wm. Carson attended the funeral of Mrs. Robt. Stewart, at Goldstone.

Rev. Mr. McLellan, of Walkerton, occupied the Baptist pulpit here on Sunday.

Miss Robertson, of Hamilton, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Robertson.

Mr. Thos. Barclay went to Goldstone Tuesday to attend the funeral of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Stewart.

Miss McDonald, of Toronto, visited her sister, Mrs. N. W. Campbell, over Sunday.

Mr. John McCaul, of Toronto Junction, was in town a day or two last week.

Mrs. John Vollet and child, of Fort William, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Vollet.

Mrs. Harvey O. Marshall, of Toronto, is the guest of her cousin Mrs. J. C. Nichol.

Rev. Mr. Newton spent a few days at Hawkesbury where he preached on Sunday last.

Mr. James Ireland went to Toronto on Monday to be present at the marriage of his brother-in-law, Mr. Gibson to Miss Charlton.

Mr. George Stinson has moved into his new home, the Carson property which he purchased recently. He is now at work in his new bake shop, not yet completed.

Mr. Hugh McKechnie, of the Rocky, but now of Bethune, Sask., in sending a dollar for the paper says, "We miss THE CHRONICLE very much since we came out here, it is all right only for its bad politics. No Tories out here, only Grits and a few C. P. R. men."

Mr. Charles McKinnon, who has been out west for some time returned home Saturday night. Mr. McKinnon has made several trips during the past two or three years and should know the road pretty well by this time.

Mr. J. W. Crawford and two sons, Alex. and Pete, left last week for the vicinity of Battleford where, we understand, they intend to take up land. Mr. Crawford has long been regarded as an estimable citizen, and we hope he may do well. We do not think he has at present any serious intentions of leaving Durham permanently.

Mrs. G. L. McCaul and daughter left Friday last for their home in Toronto. Mr. McCaul, who will follow in a few days, has been a legal practitioner here for a number of years and we believe he was honest, honorable and upright in all his dealings. We hope the declining years of his life may grow brighter and brighter.

Mr. Sandy McDonald received a message from his brother in San Francisco. The short missive was written on a sheet of paper containing a picture of the Cliff House. It simply stated "we are all safe," was folded once, addressed and forwarded without a stamp, as many similar missives were allowed to go free after the sad calamity.

Mr. James Carson went to Goldstone Monday to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Robert Stewart, notice of whose death was received here on Saturday from Guelph hospital where she underwent an operation. On Thursday Mr. Carson received word that she was doing well, but a relapse set in which resulted fatally. Mr. Carson is having his own share of trouble lately and naturally feels the hard blows he is forced to endure. Interment took place Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Johnston, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston, left last week for Portland, Oregon, where she intends to reside. This is the last of Mr. Johnston's family, and her departure leaves Mr. and Mrs. Johnston in as lonely a state, yes in a more lonely condition, as they were when first married. Miss Johnston takes with her the good-will of her life's associates, and we trust in her new home she will make good and true acquaintances who will find her worthy of their confidence.

Mr. Angus McKinnon intends to leave in about a week for "Sunny Alberta" where he intends to take up his abode.

Mr. Robt. McCracken resigned his position as head salesman at the Big Store, and intends going West, we understand.

Mr. R. A. McGregor, District Manager for the North American Life Assurance Co., of Toronto, was in town a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Ireland and daughter Miss Jean went to Toronto to be present at the marriage of the former's brother Mr. Gibson, to a daughter of Mr. John Charlton Esq.-M. P.

Her Skin Was Yellow.

"I had only to try Dr. Hamilton's Pills to appreciate their merit" writes Mrs Annie S. Byce, of Woodstock. "My system was out of order. My blood was weak and thin. I had a nasty, murky complexion. My skin was hard and dry. The first box of Dr. Hamilton's Pills made a complete change. I felt better at once. Healthy color came into my face. In about three weeks I was cured. Dr. Hamilton's Pills effect an easy cure. Try these good pills, 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00, at all dealers."

Not if as Rich as Rockefeller.

If you had all the wealth of Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate, you could not buy a better medicine for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The most eminent physician can not prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhoea, both for children and adults. The uniform success of this remedy has shown it to be superior to all others. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold at Parker's Drug Store.

OLD TIME TRAVELING.

The Stagecoach in England in the Seventeenth Century.

The first stagecoach between the two capitals, London and Edinburgh, appears to have been started in 1658. It ran once a fortnight, and the fare was £4. The time taken to the journey is not accurately known, but between York and London it was four days. This lavish system of communication was not, however, kept up, as in 1763 the coach ran between London and Edinburgh once a month only, taking a fortnight, if the weather was favorable, to the journey.

In the days of stagecoaches people sometimes clubbed together and hired a postchaise for their journey as being quicker and less expensive, and Scottish newspapers occasionally contained advertisements to the effect that a person about to proceed to London would be glad to hear of a fellow "adventurer" or two bent on the same journey to share the expense.

In 1754 a heroic effort was made to improve the London and Edinburgh coach. The Edinburgh Courant for that year contained the following advertisement: "The Edinburgh stagecoach, for the better accommodation of passengers, will be altered to a genteel two end glass coach, being on steel springs, exceeding light and easy, to go in ten days in summer and twelve in winter, to set out the first Tuesday in March and continue it from Hoses Eastgate's, the Coach and Horses, in Dean Street, Soho, London, and from John Somerville's, in the Canongate, Edinburgh, etc. Passengers to pay as usual. Performed, if God permits, by your dutiful servant, Hoses Eastgate."

GIVING LUNCHEONS.

Etiquette to be Observed on Formal and Informal Occasions.

In the formal luncheon, if the table is a handsome wood, without scratch or blemish, it may be left bare, using small dolleys under the plates and dishes and a centerpiece. This gives an unusual opportunity to display rare embroideries, but the fine damask tablecloth is always in good taste.

When luncheon is announced the hostess asks her friends to follow her to the dining room without formality. The soup is served in two handled cups, the heavy roast is omitted generally, and few vegetables are served. The hostess may serve the salad, the dessert and the coffee, although these are more often served from the side.

At the informal luncheon tea may be served by the hostess with the teapot, sugar bowl, cream jug and cups and saucers neatly arranged on a large tray under a cloth, or the tray may be omitted, using only the cloth. Two or more courses may be served, all of the dishes arranged on the table and the second course, the sweets and cakes, placed on side tables.
